NovaCare COMPLEX

In grand fashion, the Eagles opened their NovaCare Complex practice facility in the spring of 2001. The spectacular 108,000-square-foot facility offers the very best in terms of space, amenities and care and effort put forth for the players, coaches and staff of the Eagles.

"The NovaCare Complex allowed us to go from having one of the worst facilities in the National Football League to the very best of facilities," said team Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie. "It means so much for everyone in this organization to go to work each day and be proud of where they are working, from the executives, to the assistants, to the trainers, and, of course, to the players. Everyone in the organization, I think, is very proud of where they are working. It provides the whole organization with a great atmosphere and enhances the degree of camaraderie because there are all sorts of rooms people can actually spend time with each other as opposed to the setup we had to endure whereby people were so compartmentalized."

Lincoln Financial Field

Upon purchasing the Eagles in 1994, Jeffrey Lurie stated, unequivocally, that building a new, state-of-the-art stadium would be a key component in the effort to build the Eagles into an elite NFL franchise.

"Winning the Super Bowl is the ultimate goal," said Lurie, the team's Chairman/CEO. "Stadiums and training facilities, however, are a vital element in the success and stability of franchises on both a present and long-term basis. As an organization, you want to assemble the best staff and players, but you also have to provide them with the best facilities and environment in which to achieve success.

"That's what we want to do with Lincoln Financial Field and the NovaCare Complex (the club's corporate headquarters and training facility). With regard to each venue, we have made a dramatic leap. Both are striking in terms of their architecture and amenities, and both will be seen as icons for the Eagles and for Philadelphia."

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD TIMELINE

The construction of Lincoln Financial Field began on May 7, 2001. A little less than 28 months later, the stadium hosted its first event, a soccer match between Manchester United and FC Barcelona (8/3/03). Lincoln Financial Field℠

Added Eagles president Joe Banner, "Lincoln Financial Field will enhance the image of and economic activity within the Philadelphia region. In terms of what it will mean to the club in a macro sense, it will enable us to be competitive financially while also helping us further define ourselves as a first-class organization.

"Ultimately, our investment in Lincoln Financial Field will send a message about how truly driven we are with regard to achieving success and about how committed we are to enhancing the comfort and enjoyment of our fans. Lincoln Financial Field will bring fans so much closer to the action as well as provide them with dramatically improved sight lines and the most state-of-the-art amenities and services. In terms of technological enhancements, the stadium represents a world of difference from what fans have experienced at Veterans Stadium and even from what is available in some of the newest facilities around the country.

"A dramatic new venue such as this can play a major role in enhancing the city's profile while at the same time having a positive economic impact. In all we're conceivably talking about hosting 30-50 major events a year."

EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP GAME PLAN

OUR MISSION

To enhance opportunities and improve the quality of life for children and youth in the Greater Philadelphia region through health and education partnerships.

OUR STRATEGY FOR WINNING

Eagles players and corporate, private and non-profit partners team-up for a "Game Plan" that wins.

OFFENSE

EDUCATING youth to achieve their life goals

Eagles Book Mobile

The Eagles Book Mobile visits underserved children in schools, shelters, libraries, recreation centers, after-school/summer programs and parks. At each stop, the "Storybook Man" reads aloud to the children and invites them aboard to select their very own books to keep. In 2002, the Eagles Book Mobile program distributed more than 55,000 books to children, most of whom had never owned a book. Partners include: Lincoln Financial Group Foundation, Sovereign Bank, AMETEK Foundation, First Book and United Way of Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Reading, After School & Community Service Grants

Eagles Youth Partnership grants seed new initiatives and enhance existing programs. Varying in length from one to three years and ranging from $5,000-$465,000, recent grants include Philadelphia Reads, Literacy Action Project, First Book, SE Collaborative Technology Project, City Year and the Rainbow Company.

DEFENSE

Tackling HEALTH problems that block children from achieving their maximum potential

Eagles Eye Mobile

In seven successful seasons on the road, the ongoing Eagles Eye Mobile program has provided free eye exams for more than 7,800 children in the Philadelphia and Chester-Upland public schools. A large majority of those examined needed and received free prescription eyeglasses and many others underwent vision-saving surgery. This innovative partnership of Eagles Offensive Lineman Jermane Mayberry, St. Christopher's Hospital for Children, Lincoln Financial Group Foundation, Tenet Pennsylvania, Independence Blue Cross and the school districts, continues to attract international attention and acclaim.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Leveraging the Philadelphia Eagles to INSPIRE youth and communities toward a better "field position" in their lives

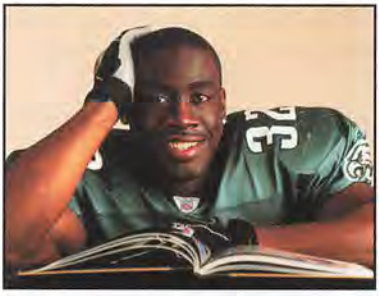

Eagles Playground Builds

Each year Eagles Youth Partnership and the Eagles organization devote a full day building a playground in an underserved community. Eagles players, staff, coaches and management work together with neighborhood adults and children to landscape, paint murals, inlay tile mosaic and build play structures. A grant from Eagles Youth Partnership covers the cost of each community build.

Eagles Top Achiever Awards

Eagles Youth Partnership created the Top Achiever Awards to recognize academic excellence among area high school football players. Varsity football players from Allentown, Camden, Chester, Philadelphia, Reading and Wilmington who maintain a 3.0 GPA are invited to an awards reception and are treated like MVPs at the Eagles Summer Training Camp. Since 1997, more than 575 scholar athletes have won this award.

EYP is Nationally Recognized

In 2002, EYP was presented the Human and Civil Rights Award by the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and was also named Outstanding Corporate Foundation of the year by the Regional Association of Fundraising Professionals. In 2001, EYP won the National Humanitarian Award from the National Recreation and Park Association. The Franklinville Eagles Playground, built in 1999, was voted one of the three most beautiful streets in Philadelphia by the City's Philadelphia More Beautiful Committee. The Camden Children's Garden was awarded Camden County's Economic Development Award for the Eagles Butterfly House and Education Center, which we built together in 2001.

JEFFREY LURIE

CHAIRMAN/ CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Jeffrey Lurie has shaped the Eagles into one of the most competitive organizations in professional sports on and off the field. During his tenure, Lurie has fueled energy, optimism, and pride throughout the entire organization, and has surrounded this team with state-of-the-art working facilities along with a family atmosphere. The results have been dramatic.

Philadelphia has been in the playoffs five times since 1995, Lurie's first full season owning the Eagles. Only Miami (6), Green Bay (6), and San Francisco (6) have landed in the postseason more during that span. In the last three seasons, the Eagles have won an NFL-best 34 regular season games. Under Lurie, the Eagles have appeared in more playoff games (10) and won more (5) than any other ownership group in team history.

In addition, the Eagles are opening Lincoln Financial Field, the cutting edge NFL stadium featuring unparalleled fan amenities, are housed in the state-of-the-art NovaCare Complex, their day-to-day workplace since 2000, and have founded and nurtured one of professional sports most dynamic charitable foundations, Eagles Youth Partnership.

Armed with team president Joe Banner, one of the league's sharpest minds and top salary cap experts, two-time NFL coach of the year Andy Reid, who was boldly hired in 1999 after a two-year stint as Green Bay's quarterback coach, and a franchise quarterback in Donovan McNabb, the Eagles are considered by many observers as a top contender for the Super Bowl.

"I have said so many times, winning the Super Bowl is the ultimate goal of this organization," said Lurie, who serves on the NFL's Finance Committee, Diversity in the Workplace Committee, Super Bowl Policy Committee, and is on the Board of Directors of NFL Charities. "Stadiums and training facilities, however, are a vital element in the success and stability of sports franchises. As an organization, you want to assemble the best coaching staff and best players, but you also have to provide them with the best facilities and environment in which to achieve that success."

In a ranking of all 118 pro sports teams by ESPN The Magazine, the Eagles ranked 7th in 2002 based on factors such as affordability, ownership, fan relations, "Bang for the Buck," and coaching.

"I'm very pleased with the direction of the organization from top to bottom," said Lurie. "It takes a real commitment to doing what we believe in, and we're all together in our focus to be the best sports franchise possible on and off the field"

On May 6, 1994, NFL owners approved the sale of the Eagles from Norman Braman to Lurie, who fulfilled a lifelong dream of owning an NFL franchise.

Since becoming owner of the Eagles, Lurie, who was named NFL Owner of the Year by The Sporting News in 1995 and by Pro Football Insider in 2000, has gone about the business of shaping the football team and the franchise on and away from the playing venue.

Describing his philosophy of ownership as a "partnership between the city, the fans and the team," one of Lurie's primary objectives early in his time in Philadelphia was the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the team's non-profit, charitable wing. Now in its eighth year, EYP has developed into one of the most innovative and dynamic non-profit organizations in Philadelphia and in the entire NFL.

In 1996, Lurie was the recipient of the Torch of Liberty Award conferred by the Anti-Defamation League of Philadelphia and a year later was honored by Philadelphia's Operation Understanding, an acclaimed group that fosters interracial harmony among future leaders of the African-American and Jewish communities.

In addition, Lurie is a director of both the Autism Research Foundation and the National Alliance for Autism Research.

"It is one of the most under-funded conditions in the country, and we need to raise awareness," said Lurie. "Those who have autism are wonderful people, usually highly intelligent, sweet and caring. They are often unable to effectively communicate with others. A great deal more research needs to be done and we all can start by being aware of what autism really is."

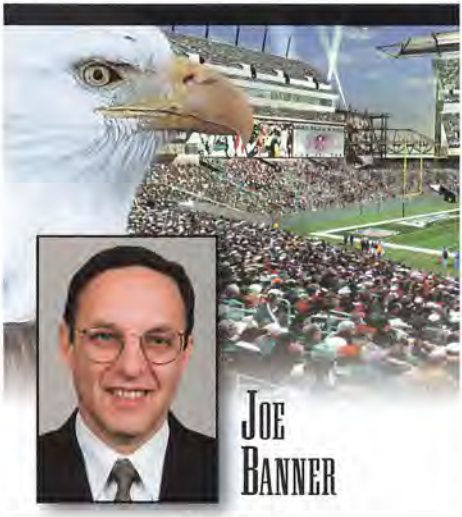

Prior to entering business, Lurie served as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University.

He earned a B.A. from Clark University, a master's degree in psychology from Boston University and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. Lurie also served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985.

Born on Sept. 8, 1951 in Boston, MA, Lurie now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their 2 children.

In 1995, Lurie, pictured with Andy Reid and Donovan McNabb, and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership.

JOE BANNER

PRESIDENT

Overseeing the day-to-day operations of the franchise since May 6, 1994, Joe Banner has been long known as one of the NFL's top executives. Banner was named to his current post of team president on August 1, 2001.

"Joe plays a crucial role in most everything we accomplish. His determination, intelligence and desire for success are invaluable assets to the Philadelphia Eagles," said Jeffrey Lurie, Chairman/Chief Executive Officer of the Eagles. "He's a great team player, unselfish and wants what's best for the franchise, our fans and our players."

Banner has been consistent in his support of Lurie's four-pronged plan to make the Eagles the best organization on and off the field in the NFL. His tireless efforts to forge a partnership with the City of Philadelphia to build a crown jewel of a football-based stadium in Philadelphia will finally come to fruition when Lincoln Financial Field opens in 2003.

Banner was also key in the Eagles successful efforts to secure a partnership with NovaCare, which resulted in the building of the spectacular NovaCare Complex, the 108,000-square foot training facility. The NovaCare Complex, which houses the entire organization on a day-to-day basis, is the largest such facility in sports, and has been hailed as the most state-of-the-art building of its kind.

"As I've told Jeff Lurie many times," said Philadelphia Mayor John Street, "deals of this nature wouldn't get done without having someone who demonstrates the tenacity and diligence of Joe Banner."

Banner, 50, has been involved in the creation and execution of every department in the organization. Whether it was the restructuring of the football operation and bold hiring of Andy Reid, the creation of the league's most respected marketing operation, or the formation of the nationally-acclaimed Eagles Youth Partnership, he was at the center of what has led the Eagles to being thought of as one of the most dynamic and progressive organizations in all of sports.

Banner's salary-cap expertise has been highlighted in recent years by a USA Today poll of team general managers and NFL executives which listed him as one of the league's most creative and innovative salary cap management experts and contract negotiators. New York Times hailed him as "the Joe Montana of the salary cap. He's simply the best." ESPN.com's Len Pasquarelli says he "should be the poster child for crafty and responsible salary cap management." Esteemed Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin stated, "The Eagles [under Banner] have developed a strategy for the salary cap. And now it's the blueprint for financial success in the NFL: Draft well, play them young, extend them early."

Banner's salary cap management skills do not go unnoticed within the Eagles organization, as well. "With all the recent success of the team, most of the credit usually goes to the players and coaches," said Reid. "But without the support and hard work of the front office, we would not have that success. Joe Banner is a big part of that support. As I've said many times before, Joe is the best as far as managing that salary cap."

The results on the field are very tangible. Since 1995, Lurie and Banner's first full year with the Eagles, only three teams have appeared more times in the postseason than Philadelphia (five out of seven seasons). In that time span, only two teams (San Francisco and Pittsburgh) have made it to the second round of the playoffs or beyond more than the Eagles (4). In addition, the Eagles have won an NFL-best 34 regular season games since 2000.

While football is a huge focus in his life, Banner also has time for being a devoted husband to his wife, Helaine, and a loving father to daughter Jill (14) and sons Jason (8) and Jonathan (6). The Banner family resides in the suburban Philadelphia area.

Banner also devotes a lot of time and energy to community service and is active in nonprofit groups. He is the co-chair of the Philadelphia City Year Board and is responsible for bringing that program to Philadelphia. Most recently, Banner was elected to City Year's national Board of Trustees and is also the chair of its National Leadership Committee.

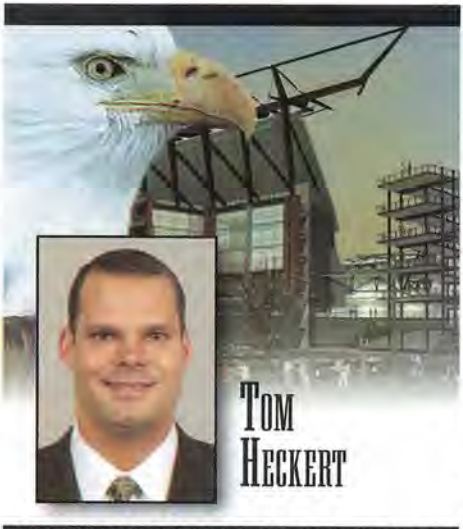

In 2001, Banner also received a prestigious leadership award from the renowned PARTNERS Program, a charitable organization that aims to enhance social and race relations in the Philadelphia region.

Of City Year, Banner says: "City Year is extremely important to me because I believe we live in a community and we each have an obligation to try to make our communities better places. For me, City Year epitomizes the values and beliefs by which I have tried to live my life."

Said Lurie of Banner's community involvement: "Joe is invaluable not only to the Philadelphia Eagles organization but to the Philadelphia community as a whole. On the professional side, Joe has been the point person on the most crucial issues facing our organization. Joe's impact on the community, however, is of equal importance."

In 1995, President Bill Clinton appointed Banner to a panel of 10 judges nationwide, which selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious President's Service Award. He is also on the board of the Maxwell Football Club and the Philadelphia Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Banner (born 2/13/53) is a graduate of Denison University and was a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU 1210 AM.

TOM HECKERT

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Tom Heckert enters his third season in Philadelphia and his first as the club's vice president of player personnel. In this role, he works closely with head coach/executive vice president of football operations Andy Reid in all player personnel matters while managing the player personnel department, which includes both college and pro scouting.

"Tom has proven to be a tremendous worker over the last two years," said Reid after promoting Heckert on May 21, 2003. "He has done an excellent job in all aspects of the football operations department. He was well deserving of this promotion."

Heckert, 36 (born 7/17/67), joined the Eagles as the club's director of player personnel on May 21, 2001, after a 10-year stint as a member of the Miami Dolphins player personnel department, including the 2000 season as the club's director of pro personnel. In 1999, he served as the Dolphins assistant director of pro personnel/college scout. Heckert served as both a pro scout and as a college scout during his first nine seasons in South Florida.

Over his 12-year career in the NFL, Heckert's teams have never had a losing season, won their division five times and made the playoffs nine times, including the last two in Philadelphia.

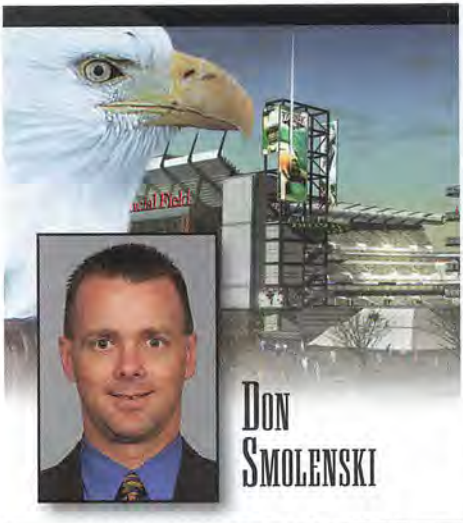

During Heckert's tenure in Miami, he worked under two of the most successful head coaches in NFL history - Don Shula and Jimmy Johnson - who both personally recommended Heckert for his current post with the Eagles.

Said Johnson when Heckert was hired, "Tom's smart, aggressive, and a good talent evaluator. He's a hard worker and has a strong opinion. As I told Coach Reid, if I were to come back as a head coach, Tom would be one of the first guys I'd try to hire."

A native of Adrian, Michigan, Heckert joined the Dolphins after spending two years as an assistant coach at Hillsdale College in Michigan. He also was a defensive back at Hillsdale.

Heckert's father, Tom, began his coaching career in 1961 and now has 20 years of experience in the NFL player personnel ranks, including the last 13 seasons with Miami. Recalled the younger Heckert, "I was around the football field and football offices probably more than I was home. I was always there. After school, I'd watch his practices. We'd go to every game. When I was really young, he'd be upstairs in his office working and I'd just watch tape, because it was there."

Heckert and his wife, Kathy, have a son, Griffin (8), and a daughter, Madison (6), and reside in Glen Mills, PA.

DON SMOLENSKI

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT/ CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

In 1998, the Eagles bolstered their front office with the hiring of Don Smolenski as the club's vice president/chief financial officer. Less than two years later, Smolenski was elevated to senior vice president.

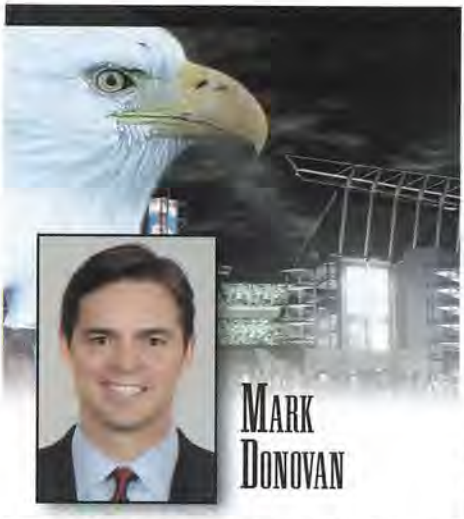

Known for his effective, easy-going style, Smolenski oversees all aspects of the organization's financial operations, including stadium financing, debt management, budgeting, financial reporting, human resources, information services, insurance, and team travel. In 2002, he expanded his responsibilities to include the management of the team's stadium and facility operations.

"With his broad range of thinking, Don has helped to develop ways of melding the business facets of the Eagles organization with the football," said Eagles president Joe Banner.

Smolenski came to the Eagles from the International Hockey League where he was the chief financial officer. During his tenure, he oversaw all league financial issues and played an integral role in the expansion of the league. Through the development of expansion models and the analysis of league performance models, Smolenski saw the league expand from 12 to 19 teams. He also spearheaded the development of a salary cap and several other cost management programs as well as interfaced with each of the team finance directors.

Prior to his term with the IHL, Smolenski worked as a public accountant with Arthur Andersen.

An avid runner, Smolenski has completed the Detroit, Pittsburgh and Boston Marathons. After graduating with a BA in biology from Amherst College, he continued on to earn his masters in accounting from the University of Hartford. Don and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Jake (5) and Shane (3).

MARK DONOVAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

On May 7, 2003, the Eagles hired Mark Donovan as the senior vice president of business operations. In this capacity, Donovan will oversee all of the team's marketing efforts as well as the opening of Lincoln Financial Field.

Donovan, 37, had served as the National Football League's senior director of marketing and sales since September of 1999. In that role, Donovan was responsible for the management of all the NFL partners including Motorola, Gatorade, Pepsico, Coors, Visa, MBNA, FedEx, RCA, Southwest Airlines, General Motors and Staples.

"We're very pleased to be able to add Mark to our organization," said team president Joe Banner. "His background is one of success and his experience is extremely diverse. We take a great deal of pride in hiring the best people in their respective fields and in the case of Mark we have done just that. His track record in terms of forming and managing corporate partnerships and sales strategies is second to none.

"Mark will oversee all our marketing efforts and the opening of our new home, Lincoln Financial Field. It is our intent that Lincoln Financial Field become known as the best - and busiest - outdoor stadium in the country."

With the NFL, his efforts focused on developing new business, managing and renewing existing partnerships, and working with the various internal divisions and NFL teams to support league wide marketing objectives. In that role Donovan developed myriad promotional activation programs and managed relationships with senior level executives.

Most recently, he was a significant contributor to the development of a new sponsorship and sales business model for the NFL. He utilized the structure of this new model to successfully renew six major partnerships and secured two new multi-million dollar partnerships in the past year. Donovan also played a key role in developing a marketing partnership with the NFLPA/Players Inc and served on the NFL's Multi-cultural Committee.

"I've had a tremendous opportunity to work with some of the best people in sports at the NFL office and all around the league," said Donovan. "I now look forward to remaining within the NFL family and having an immediate and lasting impact on the Eagles. I realize this is a great time in Eagles history with the team doing well on the field and with a state-of-the art venue like Lincoln Financial Field about to open. With that in mind I look at this as a great opportunity."

A quarterback at Brown, he also served as director of sales and marketing with the National Hockey League from 1997-99. Prior to that, he worked with National Media Group (1996-97), AMC Events/Atlanta Marketing Center (1994-96), Regency Productions by Hyatt (1992-94), and Synergetics (1988-1992).

Mark and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Luke.

SARAH MARTINEZ-HELFMAN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR EAGLES YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

When Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, established Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP) as the team's non-profit charitable wing in 1995, they named Sarah Martinez-Helfman as its executive director. Now in her eighth year, Martinez-Helfman, frequently described as a "dynamo," is recognized as a leader in the field of sports philanthropy.

"From the start, we were all convinced she had the ability to not just manage grants, but create programs, work with our players, and get them involved," said Joe Banner, team president. "I don't think there's anyone here who doesn't feel she has exceeded the expectations we had. Sarah is more passionate about what she does than anyone can be about what they do."

Under her direction, the award-winning EYP has given away more than 135,000 books through the Eagles Book Mobile program and has examined the eyes of more than 7,750 children aboard the Eagles Eye Mobile.

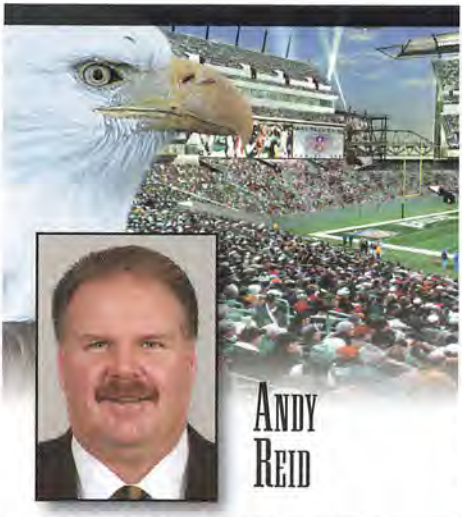

"Eagles Youth Partnership helps define the cutting edge in the emerging field of national sports philanthropy," said Greg Johnson, Director of the Sports Philanthropy Project at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. "Nowhere have I witnessed more compelling examples of the strategic use of a professional sports team's assets than in the direct programming offered by EYP."

Martinez-Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. She has helped develop two National Service AmeriCorps Programs, has served as Chief Clinician of a residential treatment center for adolescent males in the juvenile justice system and as the lead advocate of a Rape Crisis Center. She currently serves of the Board of the Literacy Action Project.

On the corporate end, Martinez-Helfman spent three years in Europe, advising corporations, groups, and individuals on their charitable giving in England, Ireland, and Russia.

A graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Martinez-Helfman earned her B.A. in English literature and her M.S. degree in counseling psychology. She also holds certificates as a trainer of diversity, conflict resolution and perceptual processing. Having lived in four countries, she now is happily settled with her family in Haverford, PA. Her simple mission in life is to leave the world better than she found it.

ANDY REID

HEAD COACH/EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

One of the most successful head coaches in recent NFL history, Andy Reid has really put his stamp on this city's beloved football team. After taking over a 3-13 club on January 11, 1999, Reid has been simply masterful in turning the Eagles into one of the NFL's elite teams. During his tenure, Reid has earned coach of the year honors twice, compiled the highest winning percentage (.606) in team history, captured back-to-back division titles for the first time in franchise history, and registered the most playoff wins (4) in club history.

In 2002, the Eagles tied a franchise record for most wins in a season (12) as they secured their second straight NFC East division title and berth in the NFC Championship game. Reid was the overwhelming choice as the NFL's coach of the year as they thrived without the services of Pro Bowl quarterback Donovan McNabb and back-up Koy Detmer for the final five games of the regular season. The Eagles turned to little-used, third-stringer A.J. Feeley, who directed the Eagles to a 4-1 record as they captured home field advantage in the NFC playoffs.

After a 5-11 mark in his first season, Reid led the 2000 Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5 and earning a trip to the NFC Divisional Playoffs. For his efforts, Reid was named the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Football Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest.

His vision, his dedication, his passion, and his organizational skills are impeccable. On May 8, 2001, Reid was promoted to head coach/executive VP of football operations.

Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie said, "I've always said, he's like a CEO on the field. He understands the big picture and the short-term picture. You have to always balance the two. Disciplined. Prepared. Smart. It's an awfully good combination."

Reid came to the Eagles after spending seven seasons as an assistant coach with the Green Bay Packers under Mike Holmgren. With Green Bay, Reid helped the Pack reach the playoffs six straight times from 1993-98. During that span, Green Bay defeated New England in Super Bowl XXXI and reached the NFL's title game again the following year.

In his 11-year NFL coaching career, Reid's teams have made the playoff 9 times and have posted a 13-8 record in the playoffs. He has coached in the Super Bowl twice, in the NFC Championship game five times, and in the Pro Bowl three times.

"Everyone who works with him and plays for him knows exactly where he is coming from," said team president Joe Banner. "We wanted someone with a strong set of convictions and who wasn't going to be affected by ups and downs and public pressure."

The Plan:

"The important thing is to lay a plan, and then follow it step by step no matter how small or large each one by itself may seem." This quote by Charles A. Lindbergh is scribed behind Reid's desk and reflects his coaching philosophy.

From the first day Reid set foot in the Eagles office, he orchestrated a plan on what it was going to take to make this a championship-level team. That plan has been evident throughout the last four years as the atmosphere surrounding this team has been a reflection of the style of its head coach.

Said team president Joe Banner, "Andy has changed the personality of the whole organization. There's a sense of solidness, a sense that we're going to succeed, that we're going to do what we need to do to get where we want. He's played a huge role, way beyond just coaching the players."

Wrote ESPN The Magazine's Dave Fleming, "Besides his wizardry with the West Coast offense and a reputation for developing passers, Reid has that magical fatherly quality that makes grown men with two commas on their paychecks want to run through brick walls for him."

Also evident during his tenure has been Reid's penchant for thorough preparation, and the demeanor of a hands-on CEO-type.

REID ALL ABOUT IT

- Has the highest winning percentage of any Eagles head coach in club history. Here's a breakdown of his record: Career Regular Season Record: 39-25 (.609) ... vs. NFC: 31-17 (.646) ...vs. NFC East: 18-12 (.600) ... Playoffs: 4-3 (.571) ... Overall: 43-28 (.606)
- Since 2000, no other NFL head coach can top his 34 regular season wins.
- Has more playoff wins (4) than any coach in club history. Greasy Neale and Dick Vermeil have 3 each.
- Earned NFL coach of the year honors in 2002 and 2000 and was named favorite coach in pro sports in 2001 issue of ESPN The Magazine.
- Was named a member of the NFL's Competition Committee Coaches Subcommittee in 2000.
- In his 11-year NFL coaching career, his teams have made the playoffs 9 times (13-8 record). He has coached in the Super Bowl twice and in the NFC Championship game five times.
- Among current NFL coaches in their first four full NFL seasons, Reid's 39-25 (.609) mark is ranked 4th behind Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (43-21, .672 from 1992-95), San Diego's Marty Schottenheimer (40-23, .635 with Cleveland from 1985-88), and Denver's Mike Shanahan (40-24, .625 with LA Raiders in 1988 and with Denver from 1995-97).
- Owns a 9-0 record in regular season prime time games, a 28-13 mark (including playoffs) in games in November and later, and a 31-7 mark with the lead at the half.

Said Reid's agent Bob LaMonte of his client, "Andy is a CEO type of coach. He's like [Seattle's] Mike Holmgren or [Denver's] Mike Shanahan, a guy who goes beyond just the Xs and Os. He's an organizer and a manager and he's really, really intelligent."

A meticulously organized man, Reid began keeping a notebook as a Packers assistant - a three-ring binder - that would help prepare him to one day become a successful head coach.

Reid saved the old ideas and devised new plans, plans that he would implement when he became a head coach. But this was not about game plans and Xs and Os. It was about how to build a winning organization. It included everything - practice schedules; travel schedules; off-season schedules for players by position; scouting reports; notes from speeches Holmgren gave his players; biographical information on fellow members of the coaching fraternity (so that he might one day assemble a staff of his own); scouting tips; information on player programs to help players better prepare themselves for their post-football careers; and much, much more.

Offensive Lineman Mentality:

Reid attributes his modest, selfless nature to his days as an offensive lineman in high school and college saying, "I'm glad to be of offensive lineman roots. That way you don't lose perspective amidst the glamour, the monetary things. You have that hard-work thing ingrained in your brain. You understand you haven't gotten to where you are without hard work."

Said Lurie, "He won't talk about himself. But he has a tremendous work ethic and a sense of honesty and genuineness. And he's a great leader. Everyone, from the players to the secretaries to the assistants within the organization, respects his human qualities."

That work ethic was developed growing up in Los Angeles near Dodger Stadium. Reid's mother, Elizabeth, was a radiologist while his father, Walter, was an artist working primarily on backdrops for theatrical sets. Father and son would leave their house at 4:30 a.m. Walter, who worked across the street from a junior high, would drop Andy off at the school and the younger Reid would work on various projects in the wood shop.

LaMonte, who knows Reid perhaps as well as anyone, knows that the Eagles coach is well rounded despite being a workaholic. "You can sit and talk to Andy about almost anything," said LaMonte. "He's a well-rounded guy."

Climbing the Coaching Ladder:

Reid enjoyed a two-year stint as the Packers quarterbacks coach, working with Brett Favre from 1997-98. Reid took over that role after Marty Mornhinweg departed Green Bay to become the San Francisco's offensive coordinator under head coach Steve Mariucci, the original QB coach on Holmgren's staff. In December of '96, Holmgren placed the "supervisory" tag on the then-tight ends coach. That tag would prevent NFL clubs from hiring Reid as anything other than a head coach unless given permission to do so by Holmgren.

In 1997, Green Bay won its second straight NFC crown and Favre garnered league MVP honors for the third consecutive season. Prior to tutoring Green Bay's quarterbacks, Reid achieved notable success overseeing the Packers tight ends, while at the same time assisting offensive line coach Tom Lovat. Under Reid's watch, the Packers tight ends Mark Chmura and Keith Jackson earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

It was in Reid's first years with Green Bay that Holmgren urged the young assistant to learn the entire offensive system inside and out, not just the roles of the offensive line and tight ends. "It was his curiosity, the questions he would ask, his note taking," said Holmgren. "He was just a sponge. He wanted to know everything that he could. He related well with the coaching staff, and the other players loved him."

A tackle and guard at Brigham Young from 1979-81, Reid entered the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant on Lavell Edwards' 1982 Brigham Young staff. It was at BYU, in fact, that Reid met and worked alongside Holmgren, who served as the Cougars QB coach from 1982-85.

Reid next moved to San Francisco State in 1983 and helped the Gators lead the nation in passing and total offense for three consecutive years (1983-85) while serving as that school's offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and strength coach. He went on to develop quality offensive lines at Northern Arizona, Texas-El Paso, and Missouri.

Personal:

Born Andrew Walter Reid in Los Angeles on March 19, 1958, Reid, now 45, has a brother 10 years his senior, Reginald. Raised not far from Dodger Stadium, Reid was a devoted fan of both the Dodgers and the NFL's Rams (Merlin Olsen and Deacon Jones in particular). He went on to attend John Marshall High in LA, Glendale (CA) Junior College, and later matriculated at Brigham Young University where he earned both a bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's degree in professional leadership in physical education and athletics.

As a player at BYU, Reid was also a columnist for the Provo (UT) Daily Herald. "I had my own little column," said Reid, who once longed to be a writer for Sports Illustrated. "I loved Jim Murray (a long-time columnist with the LA Times). I wrote one of these cutesy deals, trying to write like Jim. (laughing) The editors took it easy on me. I enjoyed writing. I still do. I keep a journal to this day. It's a great release."

It was at a physical education class at BYU that Reid met the woman who would become his wife, Tammy. "What attracted me to him more than anything was his character. He's just a really good guy, very honorable and very conscientious." Reid converted to the Mormon faith in 1979 which Tammy and her family had practiced.

They have been married 21 years and have five children, each of whom was born in a different state as Reid literally moved up the coaching ladder - sons Garrett, 20 (4/13/83); Britt, 18, (4/28/85); and Spencer, 11 (6/16/92); and daughters Crosby, 15 (3/17/88); and Drew Ann, 13 (3/9/90). He is a skilled craftsman who can make cabinets and clocks. He also enjoys tinkering with old cars and, in fact, owns a 1928 "Model A" Ford.

REID'S COACHING INFLUENCES

Hiro Tanaka, John Marshall HS, Los Angeles: "He took a bunch of kids of different races and combined them into making a team. We never had a problem."

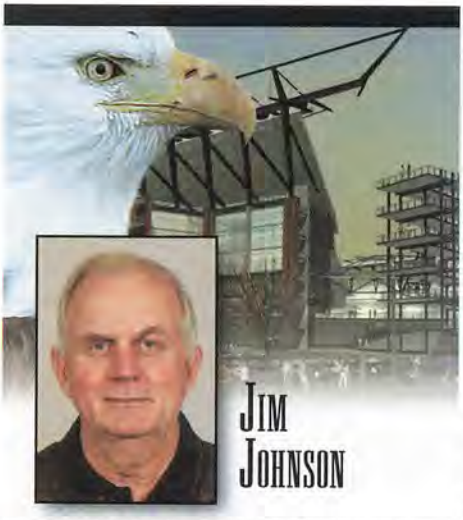

Jim Sartoris, Glendale Junior College: "I was in that first group, and he came in, took a terrible program and built it back up into a championship team. I was right there for that."

LaVell Edwards, BYU: "I saw a man who knew how to treat people. He didn't care who you were, what you were about. At the same time, now, he could crack the whip. He never turned away an autograph seeker. And he didn't lose his cool during tough times."

Vic Rowan, San Francisco State: "Whenever he saw an interesting play on TV, he'd call up that coach and ask him to go through it with him in detail. He collected playbooks from all over the place."

Bob Stull, UTEP/Missouri: "He showed me how an ex-offensive lineman and offensive line coach could become a offensive coordinator and a great head coach."

Mike Holmgren, Green Bay: "I had a hard time believing anyone did it better than him when I was working for him."

JIM JOHNSON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

On January 22, 1999, Eagles head coach Andy Reid targeted and hired Jim Johnson as the Eagles new defensive coordinator. A veteran of 17 seasons as a NFL assistant, Johnson has proven to be the right man in leading the team's defense to become one of the premier units in the NFL.

"As I've said many times over the past few years, I'm very partial to Jim and I believe he's the best in the business," said Reid upon signing his prized defensive coordinator to a lucrative four-year contract extension following the 2002 season.

The Eagles defense knows only one way to play and that is to attack. Over the last three years, Johnson's units ranked first in the league in fewest points allowed (694), 3rd down defense (31.4 %), and red zone defense (44 TDs in 124 attempts), 2nd in sacks (151), 5th in opponent's QB rating (71.3), and 7th in take-aways (102). In 2001, Johnson's unit became the fourth team in NFL history to go all 16 games without allowing more than 21 points. Their streak of allowing 21 or fewer in 34 straight games was second longest in NFL history (Minnesota, 1968-71). In 1999, Johnson's unit forced a NFL-best 46 turnovers, including a team-record 5 interceptions returned for TDs.

In 1998, he helped the Seahawks lead the AFC and rank second in the NFL with 53 sacks. Their defense also logged 10 TDs in '98 (including eight INTs returned for scores, 2nd most in NFL history). Johnson arrived in Seattle after a four-year tenure in Indianapolis. After serving as that club's linebackers coach for two seasons, Johnson was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1996.

Prior to joining the Colts, Johnson spent eight seasons as an assistant with the Arizona Cardinals (1986-93). After overseeing the Cards defensive line for four seasons, Johnson excelled as their secondary coach. In that role, Johnson helped young CB Aeneas Williams begin his rise to stardom. In 1991, Williams became the first rookie cornerback to lead the league in interceptions (6) since 1981.

From 1977-83, Johnson served as defensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Notre Dame, a stint that included a national championship in 1977.

An all-conference quarterback himself at Missouri (where he played in the same backfield with long-time NFL executive Bill Tobin), Johnson went on to spend two seasons with Buffalo as a tight end (1963-64).

SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

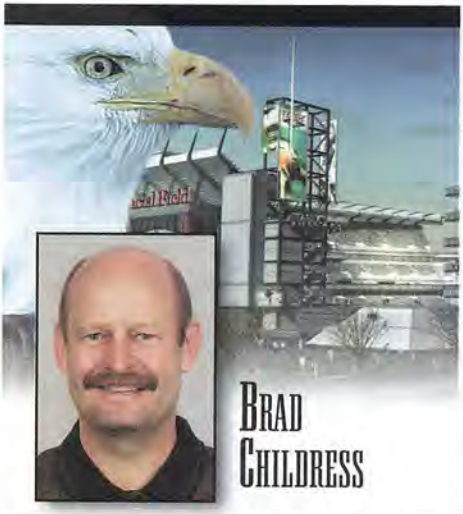

Since the start of the 2000 season, Johnson's unit is highly ranked in several pertinent defensive categories:

Statistic		NFL rank
Fewest points allowed	694 (14.5 per game)	1st
3rd down efficiency	31.4 % (209/666)	1st
Red zone TD pct.	35.5 % (44/124)	1st
Sacks	151	2nd
Opponent QB rating	71.3	5th
Take-Aways	102 (48 INT, 54 fum.)	7th

A native of Maywood, Ill., the 62-year old Johnson (born 5/26/41) has a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in physical education from Missouri. He and his wife, Vicky, reside in suburban Philadelphia. They have two children, Scott and Michelle, and three grandchildren, Katie, Justin, and Brandon.

BRAD CHILDRESS

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

One of the league's brightest minds on the offensive side of the ball, Brad Childress enters his 5th season as an Eagles assistant coach and his second as the team's offensive coordinator. The 47-year old Childress was named to his current post on April 10, 2002, and less than one year later was rewarded with a substantial three-year contract extension on January 31, 2003.

"I do believe that Brad is one of the top assistant coaches in the National Football League," said head coach Andy Reid. "He's done a great job and he's going to get rewarded for it sooner or later."

In 2002, the Eagles set a team record with 415 points scored despite starting three different quarterbacks. After starter Donovan McNabb and 2nd stringer Koy Detmer went down with injuries in consecutive weeks, the Eagles turned to little-used 2nd-year signal caller A.J. Feeley, who directed the Eagles to a 4-1 record in their final five games

The club's quarterback coach from 1999-2001 (he was hired one day after Reid was named head coach on January 11, 1999), Childress is credited with the development of McNabb. Under Childress' tutelage, McNabb learned the intricacies of the West Coast offense as a rookie and then quickly became a three-time Pro Bowl selection and an MVP candidate.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Childress orchestrated one of the nation's most productive offenses at the University of Wisconsin, where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1992-98.

During his 8-year tenure at Wisconsin, the team played in five bowl games, including a 38-31 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA following the 1998 season. In '93, the Badgers set a school record and ranked fourth in Big Ten Conference history with 455.2 yards per game. The school's all-time single-season leaders in passing (Darrell Bevell), receiving (Lee DeRamus), rushing (Ron Dayne), and scoring (Dayne) all flourished under Childress.

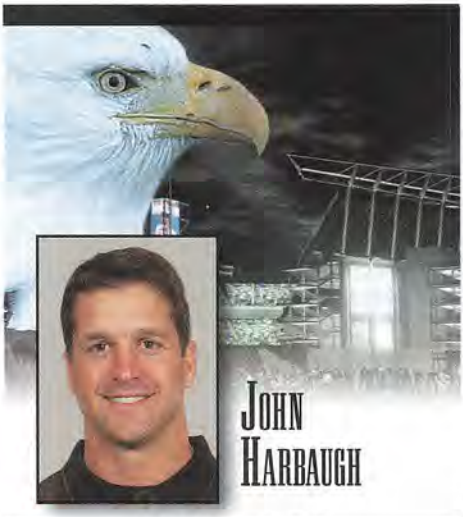

A graduate of Eastern Illinois, Childress began his coaching career with a seven-year stint at Illinois. It was there, under Childress' instruction, that Fighting Illini WR David Williams set a Big Ten record for receptions (101 in 1984).

Then, after spending the 1985 season as the quarterbacks coach on Rod Dowhower's Colts staff, he returned to the collegiate ranks for the next 13 seasons with stops at Northern Arizona (1986-89), and Utah before moving to Wisconsin. It was during the first of his three seasons as offensive coordinator at Northern Arizona that Childress first worked with Reid. He also worked with Raiders head coach Bill Callahan and Eagles assistant Marty Mornhinweg at NAU.

Childress and his wife, Dru-Ann, have four children: sons Andrew, Christopher, and Kyle, and daughter Cara. Born 6/27/56 in Aurora, Ill., Childress attended Marmion Military High School.

JOHN HARBAUGH

One of the top men in his profession, 40-year old John Harbaugh enters his sixth season in Philadelphia leading the Eagles special teams units. In 2001, Harbaugh was chosen as the league's special teams coach of the year in a vote of his peers.

In each of the last three years, Harbaugh's units are one of two in the NFL (New England) to rank in the top ten in the articulate special teams ranking system by esteemed Dallas Morning News columnist Rick Gosselin. After improving steadily in 1998 and 1999, Harbaugh's units vaulted to 8th in 2000, 1st in 2001 and 6th in 2002. Under Harbaugh's guidance, David Akers progressed from a street free agent pick-up in 1999 to a two-time Pro Bowl selection and one of the league's most reliable kickers.

In 2002, Harbaugh's units bounced back from a sluggish start early in the season to finish the season ranked in the top ten in nine of the league's 16 major categories. Only four other teams could make that claim: Detroit (12), New Orleans (12), NY Jets (10), and New England (9). The Eagles were also the only team to be ranked in the top five in average drive start after kickoffs (3rd with 31.1) and opponents drive start average (5th with 26.6)

Originally hired on February 18, 1998, Harbaugh was one of just four assistant coaches to be retained by Andy Reid when he was hired to replace Ray Rhodes after the 1998 season.

Harbaugh began his coaching career in 1984 at Western Michigan. Three years later, he joined the University of Pittsburgh staff, serving under his uncle Mike Gottfried (now a college football analyst for ESPN).

After a one-year stint at Morehead State, Harbaugh spent eight seasons (1989-96) as assistant coach at the University of Cincinnati. Harbaugh then joined Cam Cameron's Indiana staff for the 1997 campaign as defensive backs and special teams coach.

The versatile Harbaugh has coached on both sides of the ball throughout his collegiate coaching career and was the assistant head coach at Cincinnati.

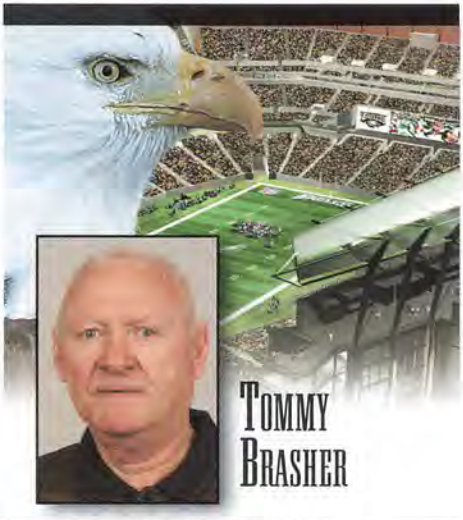

The product of a football family, Harbaugh has been in and around the game his entire life. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran and won the 2002 Division I-AA National Championship as head coach of Western Kentucky. In 2003, Jack was hired as Associate AD at Marquette where he oversees community affairs and public relations. His younger brother, Jim, is the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders. Other relatives in the sports spotlight include his cousin, Mark Gottfried, the head basketball coach at Alabama, and his brother-in-law, Tom Crean, Marquette's head basketball coach.

Harbaugh (born 9/23/62) attended Ann Arbor (MI) Pioneer HS before earning a degree in political science from Miami (OH) where he also played defensive back. He went on to earn his master's degree in physical education from Western Michigan.

John and his wife, Ingrid, reside in suburban Philadelphia, with their daughter, Alison (2).

TOMMY BRASHER

DEFENSIVE LINE

One of the most successful defensive line coaches in league history, Tommy Brasher (pronounced BRAY-zure) enters his 5th season during his second tour of duty in Philadelphia.

"He's the best line coach in the league in my mind," said head coach Andy Reid. "Not only does he produce Pro Bowl players, he's a great teacher and the epitome of toughness."

Brasher, 62, is indeed a model of toughness and courage. Throughout most of the 2001 season, Brasher battled a bout with cancer. After being diagnosed with a cancerous tumor in his parotid gland (one of the salivary glands) on October 16th, Brasher underwent a six-hour surgery to have it removed. Three weeks later, he underwent another six-hour procedure to have 67 lymph nodes removed from his neck and shoulder. Remarkably, Brasher missed just five total days of work and not one snap of football on game day. His battle with cancer earned him the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001. Although this award is given annually to one player from each NFL team, Brasher became just the third special non-player recipient of this prestigious honor.

Under Brasher's guidance, the defensive line has become a strong point of this team as the Eagles led the NFL in sacks in 2002. Corey Simon has developed into a top-flight defender (20 sacks in first 53 games), and DT Darwin Walker enjoyed great success (7.5 sacks) in his first year as a starter in 2002. In addition, DE Hugh Douglas became a three-time Pro Bowl selection.

Brasher served in the same capacity with the Eagles in 1985 as a member of then-head coach Marion Campbell's staff. In his one season with the Eagles, two of his defensive ends notched 13 sacks apiece - Greg Brown and a rookie named Reggie White.

Brasher enjoyed a successful seven-year stint as the Seahawks defensive line coach. During his tenure in Seattle, Brasher saw two of his lineman - DT Cortez Kennedy and DE Michael Sinclair - earn multiple Pro Bowl appearances. Kennedy was also named defensive player of the year in 1992. He also held identical posts at New England (1982-84), Atlanta (1986-89), and Tampa Bay (1990).

An all-conference selection himself as a linebacker at Arkansas from 1962-63, Brasher was a college teammate of Cowboys owner Jerry Jones and former Dolphins and Cowboys head coach Jimmy Johnson.

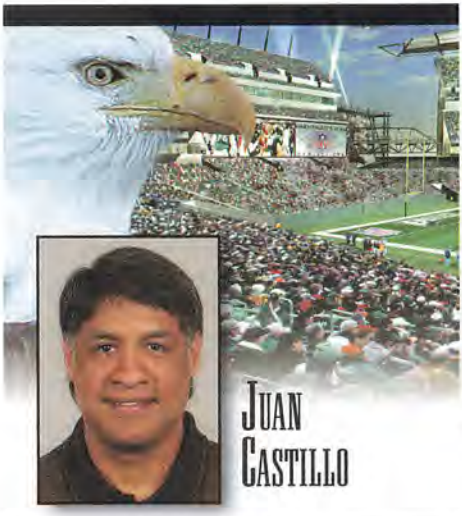

After beginning his coaching career with a six-year stint on the high school level, Brasher's alma mater provided him with his first collegiate coaching assignment when he became the Razorbacks defensive assistant in 1970. He sandwiched stops at Virginia Tech (1971), NE Louisiana (1974, 1976), and Southern Methodist (1977-81) around a one-year stint as the defensive coordinator of the World Football League's Shreveport Steamer in 1975.

Born on 12/30/40, Brasher attended El Dorado High in his hometown and birthplace of El Dorado, AR. He and his wife, LaNelle, have two daughters, Melodie and Christy, and two grandsons, Nicholas and Brennen.

JUAN CASTILLO

OFFENSIVE LINE

Juan Castillo is in his ninth season with the Eagles and his six as the club's offensive line coach. After years of multiple changes along the line, Castillo's unit has become a force in the last three seasons paving the way for the emergence of Pro Bowl QB Donovan McNabb.

In 2002, Castillo's troops gave up just 36 sacks, the least allowed by the club since 1982 (31). Under his tutelage, three lineman earned their first Pro Bowl selections: LT Tra Thomas (2001 and 2002), RG Jermane Mayberry (2002), and RT Jon Runyan (2002). In fact, Thomas and Mayberry earned starting roles for the NFC squad following the 2002 campaign.

Castillo is one of four coaches in the National Football League of Hispanic descent. In fact, Castillo is fluent in Spanish and has done some work for the National Football League in promoting the game for its Spanish-speaking audience. In the 2002 offseason, Castillo and his wife were special invitees of President Bush for a Cinco de Mayo celebration at the White House.

"A lot of people laughed at me when I said I wanted to coach in the NFL," Castillo said. "You have to have a dream, and then you have to have a plan, and you have to stick to the plan. Back home in Texas, I think there's a lot of people saying, 'if he can make it, we can.' If it means more hope for Hispanics, then it's all worth it. I started just like all those people back in Texas. I was there with them, in the valley. I didn't start as a coach in the NFL. I started in high school. I worked my way up."

Castillo was one of four members of former coach Ray Rhodes' staff to be retained by head coach Andy Reid in 1999. He originally joined the Eagles on March 1, 1995 as an offensive assistant, a post he held until being promoted to tight ends coach in 1997. One year later, Castillo became the club's offensive line coach.

Castillo's work as an offensive line coach at Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University) caught the eye of Rhodes. During his five seasons there, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America linemen, including Mayberry and Earl Dotson, a third round pick of Green Bay in 1993. In that same span, Castillo gained valuable experience as a summer coaching intern for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1994), Seattle Seahawks (1993), and Buffalo Bills (1992).

A former linebacker with Texas A&M-Kingsville and the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

The 43-year old Castillo (born 10/8/59) is a native of Port Isabel, TX. He and his wife, Zaida, reside in suburban Philadelphia with their four sons, Gregory, John, Andres, and Antonio.

UN HOMBRE DE MUCHAS PALABRAS

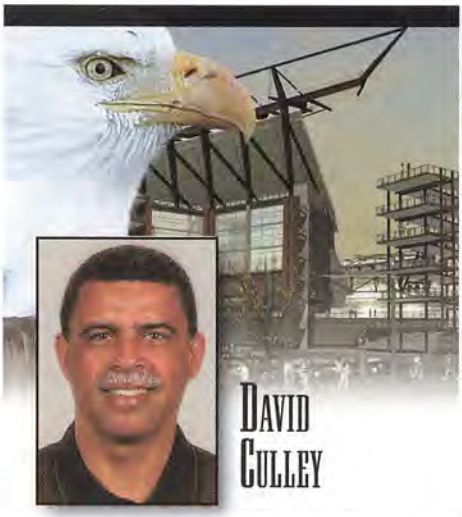

Castillo es uno de cuatro entrenadores de ascendencia hispana en la Liga Nacional de Fútbol Americano (NFL). De hecho, domina el español y ha estado ayudando a la liga en promocionar el deporte entre personas de habla española.

"Muchas personas se rieron de mí cuando dije que quería entrenar en la NFL," dijo Castillo. "Hay que tener un sueño, luego tener un plan y por fin, seguir el plan. Allá en Tejas, yo pienso que muchas personas están diciendo, 'si él puede alcanzar el éxito, nosotros lo podemos hacer.' Si mi trabajo les brinda más esperanza a los hispanos, entonces vale la pena. Comencé como todas las personas allá en Tejas. Estaba allí con ellos, en el valle. Yo no comencé como entrenador profesional. Comencé trabajando en la escuela secundaria. El esfuerzo es lo que me llevó a donde estoy."

DAVID CULLEY

WIDE RECEIVERS

A veteran of 25 years in the coaching profession, David Culley joined the Eagles as the club's wide receivers coach on January 19, 1999.

The 47-year old Culley came to the Eagles after a three-year stint as the Pittsburgh Steelers wide receivers coach. During that three-year span, the Steelers reached the playoffs twice, advancing to the AFC title game in 1997 and to the divisional playoffs the previous season. In all, Culley has been to the playoffs five times in his last seven seasons as an assistant coach, including three appearances in the conference championship game.

A native of Sparta, TN, Culley was recruited by current Dallas Cowboys head coach Bill Parcells as a quarterback at Vanderbilt University. Culley broke into the coaching ranks in 1978 when he oversaw the running backs at Austin Peay University. He next returned to his alma mater to coach the Commodores' receivers from 1979-81. Culley then followed a succession of one-year stops at Middle Tennessee State, Tennessee-Chattanooga, and Western Kentucky with a three-year stint as quarterbacks coach at Southwestern Louisiana, where he tutored Brian Mitchell. Under Culley's direction, Mitchell became the first player in NCAA history to pass for over 5,000 yards and rush for over 3,000 yards in a career.

From 1989-90, Culley was the offensive coordinator/running backs/wide receivers coach at Texas-El Paso before joining R.C. Slocum's staff at Texas A&M. While there, Culley oversaw that school's receivers and helped the Aggies dominate the SWC from 1991-93.

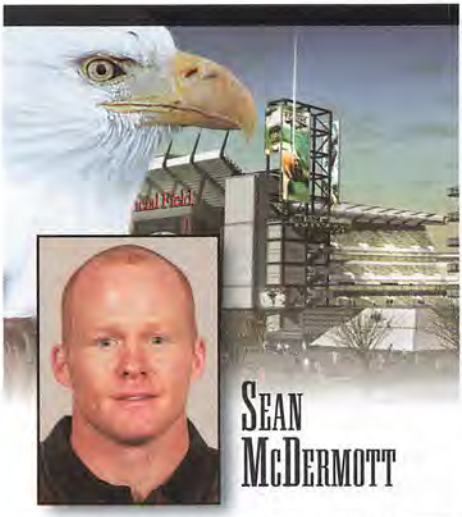

Culley then jumped to the NFL ranks to tutor wide receivers, first with Tampa Bay (1994-95) and then with the Steelers (1996-98). It was under Culley's supervision in 1997 that Pittsburgh WR Yancey Thigpen hauled in 79 passes for a Steelers' single-season record, 1,398 yards and 7 touchdowns en route to Pro Bowl honors.

Culley graduated from Vanderbilt with a degree in health and physical education. He and his wife, Carolyn, have a son, Monty (9/5/74), and daughter, Jessie (10/17/90).

TOM MELVIN

In 1983, Tom Melvin was an offensive lineman at San Francisco State University. His position coach that year was a fellow just two years his senior by the name of Andy Reid.

Today, Melvin enters his fifth season as a member of the Eagles offensive coaching staff and his second as the club's tight ends coach. He served his first three seasons as the team's offensive assistant/quality control coach.

The 41-year old Melvin joined the Eagles after an eight-year stint at Occidental College, where he served as the school's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. In 1993, Melvin led the Tigers to a school-record 326 points and 2,526 rushing yards en route to an 8-1 record.

RON RIVERA

LINEBACKERS

On January 22, 1999, Ron Rivera joined Andy Reid's staff as linebackers coach. A former NFL linebacker with the Chicago Bears, Rivera came to the Eagles after spending the 1997-98 seasons in the Windy City as the Bears' defensive quality control coach.

Rivera first entered the NFL as the Bears' second-round draft pick in 1984. Primarily an outside linebacker, he played in 149 games, including 12 postseason contests during his nine-year career in Chicago, posting 14 interceptions and 7 sacks. Rivera played under then-Bears coordinator - and eventual Eagles head coach - Buddy Ryan in 1985 when Chicago defeated New England in Super Bowl XX.

During his Bears career, Rivera was also known for his time and energy devoted to the community. He earned the Bears 1989 Ed Block Courage Award and was named the club's Man of the Year in 1988.

Immediately following his NFL playing career, Rivera spent four years as a television analyst covering the Bears and college football for WGN-TV and SportsChannel Chicago. He then moved into the coaching ranks with the Bears and, in fact, credits the late Walter Payton with helping bring him onto the Bears' staff in 1997. Payton was at that time a member of the Bears' Board of Directors.

A consensus All-America selection as a linebacker at California, Rivera finished his collegiate career ranked first on the school's all-time sack list with 22 and fourth with 336 tackles. Rivera also set a Cal record for most tackles-for-a-loss in a season with 26.5 in 1983.

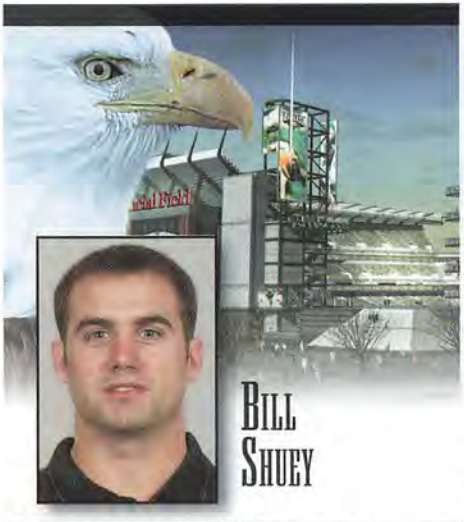

Rivera is one of four coaches in the National Football League of Hispanic descent. In the 2002 offseason, Rivera was a special invitee of President Bush for a Cinco de Mayo celebration at the White House.

Rivera and his wife, Stephanie, have two children, Christopher (17) and Courtney (10). Stephanie, a former basketball player at California, served as an assistant women's basketball coach at Trinity International University (Deerfield, IL) before taking a similar position with the ABL's Chicago Condors (1997-98) and the WNBA's Washington Mystics (2000).

Rivera was born January 7, 1962 in Fort Ord, CA. With his father being an officer in the Army, Rivera lived in Germany, Panama, Washington, D.C., and Maryland prior to moving to central California, where he attended Seaside High School.

PAT SHURMUR

QUARTERBACKS

The 38-year old Shurmur is entering his fifth season on the Eagles staff and his second as the club's quarterbacks coach. After 11 seasons as an assistant coach on the college level, this former All-Big Ten conference center and team captain at Michigan State joined Andy Reid's staff in Philadelphia in 1999.

Shurmur's first three seasons in Philadelphia were spent as the Eagles tight ends coach and he received well-deserved praise for the development of three-time Pro Bowl TE Chad Lewis. Last year, Shurmur earned praise not only for the continued progress of 3-time Pro Bowl quarterback Donovan McNabb, but for his poise displayed after McNabb and veteran back-up Koy Detmer went down with injuries late in the season. Down to 2nd-year quarterback A.J. Feeley, who had not started since his junior year at Oregon, the Eagles went 4-1 down the stretch as they steamrolled toward the playoffs.

Shurmur spent the 1998 season at Stanford as an offensive line coach in charge of the centers and guards. Under his tutelage, the Cardinal offensive line allowed the fewest sacks per pass attempt in the PAC 10 Conference and, in the process, helped first-year quarterback Todd Husak become the third quarterback in Stanford history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season.

Prior to his tenure at Stanford, Shurmur spent 9 seasons at Michigan State instructing the Spartans tight ends, special teams, and offensive line. Under his guidance, MSU developed three tight ends that went on to the NFL: Ty Hallock, Duane Young, and Mitch Lyons. In addition, Shurmur helped kick returner Derrick Mason establish a school record with 2,575 career kickoff return yards.

When he hits someone it's so hard, his contact lenses pop out." The son of former Patriots defensive end Julius Adams, Keith made five starts at middle linebacker for the Cowboys in 2002 before being released. 2 DAVID AKERS

Position: Kicker
Height, Weight: 5-10, 200
Born: 12/9/74 in Lexington, KY
College: Louisville
High School: Tates Creek, Lexington, KY
NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: FA - 1999
Originally joined NFL: Signed as rookie free agent by Carolina in 1997

The NFL's most reliable kicker over the last three years, two-time Pro Bowl selection David Akers has recorded the most points in the entire league since 2000 (369). "If I have my choice of any kicker in football right now, my guy is David Akers," said esteemed Sports Illustrated columnist Peter King. "To have a high percentage kicker in the tricky weather of the Northeast is a tremendous asset. Every ball comes off his foot like a laser." Akers, who etched his name into the Eagles record books in 2002 with 133 points, is definitely the "rags to riches" story of the Eagles roster, having landed on the waiver wire three times before settling into his current position in Philadelphia. A former waiter and substitute teacher, Akers has worked extremely hard to establish himself as an All-Pro. The team's first Pro Bowl kicker since Sam Baker (1969), he originally signed with Philadelphia on 1/11/99 after short stints earlier in his career with the Panthers, Falcons, and Redskins. He spent his first season with the Eagles as a long field goal and kickoff specialist behind veteran Norm Johnson.

THE ROAD LESS TRAVELED

In 1997-98, Akers worked as a substitute teacher at Westport Middle School in Louisville between stints with Carolina and Atlanta. After being released by Washington in 1998, he returned to Atlanta because his wife, Erika, had found a good job with Lucent Technologies. David then picked up a part-time job as a waiter at a Longhorn Steakhouse in Lawrenceville, GA, until signing with the Eagles on 1/11/99.

Akers (center) with Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu instructors Allan Manganello (left) and Pedro Sauer at a ceremony in which he received his blue belt.

BIRDSEED:

- During the offseason, Akers trains in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and Shaolin Kempo under the guidance of Allan Manganello at the Shaolin Kempo Jiu-Jitsu Academy in Louisville. Said Akers, "The martial arts influence is the part where you don't think about [the kick]. You've trained yourself so much to where you go and just do it. Same thing in a fight. You prepare for that one instance where someone is coming at you, and you're not trying to think."
- Akers on his abilities, "I have a weird, God-given talent to kick an oblong ball between two poles."

- His instructional video, "Consistent Place Kicking" can be ordered by calling 1-888-330-7529 ext. 11
- Played for Berlin Thunder of the NFL Europe League in 1999. He contracted salmonella poisoning late in the season and lost 30 pounds prior to his first training camp with the Eagles
- Wrote Philadelphia Daily News columnist Rich Hoffman about Akers' reliability: "Maybe the adversity of the conditions have toughened him. Maybe it was the three trips to the waiver wire before the Eagles picked him up for the 1999 season. Whatever - the guy is just money. Every kick seems to be down the middle and halfway up the netting behind the goal posts. Every kick."

His head coach calls him "the best in the business." The special teams coach refers to him as "irreplaceable." But the player is just amazed he can make a career out of his profession. "It's crazy. Nine years, just snapping the ball between my legs." The humble but valuable Mike Bartrum will continue to perfect his role in Philadelphia as the club's long snapper and reserve tight end after signing a five-year contract on 2/14/03. - After spending the 1993 season with KC, was released by the Chiefs on 8/23/94 and spent the remainder of the season out of football. Was signed by GB on 1/20/95. After spending 1995 with the Packers, was traded to New England along with DE Walter Scott on 8/25/96 for past considerations

24 Sheldon Brown

Position: Cornerback
Height, Weight: 5-10, 196
Born: 3/19/79 in Lancaster, SC
College: South Carolina
High School: Lewisville, Ft. Lawn, SC
NFL Experience: 2nd (2nd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D2-02 (59th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A second round draft pick in 2002, Brown carved out a niche for himself as a speeding bullet on special teams and showed a penchant for big plays on defense during his rookie season. Brown, who logged two interceptions and a sack during his limited playing time on defense, hopes to take that experience to another level in 2003 with an expanded role after the Eagles dealt 3rd cornerback Al Harris to Green Bay during the offseason.

BIRDSEED:

- Upon signing his rookie contract, paid off his parents' bills and set it up so his mother would never have to work another day in her life. Also put a deposit down on a house for his sister, Tasha, so that his nephews, Tyrell (9) and Ahmad (4), could relocate to a better school district. Also had his grandmother's roof repaired.
- On his first flight to Philadelphia after the 2002 draft, Brown was fortunate enough to see a familiar face on the plane. It was Eagles RB Duce Staley, a fellow alumnus of South Carolina. "Duce is my guy," said Brown. "I've been an Eagles fan since he got here."
- Said Eagles All Pro CB Troy Vincent of his young protege: "He's going to play in this league a long time. He prepares...on the first day he came into meetings with a pen and notebook (not common for a rookie)."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Finished his rookie season ranked second on the team in special teams production points (166)
- Intercepted a Matt Hasselbeck pass at Sea. (12/8/02)
- Recorded his first career sack at SF (11/25/02) when he dropped Jeff Garcia
- Snared his first career INT vs. Dal.'s (9/22/02) Quincy Carter. Also pumped up the home crowd with two highlight-film hits of WR/KR Reggie Swinton
- Made his NFL debut at Ten. (9/8/02) as the nickel back, after starting CB Troy Vincent (knee) was deactivated

PERSONAL:

- Engaged to Jenny Renfrow
- Rushed for 2,020 yards and 31 TDs as a senior and was named 1996 Associated Press South Carolina player of the year as Lewisville HS won the Class A state title
- Also named all-state in basketball and baseball three times
- His most memorable football moment was beating Clemson as a college senior. It was the first time his grandmother attended a game since suffering a stroke four years earlier
- Full name: Sheldon Dion Brown

COLLEGE:

A semi-finalist for the 2001 Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's premier defensive back, he collected 204 tackles, 10 INTs and 37 knockdowns during his career. A three-year starter, was the only player in school history to lead the team in interceptions in three seasons (1999-2001). Earned first-team All-America honors as a junior and All-SEC honors as a senior and junior. Lined up at free safety for the first four contests of his sophomore year before shifting to cornerback. Also played on the school's baseball team as a designated hitter and right fielder.

28 CORRELL BUCKHALTER

Position: Running Back
Height, Weight: 6-0, 222
Born: 10/6/78 in Collins, MS
College: Nebraska
High School: Collins, Collins, MS
NFL Experience: 3rd (3rd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D4-01 (121st selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

After an impressive debut as a rookie, Correll Buckhalter was poised to accomplish much more with an increased workload in 2002. But those aspirations came to a halt on the first day of mini-camp (4/26/02) when he tore the anterior cruciate ligament of his left knee in a non-contact drill. Buckhalter returned to practice late in the season (weeks 10-12) and is set for a strong return in 2003. A strong back with a great burst, Buckhalter was the club's 4th round draft choice out of the run-oriented offense of Nebraska in 2001. He filled in for an injured Duce Staley early in the season, rushed for 134 yards in his first NFL start, and ended up with a team-rookie record of 586 yards.

BIRDSEED:

- In the final game of his career at Collins HS, amazingly carried the ball on every single offensive play in the first half. Head coach Royce Foster allowed Buckhalter to showcase his skills for interested college recruiters. He finished the day with 47 carries, a then state record, for 387 yds. and 6 TDs
- Was primarily a backup for most of his Nebraska career, including his senior season behind Dan Alexander. But he was actually drafted ahead of Alexander in 2001 (Alexander was chosen in the 6th round with the 192nd pick by Tennessee)
- Has a different dance for every TD he scores. After his TD vs. TB (1/12/02) in the NFC Wild Card game, he did the "Bad Legs" dance. He borrowed that dance from a neighbor back home in Mississippi. "We've got some old cats down there that dance like that," said Buckhalter. "I got that one from a guy named Charles Page"

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- With 586 yards on just 129 carries in 2001, broke the Eagles rookie rushing record set by Keith Byars (177-577) in 1986
- Also broke the club's single-game rookie mark with 134 yards on 21 carries (6.4 avg.) in his first NFL start vs. Arz. (10/7/01). Steve Van Buren (129 yards on 11/5/44) previously held that mark. Became the first Eagles rookie to rush for 100 yards in first start since Charlie Garner (16-129-2TDs) on 10/2/94 at SF
- After Duce Staley (shoulder) was injured in game 2, stepped in as the #1 RB vs. Dal. (9/30/01) and ran for 99 yards and his first career TD
- In 2001, ranked 3rd in the NFC/6th in the NFL in

FARMER BUCK

Buckhalter learned the value of a hard day's work at a very young age. Growing up, his grandfather, Mervin Owens, owned a pig farm. Correll joined his father, James, every day tending to these feeder pigs. He fed them, gave them their water and built them their home.

"It gave me a great work ethic," said Buckhalter. "I had to take care of these pigs day in and day out. It's a lot of work taking care of pigs, you wouldn't think it."

Tending to the pigs may have made him the running back he is today. Just as Rocky Balboa chased the chickens to improve his foot speed in the ring, Correll was the one they called on when a pig escaped from his pen.

"Man, those suckers are fast," he said. "It's unfair, they've four legs and I only have two. The only way you can catch them is to corner them."

56 DERRICK BURGESS

Position: Defensive End
Height, Weight: 6-2, 266
Born: 8/12/78 in Lake City, SC
College: Mississippi
High School: Roosevelt, Greenbelt, MD
NFL Experience: 3rd (3rd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D3-01 (63th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Determined to make a healthy return to the defensive line in 2003, Derrick Burgess has endured a grueling rehabilitation process since suffering a serious foot injury in the opening week of the 2002 campaign at Tennessee (9/8). After undergoing two surgical procedures and countless hours in the training room, Burgess is looking to rekindle the explosiveness he displayed during his rookie season. A 3rd round draft choice in 2001, Burgess took advantage of his limited playing time and recorded 6 sacks, 5th-highest among rookies that year. As the year went on, he also displayed a knack for stopping the run.

BIRDSEED:

- His mother, Priscilla, took a job at a Wendy's chain in Greenbelt, MD, over 20 years ago in order to move her son to a much safer school than the one he attended in Washington, DC. Since that time she has become the manager of the company's training center in Greenbelt. Burgess admires how hard his mother has worked, "She would go to work at 5:00 am and not get home until 7:00 pm. If she can do that much for me, I figure there's a lot more I can do for her."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2001, ranked 2nd in the NFC and fifth in the NFL in sacks among all rookie defenders with 6
- His 6 sacks were the 2nd most by a rookie in team history (Corey Simon had 9.5 in 2000)
- Set a career high in sacks with 2 vs. SD's Doug Flutie (12/9/01)
- Logged his first career postseason sack in the NFC Championship game at StL (1/27/02) when he dropped Kurt Warner for a 2-yd. loss on the final play of the first half

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in Mt. Laurel, NJ, and visits Greenbelt, MD, throughout the offseason where his mother lives. His father, Willie Cooper, is a metro bus driver and lives in Riverdale, MD

HE'S OLD-SCHOOL

Burgess could be in line to be the next Philadelphia spokesman for Mitchell & Ness, the oldest sporting goods retailer in Philadelphia, who now have a corner on the market for vintage authentic sports jerseys and accessories worldwide.

"It started out as a competition between me and my boys, to see who could have the best jerseys," said Burgess. "Now I just like the way they look and fit. I get jerseys of the guys I idolized growing up. Lots of good memories."

With over 40 jerseys currently stuffing his closet, he has provided us with his top 10 list:

10. Harold Carmichael - Eagles
9. Joe Namath - LA Rams
8. Dan Marino - Miami
7. Randall Cunningham - Eagles
6. Michael Jordan's High School jersey
5. Walter Payton - Bears
4. Wes Unseld - Baltimore Bullets

- Also lettered in basketball averaging 18 points and 11 rebounds over his junior and senior seasons
- Hosted football camps in King Street and Lake City, SC, with former Ole Miss players Kendrick Clancy (Steelers) and Armegis Spearman (Bengals) during the summer of 2003

20 BRIAN DAWKINS

Position: Free Safety
Height, Weight: 6-0, 205
Born: 10/13/73 in Jacksonville, FL
College: Clemson
High School: Raines, Jacksonville, FL
NFL Experience: 8th (8th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D2b-96 (61st selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

To understand this three-time Pro Bowl free safety, just take a look on the top shelf of his locker. There you will find multiple figurines of his favorite comic book hero, Wolverine. Wolverine is the low-key leader of the X-Men, a comic book action series, an animated cartoon and two full-length feature films. Wolverine is known for his animal-keen senses that allow him to track his adversaries with great ease, very much like Dawkins hunts down opposing ball carriers and receivers. The Eagles 2nd round draft choice in 1996 landed a starting role in the 2nd game of his rookie season and has averaged 96 tackles per season while posting 20 interceptions and countless train-wreck hits. Said fellow defensive back mate Troy Vincent, "He can cover like a corner and hit like a linebacker and he almost never makes a mental mistake. He's the best in the business, period." He was rewarded for his tremendous efforts with a lucrative 7-year contract this past offseason (4/28/03).

NO HOLDS BARRED

In the 2002 offseason, Dawkins began teaming up with NHB (No Holds Barred) ultimate fighting champion, Tim Catalfo (a.k.a. Obake) for his off-season workouts.

A 44-year-old northern New Jersey native and Syracuse graduate who practices as a chiropractor, Catalfo is the reigning world extreme fighting super heavyweight champion.

Obake has taught Dawkins to lift properly by controlling the weights and "using every muscle fiber" during his intense training. He had always focused his lifting on his upper body, but it was the power and movement that was developed in his legs that has made a difference.

"Obake knows what it takes to be the best," said Dawkins. "My only regret is that I didn't train with him sooner."

Team Obake has currently trained 12 world champions in extreme fighting and works with other pro athletes, including Donovin Darius (Jaguars) and Walt Weiss (Atlanta Braves)

"As soon as we hit the floor to train, it's on," said Obake of his prized pupil. "Brian transforms immediately and puts on his game face."

BIRDSEED:

- "I wish I could eat cereal for breakfast, lunch and dinner and watch as much cartoons as my son and daughter." A huge fan of cartoons, he watches "Tom & Jerry" with his daughter, Briani, and "Yu-Gi-Oh!" with his son, Brian. He estimates that he watches as much if not more cartoons than his kids
- Joined Wolverine to drop the ceremonial first puck at a Philadelphia Phantoms (AHL) game

Wolverine of the X-Men

in 2003. It was just the second hockey game the Jacksonville native had ever attended

- Said Cowboys safety Darren Woodson, a five-time Pro Bowler: "Brian Dawkins is the best safety in the league, bar none. He has been consistent each and every time I've seen him play. He does all the little things that help his team win."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A three-time Pro Bowl selection in 1999, 2001 and 2002, was also named first alternate in 2000, despite missing three games due to an emergency appendectomy
- Earned a Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 after leading the team with a career-high 131 tackles. Also set career highs in sacks (3), forced fumbles (7), and fumble recoveries (3)

AN X-TRA SPECIAL VISIT

Dawkins and his family visited the Marvel Comics headquarters in New York City in 2002 to meet with Adam Kubert and Danny Miki, the artists who draw the X-Men comics. While there, he was presented with Kubert's rendering of Dawkins as Wolverine. (pictured below)

- Selected by his teammates as the Eagles defensive MVP, and was an all-NFL selection by the Associated Press, Football Digest, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, College and Pro Football Newsweekly, Pro Football Weekly and USA Today Sports Weekly
- Intercepted Michael Vick in divisional playoff win vs. Atl (1/11/03). Also drilled Vick with a highlight-film hit on a scramble
- Collected a season-high 14 tackles, the second-highest total of his career, at NYG (12/28/02) and forced a fumble
- Earned NFC defensive POW honors after being the first player in NFL history to record a sack, an INT, FR, and TD reception in a single game vs. Hou. (9/29/02). It was the first time a fake punt was converted into a TD by the Eagles since 1988 (Terry Hoage). He victimized Texans QB David Carr for the defensive trio of events before taking a pitch from Brian Mitchell on the fake punt and racing 57 yds. for his 4th career TD
- For the first time in his career, collected both a sack and an INT in the same game at Was. (9/16/02), victimizing Danny Wuerffel
- His 2001 Pro Bowl campaign was fueled by 106 tackles and a career-high 20 hurries. He earned All-NFL honors from the Associated Press, Football Digest, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly and Sports Illustrated. Was also named to the All-Madden team
- Forced and recovered a fumble from Chargers RB LaDainian Tomlinson (12/9/01) and raced 49 yards for a score. Forced another Tomlinson fumble that was recovered by Hollis Thomas
- Registered a career-high 2 interceptions vs. Tony Banks and a TD-saving tackle on WR Rod Gardner at Was. (11/25/01)
- In 1999, was an All-Pro selection by Sports Illustrated and an All-NFC pick by Pro Football Weekly and Football News. Was also named the Eagles defensive MVP
- Began the 1999 season with an interception in each of the first three games: vs. Arz., vs. TB and vs. Buf. In doing so he became the first Eagle to record an INT in three consecutive games since CB Eric Allen and S Rich Miano did so in games 2-4 in 1993
- His 67-yard INT return for a TD off of Damon Huard at Mia. (10/24/99) was his longest INT return
- In the 2000 Pro Bowl, tied a NFL record with 2 INTs for the NFC squad
- Picked off Giants QB Danny Kanell on 12/7/97 and returned the ball 64 yds. for his first TD as a pro

- Earned NFL All-Rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly, College & Pro Football Newsweekly, and Football News in 1996
- Notched his first career INT vs. Atl.'s Bobby Hebert (9/22/96). The following week in a Monday night game vs. Dal. (9/30) sacked Troy Aikman, forcing a fumble that Rhett Hall returned 32 yds. for a TD

PERSONAL:

- Brian and his wife, Connie, were high school sweethearts and have known each other since they were 15 years old. They have a son, Brian, Jr. (8/2/96), and daughter, Brionni (9/23/99)
- His brother, Ralph, was a fullback at Louisville and played with the New Orleans Saints
- Recently sold his home in Jacksonville and purchased land in Orlando where he plans to build a home
- Was an all-state selection at Raines HS in Jacksonville, FL (the same school attended by former Eagles WR Harold Carmichael and current Eagles CB Lito Sheppard) and helped lead that team to 30 consecutive wins. Other current NFL players from Raines include Jabbar Gaffney (Texans), Shawn Jefferson (Lions) and Rod Gardner (Redskins)
- Also earned all-conference honors in basketball
- "Stop, Drop, Roll, Cool and Call," that is the catch phrase of the public service announcement that Dawkins filmed with the Burn Prevention Foundation in 2002. The PSA was a part of a national educational video
- Enjoys golf and had lessons during the 2003 offseason which took 15-20 strokes off his game
- Is an active member of the Eagles Bible study group and a huge fan of gospel music
- Earned his degree in education

IDIOT MAN

During the week, Dawkins walks the Eagles locker room as a humble, mild mannered, God-fearing man. But on game day he transforms into one of the most fierce and energetic creatures ever to occupy a secondary. What's the secret?

"My man Peduzzi hooks me up," explains Dawkins. "When he puts that Breathe Right on my nose, I just become the idiot man!"

Chris Peduzzi, an athletic trainer, prepares that Breathe Right strip before Dawkins even gets to the stadium. He colors the strip with a midnight green marker on one half and a silver paint pen on the other. Dawkins is very particular about the application of the strip as the silver side must be on the left side of his nose.

- Full name: Brian Patrick Dawkins

COLLEGE:

A three-year starter at strong safety for Clemson, finished his career with 234 tackles and 11 interceptions. Was an All-ACC and a 2nd-team All-America selection as a senior when his team-high 6 INTs tied him for the conference lead. Also an outstanding special teams player, he made 35 stops on those units.

INJURY HISTORY:

In 2000, missed games 4-6 while recovering from an emergency appendectomy (9/19). Broke his hand at Arz. on 12/5/99, but did not miss a game. Sprained his right ankle vs. Wash. (10/11/98) and subsequently missed the next two games. Suffered a bruised fibula at Jax. (10/12/97) and missed the following week's matchup vs. Arz. Strained his groin at Ind. (12/5/96) and was sidelined for the final two regular season contests, but returned for the playoffs.

NFL Experience: 7th (7th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D7a-97 (207th overall)

The son of a renowned Texas high school football coach, Detmer brings a special element to the Eagles equation. With a unique sense of humor, toughness, and his unassuming athletic ability, Koy is a perennial locker room favorite. Never was that more evident when Detmer was thrust into the lineup for an injured Donovan McNabb for a Monday Night Football game at San Francisco in 2002. After directing the underdog Eagles to a big lead, Detmer suffered a gruesome dislocation of his left elbow and was forced to leave the contest. On his way into the locker room, a roster full of players from both squads were quick to pat the back of the gutsy Detmer in one of the league's most memorable displays of sportsmanship. A 7th round draft choice in 1997, he earned his role as the Eagles backup QB in an unorthodox manner. He went from the Injured Reserve list as a rookie, to being a five-game starter in 1998 and then back to the 3rd quarterback role in 1999 before taking over his current job in 2000. Detmer is an important component of the special teams as the holder on all FGs and PATs. He signed a four-year contract on 2/26/03.

BIRDSEED:

- Travels to road games with the clothes on his back, his playbook and a toothbrush. In fact, goes to Target each summer to get a new travel ensemble that he wears on each trip. Koy bragged, "I can get an entire outfit for under 100 bucks." This prompted a local TV station to provide Koy with a shopping spree. Given $100, he entered Target, picked out pants, a shirt, shoes, a belt, and underwear - all for just $76. "Everything else I need the Eagles have for me," said Koy

- Is the younger brother of former Eagle and current Lions QB Ty Detmer. He joined Ty in becoming the first pair of brothers to each start an NFL game at QB (Damon and Brock Huard are the only other brother tandem to have each started NFL games. Terry and Craig Bradshaw are the only other brothers to have played in the NFL, but Craig never started a game)
- Is the Eagles ace golfer. He has participated in the NFL Celebrity Golf Classic 4 times and twice finished in 5th place. His handicap is currently an 8. His favorite course is The Quary in San Antonio, TX. In Philadelphia he likes to play at Laurel Creek Country Club in Mt Laurel, NJ.
- When asked who would comprise his ultimate foursome besides himself, he lists Bill Murray, Tiger Woods, and former teammate Steve Everitt

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In his first start since 1999, led the Eagles to an emotional Monday Night Football win at SF (11/25/02), in place of McNabb (ankle). After throwing for 2 TDs and rushing for another score, he left during the 3rd qtr. with a gruesome injury. As he tried to brace himself from a hit after releasing a pass attempt, his left arm was jolted into the turf and the elbow was dislocated. Earned "Horse Trailer" POG honors from ABC for his efforts
- Converted a perfect option pitch to K David Akers on a fake FG attempt vs. Dal. (9/22/02) that resulted in a 10-yard gain and a first down
- Executed a perfect behind-the-back, no-look lateral to K David Akers who galloped 15 yards for a 1st down on a fake FG at Arz. (10/15/00)
- In his only playing time of the 1999 season led the Eagles to a 24-9 victory vs. NE (12/19) as he fired 3 TD passes, including a 50 ydr. to Torrance Small
- Began the 1998 season as the 3rd QB behind Bobby Hoying and Rodney Peete. When both suffered injuries, Detmer landed his first career starting role at GB (11/29). He then went on to start the final four games of the season, including the season finale at Dal. (12/20) when he posted career highs in atts. (43), completions (24), and yards (231)

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Katie - a former University of Colorado skier - have two sons, Koy, Jr. (3/1/96) and Koal (1/30/03), and a daughter Katie (11/17/00). The family resides in San Antonio, TX, in the offseason
- For Halloween dressed as a mariachi musician in 2002 and a Musketeer in 2001 and visited the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia with his teammates
- Was an all-state QB in a pro-style passing offense at Mission (TX) HS, where he was coached by his father, Sonny. Finished his career with a state-record 8,221 passing yards and 82 TDs
- Also lettered in basketball and golf
- List of favorites: Clint Eastwood (actor), Fruit Loops (cereal), Okie From Muskogee (song), San Antonio Spurs (non-football team), Aquaman (super hero), Dave & Busters (Philadelphia restaurant) and science (subject in school)
- Boyhood heroes include Roger Staubach and Tom Landry
- Earned his degree in communications

One of the most prolific passers in Colorado history, set the school record for most touchdown passes with 40. By throwing for 3,156 yds. and 22 TDs in 1996, became the first QB in Buffaloes history to throw for over 3,000 yards in a season. Capped his career with a 45-25-371-0-3TD passing effort in a 33-21 win over Washington in the Holiday Bowl. Earned first-team All-Big 12 Conference honors and was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award given to the nation's top senior passer. Amassed career passing totals of 594 atts., 350 cmps., 5,390 yds., 25 INTs, and 40 TDs.

INJURY HISTORY:

Dislocated his left elbow at SF (11/25/02) and was inactive for two games. Injured his right knee on 8/19/97 and spent the rest of his rookie season on the Injured Reserve list. He had previously undergone season-ending surgery to the same knee in '95 while at the Univ. of Colorado.

51 CARLOS EMMONS

Position: Linebacker
Height, Weight: 6-5, 250
Born: 9/3/73 in Greenwood, MS
College: Arkansas State
High School: Greenwood, Greenwood, MS
NFL Experience: 8th (4th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Pit) 2000
Originally joined NFL: D7-96 by Pittsburgh (242nd selection overall)

Entering his 4th season in Philadelphia, Carlos Emmons has been a steadying force at the strong side linebacker position. Although he has a quiet demeanor off the field, his play over the last three years has allowed the Eagles to make plenty of noise on the gridiron. Since Emmons signed on 3/22/00, the Eagles defense has ranked first in the NFL in points allowed, 3rd down defense, and red zone TD percentage as Emmons has averaged 106 tackles per year, while playing a big part in shutting down the opposing team's tight ends. Said defensive coordinator Jim Johnson of the former 7th round draft choice of Pittsburgh, "He's exactly what you need in a strong side linebacker. Someone who can cover, be physical and play over the tight end."

BIRDSEED:

- An avid dominoes player, lists offensive linemen Tra Thomas, Bobbie Williams and Hank Fraley as his favorite foursome to play with
- Was nicknamed "Bull" by his grandfather when he was a little boy because he was able to lift, move and pick up furniture, tables, etc. that were way out of the realm of possibility for kids his age
- He and Bills LB Takeo Spikes established "51 Ways," a charity that will benefit Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. Both players, who work out together in the offseason and are close friends, wear the jersey number 51
- Attributes his quiet, laid-back personality to hanging out with his uncle, Keith Thompson, and his friends as a child. Thompson, who was two years older than Carlos, never let the youngster get a word in. "I was always the youngest, who wanted to listen to me?"

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Finished 4th on the team with 92 tackles in 2002, despite missing 3 games with a hamstring injury
- Collected a career-high 15 tackles at NYG (12/28/02)
- Returned Redskins QB Patrick Ramsey's fumble 44 yards for his first career TD vs. Was. (12/15/02). Also added a game-high 13 tackles
- Tied a career-high with 2 sacks of Brad Johnson vs. TB (10/20/02)
- Along with his 110 tackles (3rd on the team) in 2001, allowed just 41 receptions for 440 yds. and 2 TDs by opposing tight ends
- Forced a fumble late in the 4th quarter by RB Michael Pittman at Arz. (11/4/01) that stalled a Cardinals drive in the Eagles 21-7 win
- Held Chiefs All-Pro TE Tony Gonzalez to 4-28 receiving at KC (11/29/01)

SISKEL & EMMONS

A self proclaimed movie buff, Emmons is one of Blockbuster's most frequent visitors.

"Every Tuesday during the season I go to the store and pick up some DVDs. Even if there is nothing new out, I'm coming home with something. If a clerk is trying to sell something, he can probably sell it to me. I watch everything - action, drama, comedies and I'm even getting back into horror flicks."

Emmons' all-time favorites are "The Usual Suspects" and "Scarface."

- In 2000, his first season as an Eagle, held down the SAM linebacker spot as he matched up with opposing tight ends (43-353-1TD receiving) throughout the season and finished second on the team with a career-high 116 tackles
- Acted for most of the game vs. Dal. (11/5/00) as a spy against mobile QB Randall Cunningham and posted 12 tackles
- At ROLB, finished the 1999 season ranked 2nd on the Steelers in sacks to fellow LB Jason Gildon (8.5) and 4th in tackles (86)
- Notched 8 tackles, including 2 sacks of Mark Brunell, 2 QB hurries, and a fumble recovery at Jax. (12/2/99)
- In 1998, his first season as a full-time starter, finished with 73 tackles and tied for 2nd on the team with 3.5 sacks. Notched 1.5 sacks of Eric Zeier vs. Bal. (10/18), 1 of Elvis Grbac at KC (10/26), and 1 of Jeff Blake vs. Cin. (12/20)
- Posted first career INT off of Mark Brunell on the Jaguars final drive to preserve a 30-15 win vs. Jax. (11/22/98)

59 JUSTIN ENA

Position: Linebacker
Height, Weight: 6-3, 247
Born: 11/20/77 in Provo, UT
College: BYU
High School: Shelton, Shelton, WA
NFL Experience: 2nd (2nd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie free agent in 2002
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A highly productive player during his college career at BYU, Justin Ena was disappointed his name was not announced as one of the 261 players selected in the 2002 draft. He quickly turned that disappointment into determination, soaking in advice from fellow BYU alum and Pro Bowl TE Chad Lewis, who, like Ena, was a 25-year-old rookie with high aspirations. Ena became one of two non-drafted rookies who earned a spot on the Eagles opening day roster (Artis Hicks was the other). A very bright and physical player, Ena displayed a good deal of potential on special teams (9 tackles in 9 games).

BIRDSEED:

- As the son of a principal, Ena and his family moved around a number on times during his youth. His most interesting stop came at the Collville Indian Reservation, home to a Nez Perce Indian community, on the Canadian border in Northeastern Washington. Peato, his father, was the principal of that school (kindergarten through 12th grade) while Justin was in 8th through 10th grade. With just 78 students in the senior high portion of the school, Justin was only able to play 8-man football in his freshman and sophomore years. "I loved being in such a small community. It was comfortable. I'm a quiet guy and it suited me well."
- Comes from a family of football players - uncle Tali (Washington State), brothers Packy (Oregon State) and Tali (currently at Washington State)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Made his NFL debut at Ten. (9/8/02)

PERSONAL:

- He and his wife, Dana, have a son, Justice (2/19/02), and reside in Marlton, NJ
- Attended Shelton (WA) HS where he also lettered in basketball and baseball
- Trains with Chad Lewis in the off-season in Provo
- Graduated with degree in history
- Full name: Justin Peato Ena

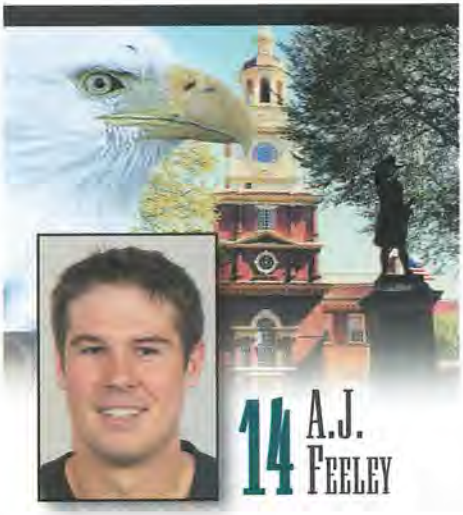

COLLEGE:

A three-year starter at BYU, he moved from strong-side linebacker to the inside as a junior after All-American Rob Morris was drafted in the first round by Indianapolis in 2000. Became the 5th player in school history to lead the team in tackles for two consecutive seasons (107 as a junior and 101 as a senior). Earned All-Mountain West first-team honors in 2001. In 48 career games, amassed 279 tackles, including 29 for a loss and 4 sacks. Added 2 INTs, 6 FFs and 4 FRs.

14 A.J. Feeley

Position: Quarterback
Height, Weight: 6-3, 225
Born: 5/16/77 in Caldwell, ID
College: Oregon
High School: Ontario, Ontario, OR
NFL Experience: 3rd (3rd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D5b-01 (155th selection overall)
Originally entered NFL: Same as above

What would you expect from a 2nd-year quarterback with just one NFL game and 8 college starts on his resume? Wins in his first four NFL starts, not a blink of nervousness, and confidence from his teammates. Hardly. But A.J. Feeley provided all of that, plus much more as the Eagles turned to him during the 11th game of 2002 with the division title and home field advantage on the line. A 5th round draft choice from Oregon in 2001 after throwing just 13 passes during his senior season, Feeley has made the most of his opportunities during his brief NFL career in Philadelphia. "I'm pretty confident," said Feeley, who hadn't started a game since October, 1999. "If I wasn't confident in my ability to play this game, then I shouldn't be here."

BIRDSEED:

- Acquired the skill of roping cattle at a young age while working the ranches of family friends during the summers. "It came very easy to me. It was very similar to throwing a football."
- Claims he was never able to skip class growing up because his parents were bound to find out. His father, W.M., is a math teacher at his high school and is the head of baseball officials for the Scenic West Athletic Conference. That is where his father met his stepmother, the school's bookkeeper. Feeley's mother, Linda Larson, is the principal at Emmett Elementary School and his stepfather, Bob Larson, is the superintendent of the Melba School District
- Wrote Peter King of Sports Illustrated and CNNSI.com after Feeley's impressive record as a starter during the 2002 season in relief of McNabb and Detmer: "It's hard not to be very, very excited watching him play the quarterback position... one of the reasons he has been able to succeed to this level is because he doesn't treat it like it's the seventh game of the World Series. He approaches every down like he's just out there playing. No pressure."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Thrust into a starting role for the final five games of 2002, when injuries sidelined Donovan McNabb and Koy Detmer, and posted a 4-1 record
- Stepped in for an injured Detmer (elbow) at SF (11/25/02) on Monday Night Football and went 3-3-17-1TD passing in the final qtr.-and-a-half of the game. His 1-yd. TD pass to Chad Lewis came on his first pass attempt of the season
- Won his first career start vs. StL (12/1/02)
- Completed a career-long 53-yd. pass to FB Cecil Martin vs. Was. (12/15/02)
- Threw for a career-high 253 yards and 1 TD at Dal. (12/21/02)
- Spent all 16 games of his rookie season as the Eagles 3rd QB
- In the 2001 season finale at TB (1/6) saw his first pro action as he entered the game in the 4th qtr. With a lip bloodied by a hard shot from a Bucs defender and down 13-3 with less than six minutes remaining, he led two consecutive scoring drives giving the Eagles a 17-13 win. Both drives resulted in TD passes to WR Dameane Douglas, including the game-winning 24-ydr. with 1:46 left on the clock. Finished the night 10 of 14 passing for 143 yds. and 2 TDs.

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in Philadelphia. Rents a room from good friend Brandon Whiting. The two became friends in Feeley's rookie year and attributes that to their "west coast mindset and liberal school background"

- Holds a degree in business
- On the same day he signed his rookie contract, he underwent an emergency appendectomy
- Dressed as a leprehcaun in 2002 and a gorilla in 2001 and visited the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia on Halloween with his teammates
- Created Halloween decorations with the children from Temple University Children's Hospital and children from the Torch Club in 2002. Also participated in the United Way Hometown Huddle with kids from the Bridesburg Boys and Girls Club
- Appeared on ESPN's "Beg, Borrow, & Deal" (9/24/02) and helped a team complete one of their tasks of catching a pass from an NFL QB. The show pit two teams in a race to complete 40 tasks that centered around sports
- When asked who would comprise his ultimate golf foursome, he responded with John Daly, Chevy Chase, and Ozzy Osbourne
- Attended the "Loews Day at the Movies" in January 2002, when 300 foster children from Camden's Division of Youth and Family Services were treated to an afternoon of fun
- List of favorites: Prayer For Owen Meanie (book), Bill Murray (actor), Julia Roberts (actress), Frogger (video game), www.mulletsgalore.com (website) and The Incredible Hulk (superhero)
- Was a two-time Greater Oregon League Offensive Player of the Year and a first team All-State Class 3A selection at Ontario (OR) HS. In his career, threw for 5,428 yards and 59 TDs, adding 12 more scores rushing. Also played safety as a senior, intercepting 6 passes.
- Starred in basketball at Ontario HS and was recruited by a number of Big Sky Conference universities
- Is a member of the Eagles offseason basketball squad
- Full name: Adam Joshua Feeley

COLLEGE:

Started the first eight games of his junior year before an elbow injury sidelined him for the remainder of the season. Spent his senior year as the backup QB to Joey Harrington, the #3 overall pick in 2002 by Detroit. In 22 career games (8 starts), Feeley completed 149 of 282 passes for 2,175 yards, 15 TDs and only 6 INTs. Appeared in only two games as a senior, completing 5 of 13 passes for 87 yds. In his junior season, connected on 136 of 259 pass attempts for 1,951 yds. and 14 TDs. His efforts earned him a mid-season nomination for the Davey O'Brien Award presented to the nation's top passer. Served in a reserve role as a sophomore and redshirted as a freshman.

Born: 9/21/77 in Gaithersburg, MD
College: Robert Morris
High School: Gaithersburg, Gaithersburg, MD

FAMILY TIES

Hank Fraley spent a lot of his free time during the offseason thinking about his little brother, David, and his wife, Valerie. The couple was stationed with the United States Army's 3rd Infantry Division in Iraq as part of Operation Iraqi Freedom. The couple were eventually stationed in downtown Baghdad after the city had been secured.

"I sat back and wondered what he was doing," Hank said. "For my father, it hurt him a little more. He watched it constantly. It was their baby out there so it was tough for them."

Sgt. David Fraley is following in his father's footsteps, a Vietnam veteran. Their father lost his brother in that conflict and Hank had that in the back of his mind the entire time his brother was away.

"That's one thing I thought about a lot," said Hank. "I don't want to be like my father and not have my brother come back."

Although David stands 6-foot-6, a good 4 inches taller than his brother, he is still a little brother to Hank. The big bro is very proud.

"His job and my job are totally different," Hank said. "He's fighting for and securing our freedom and I'm just entertaining people. I have all the respect for him. He's my little brother. We've been through a lot."

The anchor of the Eagles offensive line since 2001, Hank Fraley climbed a steep ladder to find himself at the current rung of his career. An undrafted free agent, Fraley stepped in for injured center Bubba Miller at the end of the 2001 preseason and has not looked back. It's no accident Fraley has progressed so much as a player. He works hard, studies hard, and stays late, watching hour after hour of film with the quarterbacks. Fraley took that blue-collar attitude plus a feisty style of play to earn a lucrative five-year contract extension in 2002. A non-scholarship player at Division I-AA Robert Morris in Pittsburgh, PA, Fraley signed as a rookie free agent by the Steelers in 2000, but was released and claimed off waivers by the Eagles on 8/28/00.

BIRDSEED:

- The offensive line of LT Tra Thomas, LG John Welbourn, C Hank Fraley, RG Jermane Mayberry, and RT Jon Runyan enter their third season together. Only once have the Eagles had a unit play together for that long a spell – the 1981-83 unit consisting of LT Stan Walters, LG Steve Kenney, C Guy Morriss, RG Ron Baker, and RT Jerry Sisemore.
- An undersized lineman in high school, Fraley was not heavily recruited and decided to attend Robert Morris because the head coach was Joe Walton, the former coach of the New York Jets. Recalled longtime Gaithersburg HS coach John Harvill, "Hank worked his tail off. He would work all summer. What a great young man. He was so coachable. I didn't think he'd ever make it to the pros ... The first two years he was an average football player. Hank did everything anyone ever asked him to do."
- Prior to starting his NFL career, Fraley planned on teaching history and coaching football
- Became only the 2nd player in Robert Morris history to have his number, 75, retired (the other was RB Tim Hall who played for the Raiders)

SUCH A SWEET GUY

Hank was nicknamed "Honey Buns," by fellow lineman Tra Thomas. When Fraley joined his teammates for the 2001 team picture a bee would not leave Fraley alone and his teammates figured he was just too sweet.

When Charlie Pizzi, president of Tastykake, a local snack cake company, learned of Fraley's nickname he sent him a case of Tastykake's Honey Buns. Fraley in turn asked for a case to be sent to his brother, David, and sister-in-law, Valerie, who were both serving in Iraq at the time.

TASTYKAKE BAKERY FRESH

- In his first ever NFL game (vs. StL, 9/9/01), was fined for an illegal downfield block

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started all 16 games in 2002 and helped pave the way for the league's 4th-highest scoring offense (25.9 pts./game), the best output in team history (415)
- Helped Duce Staley notch his 3rd career 1,000-yd rushing season in 2002
- The 2002 offensive line allowed the team's lowest sack total (36) in a 16-game season since 1981 (22)
- Started 15 games and played nearly every offensive down in 2001. Did not start the season finale at TB (1/6/02) but played in a reserve role at RT
- Spent the entire 2000 season on the club's 53-man roster but was inactive for all 16 games and both playoff contests

DINNER AND A MOVIE

Fraley and QB Donovan McNabb stay late at the NovaCare Complex during the week to watch extra game film of their upcoming opponents. After grabbing some dinner from the coahes' buffet, the two lock themsleves in the QB's meeting room devouring food and film.

"He's a street fighter," said defensive coordinator Jim Johnson. "He plays hurt. He really gets nicked up because he throws his body around." Sounds like the perfect guy for the city that idolizes a street fighter named Rocky, who climbed his way against all odds to capture the world championship in boxing. Grasmanis was rewarded for his tough, blue-collar play with a three-year contract extension on 4/24/01 (the Eagles matched an offer sheet from the Redskins). An avid outdoorsman, he grew up fishing and hunting in addition to raising the cows on the farm. "My father used to bring me into the country to keep me off the streets. I've hunted everything the state of Texas has to offer. Coyote, deer, rabbit; you name it."

He and his father, Miron, also built their own corral on the family's farm. "I just love to have my hands in the dirt. I've built more fence than I can remember, but that corral was my biggest job ever."

"Everybody travels different paths to where they want to go," said Hicks. "When I wasn't drafted, I knew it would be a challenge, but I just looked at it as a different path I had to take." 94 N.D. KALU

Position: Defensive End
Height, Weight: 6-3, 265
Born: 8/3/75 in Baltimore, MD
College: Rice
High School: Marshall, San Antonio, TX
NFL Experience: 7th (4th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Wash) 2001
Originally joined NFL: D5a-97 by Philadelphia (152nd selection overall)

There was no bigger critic of N.D. Kalu's 2001 season than Kalu himself. After signing a lucrative, five-year contract on 3/12/01, Kalu, which translates to "god of thunder" in the Ibo language, was looking for equal production on the field. But an early season high ankle sprain kept his high-octane motor in the shop and put a damper on a promising season. "It was hard to look at myself in the mirror," the stand-up Kalu said. But in 2002, he flourished as a part-time defensive end, finishing with career highs in sacks (8), tackles (30), and forced fumbles (2). N.D., which is short for Ndukwe (meaning "long life and prosperity"), looks to further prosper with an increased role in 2003. Originally drafted by the Eagles in 1997, Kalu re-joined the Eagles after a three-year stint with the Washington Redskins.

BACK TO HIS ROOTS

Being the only American-born member of his family, Kalu has a great deal of pride and respect for his native Nigeria. Nestled on the west coast of Africa, Nigeria is the home to Jonah Ndukwe Kalu, N.D.'s grandfather, a legend in the town of Abiriba. He was a renowned and respected businessman.

Kalu, who had not been to Nigeria since he was 13, and his parents, Dr. Dike and Carolyn, took a two-and-a-half week trip to Nigeria this past offseason.

"It was so good to get back to my roots and know the land where my family is from," said Kalu. "I got a sense of self pride. My uncle owns and operates a water company, where they engineer, filter and bottle water. In spite of what many people think, Nigeria has some thriving businesses without the help of the Western World."

Kalu, whose parents bring tapes of his games back to Nigeria for his family to see, plans to go back each and every year. Next year, he and his uncle, Nwokocha, will start a football camp for the children of Abiriba.

Here was the outgoing itinerary this past year:

- Flew from Houston to Amsterdam (13 hrs.)
- Flew from Amsterdam to Lagos (10 hrs.)
- Prayed for luggage to arrive in Lagos!! It did
- Stayed at a hotel in Lagos for two nights
- Flew from Lagos to Port-Harcourt (1 hour)
- Drove from Port-Harcourt to Aba (2 1/2hours on rough roads). In America, that drive would have been 45 minutes.
- Visited uncle's house in Aba. His uncle is a successful businessman in Aba.
- Drove from Aba to Abiriba (2 1/2 hours)
- Stayed at father's house in Abiriba

BIRDSEED:

- Is the CEO and founder of Sore-Loser Athletic Wear. Kalu has had Chiefs LB Shawn Barber and RB Priest Holmes and Redskins LB LaVar Arrington model for the clothing line. Also owns "Direct2U" in Houston, TX. The company specializes in mobile car wash and detailing
- Prefers to go by "N.D." because his given name Ndukwe, (EN-doo-kway) is mispronounced so often
- Earned his degree in English during the 2002 offseason

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Established career highs in tackles (30), sacks (8), forced fumbles (2) and special teams tackles (13) during the 2002 season. Played in all 16 regular season games for the first time in his career
- Forced a Michael Vick fumble in divisional playoff game vs. Atl (1/11/03)
- In December of 2002, posted 6 sacks in a four-game stretch between 12/1 and 12/21, dropping Cowboys QB Chad Hutchinson twice at Dal. (12/21)
- Broke through and drilled Seahawks P Jeff Feagles, for a 15-yd. loss at Sea (12/8/02). Also sacked Matt Hasselbeck
- Earned NFC defensive player of the week honors for his efforts vs. StL (12/1/02). Harassed Rams QB Kurt Warner as he collected career highs in sacks (3) and tackles (6). Also forced a fumble
- Blocked the first punt of his career vs. Dal. (9/30/01) when he victimized Micah Knorr deep in Cowboys territory; the block was recovered by Eagles LB Ike Reese and converted into a FG
- Registered his first sack as an Eagle at Arz. (11/4/01), when he dropped Jake Plummer
- Notched 5 tackles and five blocked passes in the NFC Wild Card game vs. Det. (1/8/00)
- After being released by the Eagles on 8/25/98, saw playing time in 13 games for Was. and made his first career sack vs. the Eagles Rodney Peete (10/11/98)
- The first of two 5th round selections by Philadelphia in 1997, saw action in 3 games on special teams and in passing situations

PERSONAL:

- Welcomed his first child, Karolyn, on 2/6/02. He resides in Houston, TX, in the offseason
- Was the first in his family to be born in the United States (Baltimore, MD) after the family moved from Nigeria
- Was an all-state selection as a senior at John Marshall (TX) HS. In his junior year, led his team to the state Class 5A Division II title along with Chiefs RB Priest Holmes
- Also lettered in basketball and track and set the San Antonio district and city record in the high jump at 7 feet
- Writes poems and short stories
- Enjoys playing dominoes and reading fiction novels for relaxation

89 CHAD LEWIS

Position: Tight End
Height, Weight: 6-6, 252
Born: 10/5/71 in Fort Dix, NJ
College: Brigham Young
High School: Orem, Orem, UT
NFL Experience: 6th (6th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Waivers (StL) 1999
Originally joined NFL: Signed as rookie free agent by Philadelphia in 1997

Most sons look up to their fathers as role models. In Chad Lewis' case, he also looks to his dad as his source for inspiration. On July 2, 1990, three months before Chad was to leave on his LDS mission, Dr. Roger Lewis suffered a stroke because of an abscessed tooth. He was told he might never walk again. When he left the hospital two months later under his own power, though, his son felt the same pride most fathers have watching their sons succeed. Lewis may look to his father for inspiration, but he himself has a truly inspiring story. Now a three-time Pro Bowl selection, he began the journey to his NFL success as a walk-on on the BYU football squad and ended up starting 22 games and catching 111 passes in his college career. Undrafted, Lewis signed a rookie free agent contract with the Eagles in 1997 and caught 4 TDs in his rookie campaign. With two trips to the waiver wire (Philadelphia and St. Louis both released him) that followed in just over a year, Lewis stayed focused and refused to give up. He returned to Philadelphia on 11/17/99 and earned three Pro Bowl berths along with a four-year contract extension on 12/23/00.

BIRDSEED:

- Was in Taichung, Taiwan from October, 1990 through October, 1992 as part of his LDS mission (said Lewis, "The only thing I knew about Taiwan was that everything is made there. Everything except me.")
- His favorite quote is: Jen Jin Bu Pa Hwo, which is chinese for, "True gold does not fear the refiners fire"
- Earned degrees in both communications and Chinese and was twice named to the Academic All-WAC squad. Also named a GTE Academic All-American in 1996
- Has been surrounded by an athletic family. His wife, Michele, was a two-time volleyball All-American at BYU and led her team to the Final Four in 1993. Three of his four brothers played Division I football. Todd and Dave were linebackers at BYU and Mike was a defensive end at Utah

IMPROVING FOREIGN RELATIONS

Lewis trekked around Southeast Asia for 11 days in May of 2002 promoting American football in Thailand, Singapore and Taiwan. It was not his first trip to the region; he had spent two years (1990-92) in Taichung, Taiwan serving a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. "It was so crazy. I put a helmet on and they would crack up laughing. I'd show them a football and they didn't know what the (laces) were for."

An ideal representative for the sport, Lewis is fluent in Mandarin Chinese. While visiting, he taught a football clinic in Taiwan, threw out the first pitch at a professional baseball game and gave interviews to the media. "When they found out I'd do interviews in Chinese the requests tripled," said Lewis.

"They're getting to understand football, they love the Eagles," said Lewis. "All they know is I care about them. If you show the people there you care about them, they care about you."

Believed to be the only NFL player fluent in Mandarin Chinese, Chad Lewis has drawn the interest of many fans and media from that country. The following verse is an excerpt from his bio using the Chinese language:

大部份的兒子都會向自己的父親看齊。Chad Lewis也不例外，以他的父親為榜樣。1990年7月2日，在Chad即將展開末世聖徒（LDS）傳教之旅的三個月前，Roger Lewis醫生因為一顆長膿瘡的牙齒而中風，被告知也許永遠無法再走路。可是兩個月後他憑著自己的力量離開醫院，而他的兒子就像大部份看到自己兒子成功的父親一樣，也感到與有榮焉。Lewis向他的父親看齊，可是他自己的故事也足以激勵人心。他已經三次入選Pro Bowl，但是在這份全國橄欖球聯盟（NFL）的榮耀背後，他卻是以BYU橄欖球隊的臨時隊員起家，在大學生涯中擔任22場球賽的開場球員，接到111次傳球。由於未被點召，Lewis在1997年和老鷹隊簽了一紙新人的自由經紀合約，在第一季四次觸地得分。之後的一年內Lewis連續兩次被球隊放棄（費城隊和聖路易隊），可是他並不氣餒，仍舊全神貫注，勇往直前。他在1999年11月17日重返費城，贏得三次Pro Bowl席次，並在2000年12月23日獲得四年的續約。

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Made his third consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl in 2002 with 42 receptions, 398 yards, 3 TDs
- Was a reliable target for backup QBs Koy Detmer and A.J. Feeley during the final 6 regular season games of 2002 (17-198 receiving)
- Caught 5 passes for 41 yds., highlighted by a 6-yd. TD pass from A.J. Feeley, at SF (11/25/02). Also filled in at holder when QB Koy Detmer went down with a dislocated left elbow
- Returned to the Pro Bowl for the 2nd consecutive year following a 41 reception, 422 yd., 6 TD (career-high) performance in 2001. Also earned second team All-NFL honors from AP
- In the NFC East Division-clinching win vs. NYG (12/30/01) went 5-53 receiving on the Eagles first possession, including a 5-yd. TD catch. With the Eagles trailing late in the 4th qtr., snagged a 7-yd. TD pass tying the score at 21 with 1:49 remaining. Posted season-highs in every category (7-74-2TDs)
- Went 12-145 receiving in the 2001 playoffs, including a 16-yd. TD catch vs. TB in the NFC Wild Card game (1/12/02)
- In 2000, led the team and all NFC tight ends with 69 catches for 735 yards. Those totals were the most by an Eagles TE since Keith Jackson (81-869-6TDs) in 1988. He became the first Eagles TE to exceed the 50-catch plateau since Jackson's 63 in '89
- Grabbed 3 passes in OT vs. Dal. (11/5/00) to set up a game-winning FG in a 16-13 victory
- His career-long 52-yard catch on the opening drive at Cle. (12/10/00) set up the Eagles first score and his first career 100-yard receiving day (5-100)
- Was claimed off waivers by Phi. from StL on 11/17/99. In his first game back with the Eagles vs. Ind. (11/21/99), grabbed a 6-yd. TD pass from McNabb (it was McNabb's first career TD pass)
- Played in two contests with the Eagles in 1998 before being released on 9/15. Was signed by the Rams on 12/9, but was deactivated for their final three contests
- Made the Eagles in 1997 as an undrafted, 25-year old free agent and hauled in 4 TDs on 12 recepts.

- His 8-yd. TD grab from Rodney Peete vs. Dal. (10/26/97) tied the game with 0:45 left before Chris Boniol's PAT gave the Eagles a 13-12 victory

A hard-hitting safety that showed a penchant for making big plays, Lewis enters his first season as the Eagles starting strong safety. In 2002, he made the most of his limited action as a rookie, logging 42 tackles and 1 sack, while having a hand in 7 take-aways (3 forced fumbles, 3 fumble recoveries, and an interception). Regarded as a first round talent heading into the 2002 draft, Lewis was diagnosed with a heart condition while at Colorado and was subsequently taken off some teams draft boards. The Eagles medical staff extensively researched Lewis' condition and deemed him healthy to play. Diagnosed with lone atrial fibrillation (rapid heartbeat), Lewis says he has never been limited by this condition. "It has never bothered me. I can play 120 plays, whatever. It's not a problem for me. I have passed every conditioning test, no problem."

BIRDSEED:

- Filmed a public service announcement for the American Heart Association for Stroke Awareness month (May). "When I learned I had atrial fibrilation I was nervous and scared because I knew nothing about it. I want people to know that heart disease is something that can be treated. You can live a normal life and do everything you dream of as long as you take care of yourself."

- Full name: Michael Milton Lewis

COLLEGE:

A mainstay at strong safety since his freshman year, he twice won the school's Dave Jones Award for the most outstanding defensive player and the Hale Irwin Award for the most outstanding defensive back in his junior and senior seasons. Closed out his career ranked 9th on the school's all-time list with 336 tackles (2nd-best among defensive backs), 2nd in forced fumbles (10) and tied for 12th with 9 INTs. His 6.5 career sacks are a Colorado record for DBs. As a senior, was a unanimous All-Big XII Conference first-team choice, earned third team All-America honors, and was a semi-finalist for the Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back. 71 JERMANE MAYBERRY

Position: Guard/Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-4, 325
Born: 8/29/73 in Floresville, TX
College: Texas A&M-Kingsville
High School: Floresville, Floresville, TX
NFL Experience: 8th (8th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D1-96 (25th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Jermane Mayberry has quietly gone about his business as a solid performer on the Eagles offensive line over the last seven years. But quiet is not necessarily a bad thing for an offensive lineman. Said offensive coordinator Brad Childress in 2002, "You know an offensive lineman is playing well is when you're not talking about him. And we're not talking about Jermane. That tells you something." Last year, Mayberry had a plethora of players and coaches doing the talking about his play when he was voted as a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. He became the first Eagles guard to earn Pro Bowl honors since 1957 (Buck Lansford). Mayberry, who suffered from an underdeveloped optic nerve in his left eye, is an All-Pro off the field as the founder of the Eagles Eye Mobile, a vision-testing program that has touched thousands of children in the Philadelphia region.

Mayberry opened a frozen treats shop called "J Berries" in his hometown of Floresville, TX. His brother Chris runs the shop which serves water ice, gelatis and smoothies. Mayberry also sponsors scholarships to local high school students through the shop

BIRDSEED:

- Has started 79 of the 95 regular season games he has appeared in (48 at RG, 17 at LT, 10 at LG, and 4 at RT)
- The offensive line of LT Tra Thomas, LG John Welbourn, C Hank Fraley, RG Jermane Mayberry, and RT Jon Runyan enter their third season together. Only once have the Eagles had a unit play together for that long a spell – the 1981-83 unit consisting of LT Stan Walters, LG Steve Kenney, C Guy Morriss, RG Ron Baker, and RT Jerry Sisemore

SEEING IS BELIEVING

Having suffered from amblyopia (an underdeveloped optic nerve in his left eye) throughout his life, Jermane contributed $117,500 to help start a vision-testing program sponsored by Eagles Youth Partnership, the charitable wing of the Eagles.

This program, which has operated in conjunction with Wills Eye Hospital of Philadelphia since 1996, circulates the Eagles Eye Mobile (a 36-foot, mobile vision clinic) to Philadelphia-area schools during the football season. Over the past seven falls, more than 7,750 students have been provided with free on-site eye exams. More than half of those students received free prescription eyeglasses, while many other children were referred to Wills Eye Hospital for treatment of more serious eye ailments. This year the Eagles Eye Mobile will provide eye exams to children year round with a new partner, St. Christopher's Children's Hospital.

For his efforts, Mayberry received the NFL's Extra Effort Award for the month of Dec. 1996. In subsequent years, Mayberry's work in conjunction with the Eye Mobile has earned him special recognition from Prevent Blindness Massachusetts (1998), the Philadelphia Chapter of the NFL Alumni Association (1999), The Sporting News (1999), and The Helen Keller Achievement Award (2003) presented by the American Foundation for the Blind.

- Started his college career as a non-scholarship player at Texas A&M-Kingsville. To help pay for his tuition, he worked in the school library for his first year until receiving a scholarship in 1994
- Was coached in college by current Eagles offensive line coach Juan Castillo. Formerly Texas A&I University, this outstanding Division II program has produced NFL players such as Gene Upshaw, John Randle, Darrell Green, Johnny Bailey, Earl Dotson, and former Eagles Heath Sherman and Al Harris

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A first-time Pro Bowl selection in 2002, was named a starter on the NFC squad. Was the first Eagles guard to be named to the Pro Bowl since Buck Lansford in 1957. He, LT Tra Thomas, and RT Jon Runyan were the first trio of Eagles offensive linemen to ever go to the Pro Bowl in one season
- Earned All-Pro honors by the Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, College and Pro Football Newsweekly and Football Digest and All-NFC honors by Pro Football Weekly

- The 2002 offensive line allowed the team's lowest sack total (36) in a 16-game season since 1981 (22)
- In 2000 was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination. As such, the Eagles were just one of four clubs to have the unit stay intact throughout the season and, since the NFL went to a 16-game schedule in 1978, became the first Philadelphia team to accomplish that feat
- Signed a 4-year contract extension on 12/23/00
- Entered 1999 training camp as the starting RT, but when John Welbourn took over that spot late in the preseason, shifted to RG. However, when Welbourn went down with a season-ending knee injury on opening day, Mayberry moved back to right tackle
- Rotated with Lonnie Palelei at RT in games 7-10, 12-14 and 16 in '99, after missing 3 games (hamstring). Replaced an injured Palelei (knee) in game 10 and started game 11 at RT. Also started at RT in game 15
- In 1997, won the starting LT spot in training camp after a battle with incumbent Barrett Brooks and was the only offensive lineman to play every snap

Mayberry with the EYP Eye Mobile.

- In 1996, was slated to be the Eagles starter at LT but a preseason bout with pneumonia caused him to be deactivated for the first five games. He saw his first game action on special teams in games 7-8

5 DONOVAN MCNABB

Position: Quarterback
Height, Weight: 6-2, 240
Born: 11/25/76 in Chicago, IL
College: Syracuse
High School: Mount Carmel, Chicago, IL
NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D1-99 (2nd selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A multi-dimensional threat from the quarterback position, Donovan McNabb can make plays with his arm, his feet, his strength, his toughness, and his creativity. His leadership and play-making ability has helped raise the standards of success of this franchise since 1999, when the Eagles chose him with the 2nd overall pick in the draft. Along the way, McNabb has become one of the NFL's most recognizable and elite players and was rewarded with a lucrative, 12-year contract extension in 2002. A three-time Pro Bowler who has led the Eagles to two NFC Championship game appearances and more postseason wins (4) than any other quarterback in team history, the youthful McNabb has his eyes trained on even loftier goals. Along with his production on the field, his personality, leadership skills, sense of humor, hard-work ethic and attitude all add up to give Philadelphia one of the most well-rounded athletes in sports. "I play this game to be the best," said McNabb. "And the only sure way I know to be the best is to outwork everybody else. Some people take one step toward their dream, accomplish a little something and then feel like that's it. Not me. I'm never satisfied."

BIRDSEED:

- His mother, Wilma, was told by his coaches growing up that he was always clowning around. Says Wilma, "That's Donovan's way. He wants to have fun. He told me, 'Mom, if I can't have fun doing something. What's the point of doing it.'" Behind closed doors, McNabb does great impersonations, including head coach Andy Reid and defensive coordinator Jim Johnson
- Becames the youngest person ever elected to the Board of Trustees at Syracuse in 2002
- Dresses up as Santa Claus each year before Christmas to deliver toys and entertain kids. When asked by a child if he plays football, Santa replied, "Yeah, every now and then. We get it going up there in the North Pole."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Among active starting quarterbacks with at least 45 starts, ranks tied for 3rd with a .646 winning percentage

OPERATION DESERT STORM

Truly one of the hardest working players in the league, McNabb and his offseason workouts at MakePlays.com in Phoenix, Arizona, are becoming legendary. Besides honing his football skills, McNabb can be found fine-tuning all parts of his body with weight training, running, Pilates, agility drills with dog toys, as well as vision training. To help his eyes process information at a faster rate, McNabb dons a pair of "strobe specs" or "Star Trek glasses" (as McNabb calls them) and goes through simulated football situations, such as finding receivers or picking up oncoming blitzers.

"The good quarterbacks are probably like fighter pilots," said Eagles coach Andy Reid. "You always heard Ted Williams talk about this with his hitting. The fighter pilots have that extra sense of feeling what's going on around them and then they can react calmly in stressful times."

The Donovan McNabb Foundation

The Donovan McNabb Foundation raises awareness of diabetes through Donovan's position as the national spokesman for the American Diabetes Association. Through the foundation, he has also donated hundreds of thousands of dollars to Mt. Carmel HS and Syracuse. During the Eagles bye week in 2002, he and his immediate family, participated in the Diabetes Walk to raise awareness and funds.

- Became the 5th QB since 1970 to rush for TDs in four straight games in 2002. The others: Kordell Stewart (1997), Jeff Hostetler (1993), Pat Haden (1976), and Greg Landry (1972)

FIVE'S FACE VALUE

After finishing as the runner-up for the league MVP honors in 2000 and leading his team to back-to-back NFC Championship games, McNabb has become one of the NFL's most recognizable faces and spokesmen.

"All of the things off the field are just a dream come true and what I'm doing now is reality, playing football," said McNabb. "All of the things off of the field come from your success on the field."

87 Todd Pinkston

Position: Wide Receiver
Height, Weight: 6-2, 174
Born: 4/23/77 in Forest, MS
College: Southern Mississippi
High School: Forest, Forest, MS
NFL Experience: 4th (4th as an Eagle)

Vince Lombardi once said, "Confidence is contagious." That phrase best describes the rapid development of Todd Pinkston, the speedy 2nd round pick in 2000. After a grueling training camp as a rookie, when veteran corners Troy Vincent, Bobby Taylor, and Al Harris pounded on the wiry rookie rep after rep, Pinkston worked extremely hard to become a dependable, big-play target for the Eagles offense. His reception total has grown from 10 in 2000, to 42 in 2001, to a team-leading 60 in 2002, including 7 touchdowns. "He is a guy who has gotten better each year and this year he has come into his own," said Fox Sports analyst Troy Aikman during the 2002 season. "He finally has an understanding of what Andy Reid is asking of him in the offense."

BIRDSEED:

- His father, Roy, was a middle school football and basketball coach and now coaches basketball at Forest HS. Inspired by his father, he would like to one day follow his footsteps and become a football coach at the high school level

Pinkston keeps track of the children's progress by reviewing their progress reports and report cards throughout the year, even when he is in Philadelphia.

College: Michigan State
High School: Aiken, Cincinnati, OH
NFL Experience: 6th (6th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D5-98 (142nd overall selection)

A proven commodity on special teams throughout his Eagles career, Reese has also developed into a valuable asset on defense as a nickel linebacker and top reserve at each position. A fifth round draft choice in 1998, the personable Reese has been a vocal and emotional leader of the special teams units and his production backs it up (team-leading 87 tackles from 1998-2002). In 2002, Reese started 3 games and registered a career-high 73 stops on defense. "Whatever they ask me to do – if that is on special teams or whatever – I will be ready," said Reese, who has not missed a regular season game in his career. "That's my job."

BIRDSEED:

- Credits his 10th and 11th grade math teacher, Karen Buckmeier, as being a huge influence in his life. "She was on me all the time," said Reese. "I had to move on to the 12th grade as fast as possible to escape the constant riding. But it was good for me. I wouldn't be anywhere close to where I am today without her."
- Enjoys reading tabloids such as Star and The Enquirer
- Has played in 80 consecutive regular season games as an Eagle – the longest active streak (Reese missed three post-season games due to a foot injury suffered in the 2001 season finale)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Led the Eagles with 87 special teams tackles from 1998-2002
- Finished the 2002 season with a career-high 73 tackles
- Started first three games of career in 2002 (11/3-11/17) in place of strong-side LB Carlos Emmons (hamstring)
- Collected 5 tackles and forced a fumble in Divisional playoff game vs. Atl. (1/11/03)
- Led team with a career-high 10 tackles vs. Arz. (11/17/02), including a half sack of Jake Plummer
- Ranked 4th on the special teams in tackles (20) and 3rd in production points (191) in 2001
- Rewarded with a four-year contract extension on July 31, 2001

ANALYZE THIS!

One of the most media-friendly players in the Eagles locker room, Ike Reese has set his eyes on joining the broadcast booth when his playing days are over.

"Sometimes when I'm watching a game I really like just listening to the analysts," said Reese. "Bob Costas and Al Michaels have to be my all-time favorites. I like listening to the newer guys like Troy Aikman and Daryl Johnston (FOX). Tom Tolbert and Greg Anthony do a great job with the NBA."

Reese's interests, though, are not limited to the gridiron as he is an extremely knowledgeable sports fan. Maybe we'll see him someday with Michael Wilbon and Tony Kornheiser on his favorite TV show, "Pardon The Interruption."

Exhibiting his strong relationship with the media, Reese was presented the 2002 Jack Edelstein Memorial Award, which is selected by the Philadelphia media. The award is given annually to the Eagles player with an uplifting manner, a love for life, and an exceptional sense of humor who makes all with whom he comes in contact with, feel good.

- In 2000, tied for the team lead in production points with 218 and tied for 3rd on the team in special teams tackles with 25
- Forced a fumble by PR Deion Sanders vs. Wash (10/8/00) that was recovered by the Eagles
- With injuries to DE's Hugh Douglas and Al Wallace in 1999, Reese served as a DE in certain defensive packages and tied for 3rd on the team with 3 sacks
- Posted his first career sack at NYG (Kent Graham – 10/3/99) and then another of Graham in the 2nd meeting vs. the Giants (10/31/99)
- As a rookie season, saw plenty of action in the nickel defense packages throughout the last few weeks of the season. Was used as a DE at Dal. (10/20/98)

- Attended Woodard HS in Cincinnati before transferring to nearby Aiken HS as a sophomore
- In the 2002 offseason, sponsored and hosted two AAU basketball teams from Cincinnati to travel to Philadelphia for the Charlie Webber Invitational tournament at Villanova. Thanks to Reese, both the Queen City Prophets 16-and-under and 17-and-under AAU basketball teams participated in the 3-day tournament, which features some of the country's top high school basketball talent
- A golfer in the offseason, he participated in the 2002 NFL Golf Classic and played with two-time U.S. Open Champ Andy North
- In 2001, participated in the annual New York Fashion Week in Bryant Park as a runway model for designer Francis Hendy

48 JON RITCHIE

Position: Fullback
Height, Weight: 6-2, 250
Born: 9/4/74 in Mechanicsburg, PA
College: Stanford
High School: Cumberland Valley, Mechanicsburg, PA
NFL Experience: 6th (1st as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Oak) 2003
Originally joined NFL: D3-98 by Raiders (63rd selection overall)

A gritty, hard-nosed fullback, Jon Ritchie will bring a steady dose of toughness to the Eagles backfield after inking a two-year contract on 3/7/03. Ritchie's signing marks a homecoming of sorts for the native of Mechanicsburg, PA, which lies 90 miles west of Philadelphia. "Hey, I still have a valid Pennsylvania driver's license," Ritchie said. "It's such a cool opportunity - to be going back home to join a great team in a great city where I'm going to have a chance to play a good amount." A 3rd round draft choice of the Raiders in 1998, Ritchie spent his first 5 seasons in the Bay Area, playing in one of the most prolific offenses in the NFL. The personable Ritchie also has many talents and interests off the field, including a love of music as well as writing. An avid guitar player and saxophonist, Ritchie is a self-proclaimed rock groupie and aspires to form a band when his playing days are over. "I'm still looking for a drummer."

HEAD CASE

Made famous by the calcium deposits on his forehead that left blood gushing down his face on gameday, Ritchie is in search of an answer to the weekly blood loss. This offseason he was sent to the Riddell plant in Chicago by Eagles head equipment manager, John Hatfield, to have a new helmet custom made.

"I have a short, ugly-shaped head," said Ritchie. "Hopefully, the custom-made padding in the front of this helmet will cut down on impact and the bleeding."

The changes in the padding include the molding of the front section in the helmet to tightly fit the shape and slant of his forehead. The padding on the sides of the helmet have also been custom fit to the width of his head to reduce any movement.

When Ritchie's playing days are over he intends on having the "horns" that have made him famous, shaved down.

"I could get them shaved down now, but why? As long as I keep playing they'll just grow back."

BIRDSEED:

- Graduated from Stanford with a degree in English. Upon his graduation needed just one class in art history, one in psychology and one in sociology to earn minors in each. His interest in English was instilled in him by his mother, Georgeanne, who taught the subject for 37 years. She is now semi-retired and teaches English at a community college in the Mechanicsburg area
- Writes a column for The Sporting News entitled "I-Formation," which offered his own unique insights into football

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In his five-year Raiders career (1998-2002), played in 75 games (48 starts) and hauled in 129 passes for 1,026 yards and 4 TDs
- Scored on a 7-yd. pass from Rich Gannon vs. SD (10/20/02)
- Scored first touchdown of NFL career on Monday Night Football at Den. (11/22/99), a 20-yd. pass from Gannon
- Pulled in a career-high 8 passes for 50 yards at KC (1/2/00)
- Caught 2 passes for a career-high 51 yds. at KC (9/6/98)

MIDNIGHT GREEN DAY

Jon Ritchie's love for music far exceeds that of most NFL players. He is a fan of its history as well as its diversity having been influenced by an eclectic combination of Jimi Hendrix, Metallica, Bruce Springsteen, Johnny Cash and the Oakland-based band Green Day.

It was while with the Raiders that Ritchie began to form a close relationship with one of the best bands ever to come out of the Bay Area. Green Day, comprised of lead singer and guitarist Billy Joe, bassist Mike Dirnt and drummer Tré Cool, have helped Ritchie to further his pursuit of a post-football career in music even going so far as to let him record a song he wrote in their studio.

"Getting a chance to record in a studio with these guys was a thrill of a lifetime," recalled Ritchie. "I'm a fan of them and they're fans of football. We hit it off right away."

PERSONAL:

- On May 2, 2003, married the former Marielle Schlueter in Harrisburg, PA. The couple have since moved to Broomall. Ritchie feels that he and Marielle (pronounced MAR-ee-ell) are "the perfect compliments to each other." I am no good with any kind of math and anything that has to do with my hands. I rely on her to put stuff together." Marielle is a tremendous athlete in her own right as she qualified for the NCAA Championships while starring on the Cal-Berkeley track team. She left the school as its record-holder in the 3000m steeplechase with a time of 10:22:38.
- Was a consensus All-America selection at Cumberland Valley (PA) HS. Led his team to a state championship as a senior in 1992 and then played for the Pennsylvania squad in the "Big 33" All-Star Classic the following summer. In his career, gained 5,017 all-purpose yds., including 4,062 yards rushing and 69 TDs
- A member of the National Honor Society. Lettered in track and field as a sprinter and shot putter
- An avid traveler, went to Spain in 1992 as part of the Spanish Honor Society. Plans on visiting France where his wife has family
- Hosted a segment on the Bay Area Sports Report called "Mental Blocks"
- Plays the piano, saxophone and guitar, and enjoys writing lyrics. Performed for the Raiders Rally in Jack London Square in Oakland
- Full name: Jon D. Ritchie

COLLEGE:

Spent two seasons at Stanford after transferring from Michigan. Began at Stanford as an inside linebacker but was moved to his natural position, fullback. As a senior, carried the ball 17 times for 95 yards while also hauling in 9 passes for 80 yards and 2 TDs. Named to the PAC 10 all-academic team in 1997 and the Big 10 all-academic team in 1994. In two seasons as a Wolverine, tallied 120 rushing yards and 2 TDs on 33 carries and caught two passes for 13 yards.

69 JON RUNYAN

Position: Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-7, 330
Born: 11/27/73 in Flint, MI
College: Michigan
High School: Carman-Ainsworth, Flint, MI
NFL Experience: 8th (4th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Ten) 2000
Originally joined NFL: D4b-96 by Houston (109th selection overall)

Armed with a feisty, on-the-field mentality, Jon Runyan takes pride in being a physical force each and every time he exits the locker room. At 6-7, 330, he is trusted with protecting Donovan McNabb and his relentless, physical play has trickled down to each of his linemates. "What Jon has brought to the offensive line is that temperament of his," said Andy Reid. "He is going to maul you and beat you up and feel pretty good about doing it. That's been contagious all the way across the line." Runyan, who suited up for the NFC's Pro Bowl squad in 2002, signed a six-year contract on 2/14/00 and teams him with LT Tra Thomas (6-7, 349) to form one of the largest tackle tandems in league history. The 7th-year pro enters the 2003 season having played in 116 consecutive regular and postseason games, including 107 straight starts.

LAWN DOCTOR

If you ever get a chance to stop by the Runyan household in Mt. Laurel, NJ, chances are you'll find Jon working hard out in the yard. As his wife, Loretta, has made the inside of their beautiful home her personal project, Jon has made the grounds his baby.

"I'm a very simple man," said Runyan. "Yard work brings me down and relaxes me. It gives me something I can take pride in. Sometimes I get bored and all I have to do is walk out the door and there's something to do."

He gets all 6-foot-7, 330-pounds of himself atop his Kubota lawn tractor and handles business. Whether its chopping down trees, cutting firewood, or ripping out dams built by neighborhood beavers that have caused his lawn to flood, he'll do it. He's even looking into raising some cattle on his land and is shopping around for a good deal on fencing. He still knows his limits.

"I stay out of the flower beds," he laughed. "I don't mess with that stuff. I trust my wife when it comes to that."

BIRDSEED:

- The offensive line of LT Tra Thomas, LG John Welbourn, C Hank Fraley, RG Jermane Mayberry, and RT Jon Runyan enter their third season together. - Blocked the first FG of his career at Dal. (11/18/01)

- At Dal. (9/3/00), helped the Eagles to their first 300-yard rushing day since 11/4/90 (304 vs. NE) and RB Duce Staley to only the second 200-yard output in team history (Steve Van Buren rushed for 205 yards vs. Pittsburgh on 11/27/49)

- Played in first NFL game against Ravens (9/15/96), seeing action at left tackle in 4th qtr.

SIMON SAYS ... SUCCESS

Away from the football field, one of Simon's top priorities is the forming of the Corey Simon Success Center in Tallahassee, Fl. The center, which will be renovated from an abandoned warehouse, will host underprivileged children from that city and offer after-school and summer programs to help them enhance their education and lives in general.

"I'm building this for kids who are struggling so they can understand that there's a way out," says Simon, who hopes to officially open the 40,000 square foot center in June, 2004. "Just being able to let them know and teach them how to get out of their rut and let them understand that their calling is bigger than the front yard of their neighborhood. And giving them the tools necessary to go out there and succeed in life. This was something that was given to me, so it was only fitting for me to do everything in my power to make it happen for them.

Simon spent a great amount of time this past offseason with architects and engineers, working on the re-zoning details and making sure the building is structurally sound. His dream is closing in on reality.

"This is something God put in my heart a while ago. My wife and I definitely have a heart for kids and we want to see this next generation succeed."

In one of the most underrated moves of the 2003 offseason, the Eagles bolstered their defense with the addition of Mark Simoneau, a speedy and tough linebacker, who spent his first three NFL seasons with Atlanta. In return, the Eagles sent a 6th round draft pick in 2003 and a 4th rounder in 2004 to the Falcons. "Mark is a downhill player and he fits in very well with our attacking scheme," head coach Andy Reid said after signing Simoneau to a five-year contract on 3/4/03. A 3rd round draft choice of the Falcons in 2000, he lined up as an inside and outside linebacker and notched 107 tackles in nine starts.

79 JEREMY SLECHTA

Position: Defensive Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-6, 285
Born: 5/12/80 in LaVista, NE
College: Nebraska
High School: Papillion-LaVista, LaVista, NE
NFL Experience: 2nd (2nd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Signed as a rookie free agent in 2002
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Signed as a free agent by the Eagles after the 2002 draft, Slechta performed admirably in training camp and in the preseason to earn a roster spot early in his rookie season. Ended up playing in 13 regular season games and both playoff contests as he added depth at defensive tackle.

BIRDSEED:

- During the offseason, visits his father, Richard (a retired construction worker), in a small town in northern Nebraska named Verdel (population 59). In fact, he inherited a couple of acres of land of his own in Verdel. While there, he and his dad partake in hunting and fishing. "I like freshwater fishing, bass, catfish, and crappie," said Slechta. "I also like to hunt snow geese, which are considered a nuisance in Nebraska. They trample over and ruin everything. I once killed 31 of them in one day."
- After his playing days are over, aspires to become a sales rep or dealer for an outdoors company (John Deere, are you reading this?), possibly selling farming equipment or seeding supplies in Nebraska

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started the 2002 season on the practice squad before being promoted to the active roster on 9/26
- Became one of three rookie free agents to end the 2002 season on the active roster (LB Justin Ena and T Artis Hicks)
- Collected 3 tackles in extended backup duty at Jax. (10/6/02) as Simon was injured (ankle)

PERSONAL:

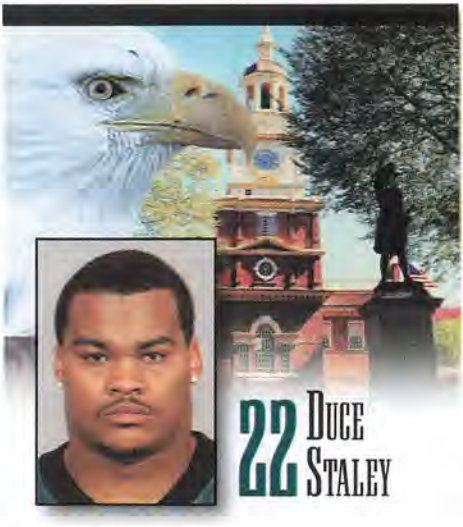

- Engaged to Beth McCoy and the couple are set to be married on March 20, 2004
- Has a degree in communications
- Attended Papillion-LaVista (NE) HS, where he lettered in football and basketball
- Full name: Jeremy James Slechta
- Is a huge fan of The Simpsons, especially Homer Simpson
- Also enjoys golf and NASCAR. In fact, attended his first race in 2002 in Dover, Delaware. He spent time in the pits and the garage on race day and during the time trials. His two favorite racers are Dale Earnhardt, Jr. and Bobby Labonte

COLLEGE:

A four-year letterman, started 17 games, including 13 as a senior. Was a defensive captain and a second-team all-Big 12 selection as a senior when Nebraska posted an 11-2 record and played in the 2001 BCS National Championship Game. Totaled 97 tackles in 38 career games, including 6 sacks and 14 tackles for a loss.

22 DUCE STALEY

Position: Running Back
Height, Weight: 5-11, 220
Born: 2/27/75 in Tampa, FL
College: South Carolina
High School: Airport, Columbia, SC
NFL Experience: 7th (7th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D3-97 (71st selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

The resilient Staley has been a model of consistency and toughness for the Eagles locker room. Throughout his six-year career, the strong legged and sure-handed running back has endured a great amount of pain to perform so admirably each Sunday. From a painful hernia in 1998, to a Lis Franc sprain (foot) in 2000, to a shoulder injury in 2001, Staley keeps coming back, stronger than ever. Nicknamed "Buddy Lee" (the indestructible Lee Dungarees character) by his teammates, Staley was a force in 2002. Voted by his teammates as the offensive MVP, he recorded his third 1,000-yard rushing season and became the 2nd Eagles back to top the 1,000-yd. rushing mark and 500-yard receiving plateau in a single season. "He's a leader on this football team." said Andy Reid. "You talk about an all-purpose running back. You are looking at a great one right here. He can do it all."

Formed the Duce Staley Foundation in 1999 to benefit disadvantaged children through athletics, education and healthcare. Has raised money for the foundation through annual celebrity fashion shows, bowling tournaments, and a football camp

According to Eagles athletic trainer Rick Burkholder, the derivation of the unique name of the injury goes way back in history to the days of Napoleon, whose surgeon was named Lis Franc. The injury is common in horseback riding accidents when a rider's foot is caught in the stirrup after being thrown from a horse. Was inactive for one game before being placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/10/01 after undergoing surgery by Dr. Evan Ekman in SC. Played the entire 1998 season with a hernia.

21 Bobby Taylor

Position: Cornerback
Height, Weight: 6-3, 216
Born: 12/28/73 in Houston, TX
College: Notre Dame
High School: Longview, Longview, TX
NFL Experience: 9th (9th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D2a-95 (50th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A key component of one of the league's most feared defensive backfields, Bobby Taylor has always seemed to live in the large shadows cast by Pro Bowl selections Troy Vincent and Brian Dawkins. That was the case until 2002, when Taylor earned a well-deserved spot on the NFC Pro Bowl squad after leading the club with a career-high 5 interceptions. Although the recognition may have lacked in the past, the respect he earned in his own locker room did not. "Bobby has always been an excellent player, and everybody knows that," Vincent said in 2002. "But now he's making the plays that show up on SportsCenter and that's the kind of notoriety that attracts the attention of the Pro Bowl voters." Taylor has been a staple at RCB for the Eagles since 1995 and uses his size, strength, and intelligence extremely well against the league's biggest and strongest receivers.

BIRDSEED:

- After he signed his first NFL contract, his first purchase was a house in Texas and a car for his mother. Said Taylor, "My main happiness is in seeing my mother and my sister in a nice neighborhood and that my sister has had the opportunity to go to good schools"

eltekon

Taylor is a principle partner in Eltekon with teammate Troy Vincent and former Eagles Cris Carter and Mike Caldwell. The company provides a comprehensive financial services offering, where principle and prosperity matter. To read more about the company log on to www.eltekon.com

- Drafted in 1995, he is currently the longest tenured Eagle. He has played in 112 games with 102 starts

- Led the team and ranked 2nd in the NFL in 2002 with a career-high 5 INTs. Also tied for 3rd in the NFL in total take-aways (7)
- Intercepted Bucs QB Brad Johnson vs. TB (1/19/03) in the NFC Championship game

- Was part of a secondary that allowed the lowest passing yards per game (179.0) in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL in 2001. The unit also tied for the 2nd lowest passing TD total allowed in the league

- Ranked 2nd on the team in knockdowns with 15, while forcing 3 fumbles and recovering another 3 in 2001
- Helped hold the Seahawks to just 21 yds. passing (9/23/01), the lowest allowed by an Eagles defense in over 30 years
- Picked off Kordell Stewart and raced a regular season career-long 38 yards to set up the game's first score at Pit. (11/12/00)
- Intercepted former Eagle Doug Pederson at the PE 3 with 50 seconds remaining to seal 35-24 playoff-clinching win at Cle. (12/10/00)
- Was directly responsible for 7 of the Eagles league-best 46 take-aways in 1999, including 4 INTs. Had 1 INT against each of the four NFC East foes
- Had an 18-yd. INT return off of Kent Graham for his first career TD at NYG (10/31/99)
- Earned a spot on the NFL's All-Rookie team in '95
- Twice garnered NFC defensive player of the week honors in December 1995 - first holding Cowboys all-pro Michael Irvin to just 3 catches in a win over Dal. (12/10) - when he also broke up two Troy Aikman-to-Irvin bombs on the Cowboys final series - and then after putting the clamps on Lions all-pro Herman Moore in a playoff win vs. Det. (12/30)
- Logged his first INT at Dal. (11/6/95) when he picked off QB Troy Aikman and returned the ball 35 yards

Hollis Thomas has never taken the easy road during his NFL career. Proving himself year after year has become common practice for this stout defensive tackle. This year will be no different for Thomas, who has battled foot injuries over the last two seasons. Having not played a game since December 22, 2001, Thomas is poised to make people aware of this accomplished run stuffer. An unheralded player from a small Division I-A program, Thomas had to prove himself just to get a shot at the NFL. In order to find himself a spot in a training camp as a rookie free agent in 1996, Thomas actually had to pursue teams. After landing in Philadelphia, he went on to earn NFL All-Rookie Team honors in '96.

BIRDSEED:

- Spends time speaking out in local schools and groups about Asthma Awareness, a condition that he found out he suffers from at the age of 19. Appeared at World Asthma Day on May 6, 2003, in Philadelphia
- Is an avid collector of shoes and DVD movies. Owns more than 500 movies, including his favorite, "Friday," and over 275 pairs of shoes

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Helped hold RB Marshall Faulk to just 72 yds. rushing vs. StL (9/9/01), 20 yds. below his season avg.
- Recovered a Michael Pittman fumble in the red zone, squelching a Cardinals scoring opportunity at Arz. (11/4/01)
- Limited the Chargers LaDainian Tomlinson to 51-yds. rushing and also forced him to fumble in the 4th qtr. vs. SD (12/9/01)
- Celebrated a five-year contract extension signed on 9/19/00 at NO (9/24) with a sack and 7 tackles, two that resulted in fumbles by Ricky Williams (both recovered by the Eagles)
- Sacked Shaun King and helped hold Pro Bowl RB Warrick Dunn to one-yard rushing in 8 att. in the Wild Card game victory over TB (12/31/00)
- Posted a career-high 5 sacks in 1998 including a career-best 2 sacks vs. Was. (10/11)
- Tied MLB James Willis for the club lead with a career-high 82 tackles in 1997 and was named to the NFL's All-Underrated team
- As a rookie free agent in 1996, not only made the squad but went on to start the final five games of the season and cap his first pro campaign by earning NFL All-Rookie Team honors from Football News

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in Morton, PA and in Missouri, TX. In Texas has a new four-bedroom house just outside of Houston. His first-floor master bedroom consists of a hidden stairway behind a bookcase that leads to a home theatre on the 2nd floor
- Has a daughter, Hydeia (1/22/97)
- Participated in the 2001 "NFL 101" seminar to help teach the X's and O's of football to women from around the Philadelphia area

HOLLIS' HIP HOP

First impressed the Eagles with a home-made college highlight tape that showed him wrecking havoc on the field set to rap music courtesy of Eric B & Rakim (I Ain't No Joke and How Can I Move the Crowd?). He sent the tape to every NFL team.

WHAT TANK DRIVES

Thomas was pictured on the front page of the April 11, 2002 edition of the Philadelphia Daily News posing with BMW's latest automobile, the Mini Cooper. The defensive tackle dwarfed the two-door hatch-back. Thomas attempted to test drive the car but realized it had a manual transmission. How odd is it to find a car collector unable to drive stick!

With seven cars, Thomas is currently in 2nd place behind Tra Thomas (8) for the team's largest car collection. Here's his latest list:

- 2002 Lincoln Blackwood
- 2002 Lexus SC 430
- 2002 Mercedes Benz S500
- 1995 Chevrolet Capri
- 1995 Cadillac Fleetwood
- 1972 Cutlass 442
- 1969 Chevrolet Impala

- For four seasons (1999-2001) hosted "Inside the Eagles," a weekly program broadcast each Saturday during the season . During his tenure as host, the show received 15 Emmy nominations. In fact, a piece that Thomas hosted from his 2000 off-season conditioning program in Ft. Lauderdale, FL, received best sports feature honors
- Thomas spent a morning visiting the Trenton (NJ) Mercer County Airport Army National Guard base in April of 2002. He met the troops, signed autographs, and got to ride in a Blackhawk helicopter
- Hosts an annual football camp in St. Louis. The camp is free of charge for the children and consists of a free asthma test
- Won two 4A state championships in football at Sumner (MO) HS, although he actually attended and graduated from Academy of Math and Science in nearby St. Louis which did not field a football team. Lettered in basketball, however, at Math & Science
- Is a fan of fish that prey and had eight piranha while in college.
- Also enjoys video games, traveling, shopping, and cooking. His parents are both chefs. Mrs. Thomas prepared a feast for the team when it traveled to his hometown of St. Louis for the NFC Championship game in 2001
- Is a movie buff who once served as a celebrity critic for the Philadelphia Daily News in 2001
- Favorites: Friday (movie), Drew Carey (TV show), his father's lasagna (food), Frosted Flakes (cereal), Chris Tucker (actor), Theresa Randall (actress), South Park (cartoon), St. Louis Cardinals (non-football team) and "Practice doesn't make perfect, practicing the right way makes perfect" (quote)
- Was a child development major in college
- Names Bruce Smith and "Mean" Joe Greene as his boyhood idols
- Purchased a house and Mercedes Benz for his mother and one day would like to purchase a restaurant for his father, Jerome King, who is a chef in St. Louis
- Has 3 younger brothers, Cymandric, Jerome, and Biongo, and one sister, Maxine. Biongo graduated from Lane College in Tennessee after receiving a scholarship from NASA, where he works during the summers. NASA has also agreed to pay for his graduate school at a college of his choice
- Full name: Hollis Thomas

COLLEGE:

Completed his three-year Northern Illinois career with 202 tackles, including 31 stops for losses. Shared the NIU captainship as a senior, when he was selected to both the Football News and coaches' first-team All-Big West Conference squad.

72 TRA THOMAS

Position: Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-7, 349
Born: 11/20/74 in Deland, FL
College: Florida State
High School: Deland, Deland, FL
NFL Experience: 6th (6th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D1-98 (11th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Big Tra Thomas has made a nice living out of being Donovan McNabb's blindside bodyguard. One of the most accomplished left tackles in his profession, and perhaps in Eagles history, Thomas has been to the last two Pro Bowls, including last year as a starter. A mainstay at the left tackle spot since being selected in the first round in 1998, Thomas is not about to rest on his laurels. His goals are much loftier, "I want to be the league MVP as an offensive lineman. I want to get nine or 10 Pro Bowls under my belt. When people talk about the greatest linemen of all time, they talk about Anthony Munoz and Art Shell and Bob Brown. I want my name in there, too."

BIRDSEED:

- The offensive line of Thomas, LG John Welbourn, C Hank Fraley, RG Jermane Mayberry, and RT Jon Runyan enter their third season together. Only once have the Eagles had a unit play together for that long a spell – the 1981-83 unit consisting of LT Stan Walters, LG Steve Kenney, C Guy Morriss, RG Ron Baker, and RT Jerry Sizemore
- Said Thomas when asked how he would describe the Eagles offensive line, "We're a dirty group. I don't think people like us too much. We're a dirty, physical group. I think people know that when they come to play us, it's not going to be much fun."
- "Tra Thomas, a real masher for the Eagles, and the Rams Orlando Pace are the best people-movers in the game," said Sports Illustrated's Peter King
- Invested in 11 rental properties in Florida (3) and Philadelphia (8). His interest in the music industry influenced him to build a recording studio in the basement of his home in Florida
- Thomas became a partner in "Philadelphia Sam's," a cheesesteak shop located at 2nd and Chestnut St.'s in the "Old City" section of Philadelphia, during 2001. In the 2003 offseason the shop was closed for remodeling and will be re-opening with a new name, "Tra's." "It's a solid first investment," said Thomas. "Plus I like to go in, hang out, have a really good cheesesteak and check the receipts."
- Organized an annual scholarship fund at his alma mater, Deland (FL) HS, which benefits deserving, minority students. There are five, $5,000 scholarships given annually. He also participates in a book club and toy drive at Deland
- Participated in the development of an exhibit at the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia called "Sports Challenge." A plaster mold of his head was made and a life-size statue was erected of Thomas pouring a Gatorade bucket in a post game celebration

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- A two-time Pro Bowl selection (2002 and 2003), was a first-time starter on the '03 NFC squad. He, RT Jon Runyan, and RG Jermane Mayberry were the first trio of Eagles offensive linemen to ever go to the Pro Bowl in one season
- Also an All-Pro selection in 2002 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, USA Today Sports Weekly. Was also named All-NFC by Pro Football Weekly
- Started all 16 games in 2002 and helped pave the way for the league's 4th-highest scoring offense (25.9 pts./game), the best output in team history (415)

SLIDIN' ON THROUGH HIS GARAGE

Tra Thomas is just ahead of Hollis Thomas (7) as the Eagles leading car collector with 8 vehicles. Here's his latest stable:

- Mercedes SL 500
- 2002 BMW X5
- Hummer H2
- Ford F-350 Dually
- 1966 Pontiac GTO Convertible
- 1967 Chevrolet Impala Convertible
- 1970 Buick 225 Electra Convertible
- 1973 Chevy Caprice Classic Convertible

Thomas also owns two four-wheel all terrain vehicles: a Raptor 650, and a Bombardier 650

- Helped Duce Staley notch his 3rd career 1,000-yd rushing season in 2002
- The 2002 offensive line allowed the team's lowest sack total (36) in a 16-game season since 1981 (22)
- Made his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2001 season. Was originally selected as the first alternate behind the Rams Orlando Pace (starter), the Redskins Chris Samuels (starter) and the Bears James Williams (reserve). When Pace withdrew from the game due to injury, Thomas filled in just days before the game.
- Missed the first game of his career, at TB (1/6/02) as many starters were rested
- Helped RB Correll Buckhalter to a team rookie rushing record 134 yds. vs. Arz. (10/7/01). Buckhalter, (129-586) also broke the Eagles single-season rookie rushing record set by Keith Byars (177-577) in 1986
- In 2000, was selected as the first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl squad behind Pace, William Roaf, and Korey Stringer
- Was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination in 2000. As such, the Eagles were just one of four clubs to have the unit stay intact throughout the season and, since the NFL went to a 16 game schedule in 1978, became the first Philadelphia team to accomplish that feat
- Helped open up holes during one of the greatest rushing performances in club history as RB Duce Staley gained 201 yds. in the season opening win at Dal. (9/3/00) and the Eagles, as a team, ran for over 300 yds.
- Helped pave the way for Staley's consecutive 1,000-yd. rushing campaigns in 1998-99
- Earned NFL All-Rookie team honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly in 1998
- In the 4th game of his rookie season vs. KC (9/27/98), held Chiefs all-pro LB Derrick Thomas without a sack or tackle

PERSONAL:

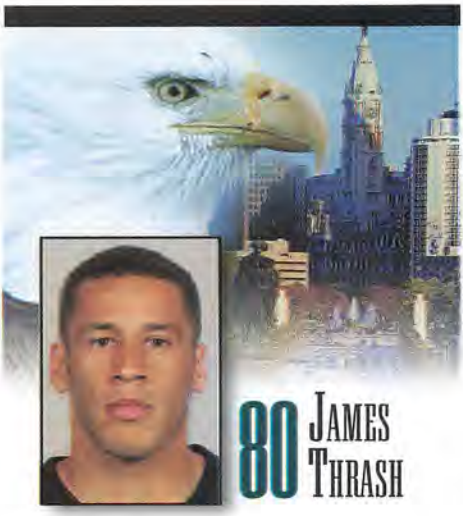

- Served as a tour guide for a child with cancer at a visit of the Eagles practice facility, the NovaCare Complex, in March of 2002
- His father, William "Crane" Thomas, was an offensive tackle at Florida A&M and attended Atlanta's training camp in 1974
- His 550-lb. bench press was a FSU record
- Majored in criminology
- Was a two-way tackle at Deland (FL) HS
- Enjoys fishing, reading, and eating peanut butter and jelly sandwiches
- List of favorites: Usual Suspects (movie), Martin (TV show), 76ers (non-football team), and Frosted Flakes (cereal)
- Full name: William Thomas III

COLLEGE:

Polished his pass blocking skills during Florida State practices against top-flight defenders such as Andre Wadsworth, Peter Boulware, Reinard Wilson, and Greg Spiers (Boulware and Wilson were NFL 1st round picks in 1997 by Baltimore and Cincinnati, respectively; Wadsworth was the third selection overall in 1998 by Arizona; and Spiers was taken in the 3rd round by New England in 1998). Played the "tight" tackle position, switching from left to right tackle in order to match up against opponents' top pass rushers. As a senior, earned 2nd team All-America honors, 1st team All-Atlantic Coast Conference recognition, and the Jacob's Trophy given to the ACC's top offensive lineman. Helped the Seminoles' offense lead the ACC and rank 8th in the nation with 452.1 total yards per game. Switched to offense after originally being recruited as a defender.

THOMAS' CAREER GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: (Eagles 1998-2002); 1998 (16/16), 1999 (16/15), 2000 (16/16), 2001 (15/15), 2002 (16/16), TOTALS: (79/78).

PLAYOFF GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 2000 (2/2), 2001 (3/3), 2002 (2/2), TOTALS: (7/7).

80 JAMES THRASH

Position: Wide Receiver
Height, Weight: 6-0, 200
Born: 4/28/75 in Denver, CO
College: Missouri Southern High School: Wewoka, Wewoka, OK
NFL Experience: 7th (3rd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (Wash) 2001
Originally joined NFL: Signed as rookie free agent by Philadelphia in 1997

A selfless player in every sense of the word, James Thrash is entering his third season in Philadelphia as a top receiving threat. Renowned for his exceptional work ethic, Thrash has traveled an interesting road to his current role with the Eagles. A native of Denver, CO, he was transplanted to tiny, Wewoka, OK, (population: 5,000) and was not even a starter on the town's high school football squad until his senior year. When Thrash reached Missouri Southern as a freshman, he was teamed with wide receiver Rod Smith, who traveled a very similar path into stardom with the Denver Broncos. A former rookie free agent signee of Philadelphia in 1997, Thrash spent four seasons in Washington before re-signing with the Eagles in 2001. What earns even more respect for Thrash than his hard work and perseverance is the type of person he is. Never do you see him speak of his own accomplishments. Never do you see him taunt another player. "I don't think about individual stats," said Thrash. "I don't look at me catching balls and making yards. All I care about is that we get a win. You can't worry about individual statistics."

BIRDSEED:

- Became a certified conditioning specialist this past offseason by the National Strength Professionals Association (NSPA) and worked a few hours a day at Gold's Gym in Leesburg, Virginia, training people from every walk of life. "It was quite a challenge to get certified," said Thrash, who balanced his own workout routine with his new job. "I had to pass a written test and a practical test in the gym. I really enjoy working with different types of people."
- Aspires to one day own and operate his own fitness center that would feature a speed and strength camp for young athletes from high school and college who are aiming for a pro career. What would make his gym unique is to offer spiritual counseling as well in an effort to form well-rounded athletes on and off the field.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- The Eagles are a league-best 9-1 when Donovan McNabb and Thrash connect for a TD since 2001. No other QB/WR combo has a better winning pct. when they score during that time span.
- Earned All-NFL Interview Team honors in 2001
- Opened up the 2002 season with TD catches in each of the first 4 games
- Had a career-high 18 carries for 126 yards and 2 TDs in 2002. Only two NFL wide receivers had more rushing yards. [Steelers WRs Hines Ward (142) and Antwan Randel-El (134)]

BROTHERLY LOVE

His favorite college football player by far is younger brother, Michael, a 6-foot, 195-pound wide receiver from North Texas, a small Division I program. Here's James' scouting report on his younger brother: "He can run very well, has great hands, and has a great work ethic. If he gets the ball thrown his way this year, he has a chance to be drafted in the NFL."

Michael uses his brother, who battled his way to an NFL roster spot, as a role model. "All my life he has been an inspiration. To get to where he is now in the NFL after everything he went through is truly inspiring. Now, I'm going to try and follow his footsteps to the NFL."

A COUPLE THAT HUNTS TOGETHER, STAYS TOGETHER ...

An avid outdoorsman, Thrash enjoys hunting pheasant, wild boar, geese, etc., etc. What makes his love for the sport an interesting story is that his hunting partner is his wife, Amber. In fact, he learned about the sport from Amber, whose father is an avid outdoorsman.

"It's a great feeling to just be able to go into the woods and hunt and relax," said Thrash. "And then to go and enjoy it with someone you love makes it much more special."

- In the Divisional playoff game win vs. Atl. (1/11/03), hooked up with McNabb for receptions of 42 and 35 yds. The latter, a touchdown on a key 4th-and-1, gave the Eagles a commanding 20-6 lead
- Took a handoff from fellow WR Freddie Mitchell on a double-reverse and raced 20 yards for a score at NYG (12/28/02)
- Became the first Eagles WR to score a TD rushing and receiving in the same game since 1970 vs. Arz. (11/17/02) as he caught a 2-yd pass from McNabb and later scampered 4 yds. for a TD
- Posted career highs in recepts (63), yards (833) and TDs (8) his first full season with the Eagles in 2001
- Was 11-151 receiving in the 2001 postseason including a 5-73 yd. performance at Chi. (1/19/02) in the NFC Divisional Playoff game
- In the NFC East Division-clinching win vs. NYG (12/30/01), caught 7 passes for 143 yds., including a 57-yd. TD from McNabb early in the 4th qtr. that put Philly ahead, 14-13
- Caught a dramatic game-winning TD, an 18 yarder from McNabb, with 1:47 remaining on Monday Night Football at NYG (10/22/01)
- Caught 2 TDs in consecutive weeks (at Arz. 11/4 and vs. Min. 11/11), had three 2-TD games in '01. Prior to that, had never caught more than one in a game
- Recorded career highs at Sea. (9/23/01) with 10 receptions, 165 yards and 2 TDs. Also posted a career-long 65-yd. TD reception from McNabb. He became the first Eagle to break the 150-yd. receiving plateau since Fred Barnett (11-173-2TDs) did so on 11/6/94 vs. Arz.
- Raced 95 yds. on a KOR for a TD at Det. (12/5/99), the first and only of his career
- Signed as a rookie free agent by Philadelphia in 1997, but was released prior to camp and signed by the Redskins on 7/11/97

PERSONAL:

- James and his wife, Amber, and son, Jayden James (5/10/02), reside in Sterling, VA, in the offseason
- Met his wife while both were members of the Missouri Southern track team. James still holds the school records for the 100 meters (10.35) and the 200 meters (20.79)
- Graduated from Missouri Southern in the spring of 2001 with a degree in criminal justice via online courses offered by the school. Participated in an internship with the Loudoun County (VA) Sheriff's Department. As part of the internship he was able to accompany officers on ride-alongs, crime scene investigations and got to sit in on an autopsy
- Visited the set of "Live! with Regis & Kelly" with Paul Grasmanis (9/24/02). The two were visiting New York and sat in on the live broadcast. At the end of the show, host Regis Philbin welcomed the special audience members
- Enjoys eating buffalo wings and french fries the night before games
- As a youngster, aspired to become a ninja and was a big Bruce Lee fan. His favorite movies were "Enter the Dragon" and "The Chinese Connection."
- Attended the United Way's 2001 Hometown Huddle
- List of favorites: Stevie Wonder (singer), ESPN.com (website), Fruit Loops (cereal), Rules of Engagement (movie), and mexican (food)
- Was the Redskins' Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2000. Also was the team's Unsung Hero Award winner that year
- Was not a starter until his senior season at Wewoka
- Cousin is Detroit Lions LB Richard Jordan
- Full name: James Thrash

COLLEGE:

Earned first-team All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association honors at wide receiver as a senior. Finished first in the conference in receiving yards per game and 2nd in receptions. Played in the Snow Bowl (NCAA Division II all-star game) after his senior season. Caught 79 passes for 1,222 yards and seven TDs in his career. A track star, earned All-America honors in the 200-meter dash and all-MIAA honors in track and field by finishing second in the 100-meter dash and 200-meter dash. Ran a leg on the 400-meter relay team that placed 3rd.

INJURY HISTORY:

Suffered a broken clavicle vs. SD (12/6/98) and was put on the Injured Reserve list.

TRIPLE CROWN

Vincent's special blend of onfield performance and concern for others, earned him the 2002 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award. It is the only NFL award that recognizes a player for his community service activities as well as his excellence on the field. The NFL donated $25,000 in his name to a designated charity, Love Thy Neighbor Community Development and Opportunity Corporation.

"This means as much to me, if not more, than the Pro Bowls and all of that," Vincent said. "It's quite an honor to be the NFL's Man of the Year. There are a lot of players who go above and beyond with their work. I'm as proud of this as any award or honor I've ever received."

Vincent was also honored with the 2003 Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award by the NFL Players Association. The award is presented annually to the player who serves his team, community and country, in the spirit of the former footbll player who went on to become Justice of the Supreme Court.

The Sporting News honored Vincent by putting him atop its list of "100 Good Guys in Sports". A regular on the list, he received the top honor in 2003 which recognizes the civic responsibility and character of all people in professional sports.

No NFL player has ever been awarded all three of these honors in the same year.

True philanthropist. All-pro performer. Successful entrepreneur. Spiritually sound. Devoted husband and father. Troy Vincent is as well rounded a player you'll find in sports. He's a professional on and off the field. Already one of the most respected players in the NFL, the personable Vincent appreciates his success as a professional athlete, and more importantly embraces his ability to provide for his community through civic and business leadership. Vincent was rewarded for his philanthropic efforts by being honored with the 2002 Walter Payton Man of the Year award from the NFL. A 1st round draft choice of the Miami Dolphins (7th selection overall) in 1992, he quickly became recognized as one of the league's best defenders. In the spring of '96, Vincent inked an offer sheet with the Eagles that the salary cap strapped Dolphins could not match. With four Pro Bowl appearances and 39 career interceptions, Vincent is a leader of one of the most feared defensive units in the NFL.

With Dal. trailing by 3 and facing a 3rd-n-goal situation at the Eagles' 3, MLB James Willis INT'd a Troy Aikman pass 4 yds. deep in the end zone and ret'd it 14 yds. Willis then lateralled the ball to Vincent who raced the final 90 yds. for a game-clinching score. 97 DARWIN WALKER

Height, Weight: 6-3, 294
Born: 6/15/77 in Walterboro, SC
College: Tennessee
High School: Walterboro, Walterboro, SC
NFL Experience: 4th (4th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: Waivers (Arz) 2000
Originally joined NFL: D3-00 by Arizona (71st selection overall)

Darwin Walker made a significant impact as a first-year starter in 2002, notching 7.5 sacks, 2nd most among NFL defensive tackles. Not bad production for a player that found himself on the waiver wire two years prior. Walker began his career as a 3rd round selection of Arizona in 2000 until he was released after the first game of the season. The Eagles, enamored with his size, strength and physical ability, then claimed him off waivers on 9/12/00. After receiving a steady dose of intense tutoring and coaching by renowned defensive line guru Tommy Brasher, Walker was thrown into the fire a year ago, after incumbent RDT Hollis Thomas re-injured his foot during the pre-season, and simply flourished. Walker was quickly rewarded with a 7-year contract extension on 10/22/02 that will keep him in Philadelphia through 2008. An aspiring businessman, Walker is hoping for similar success off the field for his structural engineering company.

BIRDSEED:

- Gained strength as a youth by mixing mortar for his father, James, a brick mason by trade. "It taught me how to develop a good work ethic," said Walker, who was 8 years old when he began his summer job. "I'm glad he made me do it. And he paid me too! He also gave me his car after the work day was done. That was a big deal for me."
- With his structural engineering firm, has developed a passion for negotiating business deals, "There's nothing like that rush from closing a deal. It's almost as good as sacking the quarterback."

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2002, ranked 3rd on the team in sacks (7.5) and 2nd among all defensive linemen in tackles (49), both career highs. His 7.5 sacks tied for 1st among all NFC DT's with TB's Warren Sapp and tied for 2nd in the NFL behind Oak.'s Roderick Coleman (11)
- Was named "Best Player You Probably Don't Know Much About" in 2002 by cnnsi.com's Don Banks. Banks went on to say "He's been a play-making force in the middle of Philly's tenacious defense."
- Dropped Michael Vick for an 11-yd sack vs. Atl (1/11/03) in Divisional playoff game

ENGINEERED TO SACK

Growing up in a family-owned construction company in South Carolina, Walker went on to earn his degree in civil engineering from Tennessee and later passed the stringent Fundamentals of Engineering examination.

Now, Walker is co-founder of Progressive Engineering, a structural engineering firm in Knoxville, TN. "Engineering is what I love to do most, outside of football," said Walker. "I love being involved in hands-on stuff."

He and his partner, Paul Tucker, have accounted for over $70 million worth of projects.

When asked about similarities between his two occupations, Walker pointed to one aspect - teamwork. "One engineer doesn't do the whole project," said Walker. "It's a collaboration of minds. Teamwork is so vital to our success. Same with football."

- His older brother, James, was an All-ACC free safety at North Carolina State
- Though injuries limited Walker's senior season at Walterboro HS, was still named All-America playing both linebacker and fullback
- Studied latin in high school
- Was a three-time South Carolina prep shot put and discus titleist
- Full name: Darwin Jamar Walker

COLLEGE:

Finished his three-year career (1997-99) at Tennessee as a two-time All-SEC selection while amassing career totals of 122 tackles (84 solo), 14 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles in 35 games (24 starts). Was a third team All-America selection following his senior year, posting 46 tackles, 7 sacks, 8 tackles for a loss and a forced fumble. Set school record with 522-pound bench press. Recipient of the Bill Majors Award given for dedication to football during his junior season in the Volunteer's run to the National Championship. 54 NATE WAYNE

Position: Linebacker
Height, Weight: 6-0, 237
Born: 1/12/75 in Chicago, IL
College: Mississippi
High School: Noxubee, Macon, MS
NFL Experience: 6th (1st as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: UFA (GB) 2003
Originally joined NFL: D7-98 by Denver (219th overall selection)

A key free agent addition this offseason, Wayne was a highly productive member of Green Bay's defense over the course of the last three years, tallying 100-plus tackle seasons during each of those campaigns. The engaging Wayne inked a four-year deal with the Eagles on 3/14/03. In 2002, he excelled with a career-high 132 tackles and 3 interceptions. A 7th-round draft choice of Denver in 1998, he spent his rookie season on the Broncos Super Bowl XXXIII championship squad. After two seasons as a special teams contributor, Wayne was traded to Green Bay during the 2000 preseason and immediately stepped into the Packers starting lineup.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Registered 100-plus tackles in each of his last three NFL seasons as the Packers starter at weak-side linebacker. Finished his Packers career with 360 tackles, 10 sacks, 6 INTs, 5 forced fumbles and 5 recovered fumbles
- In 2002, led the Packers in tackles with a career-high 132, including 2.5 sacks and a career-best 3 forced fumbles. His 3 INTs and 2 fumble recoveries both equaled career bests
- Tied a career high with 16 tackles vs. Was. (10/20/02)
- In a Monday night victory vs. Mia. (11/4/02) earned "Horse Trailer" POG honors, recording 10 tackles, 1 FF, 1 FR, 1 INT and a career-high 3 passes defensed. Forced and recovered a fumble by Rob Konrad and later intercepted a pass by Ray Lucas
- Batted and intercepted a pass by Joey Harrington deep in Packers territory vs. Det. (11/10/02)
- Intercepted Bears' QB Jim Miller in the end zone during the final minutes to help seal 34-21, Monday night triumph at Chi. (10/7/02)
- Ended 2001 ranked 3rd on the Packers with 102 tackles. Recorded career highs in sacks (5.5) and passes defensed (7). Also posted the first 3 INTs of his career
- Paced team with 11 tackles in win over Det. on Thanksgiving at Det. (11/22/01). His momentum-changing INT of Charlie Batch at the Packers 11-yard line early in the second half maintained a Green Bay lead in the eventual 29-27 victory
- Posted his first NFL interception (QB Jeff George) vs.

POLICING THE FIELD

After earning a degree in criminal justice from Ole Miss, Wayne planned for his future regardless of whether it included football. In February of 1998 following his senior season and prior to the draft, he took the physical training test for the Oxford (MS) Police Department.

Drafted by the Broncos in the 7th round he still continued his pursuit of a career in law enforcement by working as an Oxford police officer for the next three months before reporting to camp. Had he not made the team he would have returned to Oxford and attended the police academy in September. After spending a short time on patrol with a supervisor, Wayne went on patrol by himself and actually had to make one arrest. The arrest came when a local college student was taken into custody for public drunkenness.

"I always wanted to be in law enforcement," said Wayne. "Growing up I thought I would work for the DEA (Drug Enforcement Administration) or the ATF (Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms) someday."

Was. (9/24/01)

- Registered 126 tackles in 2000 (2nd on the team), after being traded to Green Bay by Denver on 8/15/00 for the Packers fourth-round draft choice in 2001. Became the starting weak-side linebacker when knee problems sidelined Brian Williams
- Registered a career-high 16 tackles in season opener vs. NYJ (9/3/00)
- Made several big plays at Car. (11/27/00), recovering a fumble that resulted in a TD. Also sacked and forced a fumble by Steve Beuerlein to go along with 12 tackles
- Waived by Den. on 9/18/99, was then signed to the practice squad on 9/21 and then back to the active roster the following day
- Allocated to Barcelona of NFL Europe in 1999. Was limited to just three starts due to a hamstring injury
- Saw action in one regular season game as a rookie during Denver's Super Bowl XXXIII championship season

- Was an honorable mention all-state and all-district selection at strong safety at Noxubee County HS in Macon, MS

"A BOTTLE OF RED ..."

A self-proclaimed connoisseur of wine, Wayne is slowly building a nice collection of his own. A large portion of his collection consists of bottles of red wine, in particular merlot. His current red of choice is a California vintage called Opus One.

The Opus One winery is located in Oakville, CA, right in the heart of the Napa Valley. A bottle of Opus One retails for roughly $150. Much to his displeasure his favorite bottle is not sold in either Pennsylvania or New Jersey.

- Also earned all-district honors in basketball three times
- Has one pet, a male cockapoo (a cross-breed of poodle and cocker spaniel) named Koffi
- Has done work with Big Brothers and Big Sisters. Hosted a bowling tournament in Green Bay to benefit Cerebral Palsy. While in Green Bay also participated in "Coats for Kids," a clothing drive to benefit underprivileged children
- Lists Target as one of his favorite stores. "Most people look at me funny when they see me at Target, but I'm just like them. I can get everything I need there."
- Enjoys playing golf
- Holds a degree in criminal justice
- Full name: Nathaniel Wayne Jr.

76 JOHN WELBOURN

Position: Guard/Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-5, 318
Born: 3/30/76 in Torrance, CA
College: California
High School: Peninsula, Rolling Hills, CA
NFL Experience: 5th (5th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D4a-99 (97th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

A starter since entering the league as a 4th round draft choice in 1999, Welbourn brings a unique combination of toughness, intensity and intelligence in mastering the left guard position. The California native out-muscles and out-thinks opposing defensive linemen while utilizing his nasty on-field disposition. "He's an intense football player," said head coach Andy Reid. "He's not afraid to get himself downfield. If people are standing around he's going to let them know he's there." Welbourn signed an eight-year contract extension on 8/10/01 that will keep him in town through 2008.

BIRDSEED:

- Earned a degree in rhetoric at Cal and wants to eventually attend law school. "Because of the word rhetoric, people think of bull (bleep) or that it's all about talking ... The major was more of an English Philosophy major that was geared toward argument. It was a pre-law major more than anything. You had to read about 40 books a semester. It was a ton or reading and writing and that's what I enjoyed about it."
- The offensive line of LT Tra Thomas, LG John Welbourn, C Hank Fraley, RG Jermane Mayberry, and RT Jon Runyan enter their third season together. Only once have the Eagles had a unit play together for that long a spell – the 1981-83 unit consisting of LT Stan Walters, LG Steve Kenney, C Guy Morriss, RG Ron Baker, and RT Jerry Sizemore

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- In 2002 helped pave the way for the league's 4th-highest scoring offense (25.9 pts./game), the best output in team history (415)
- Helped Duce Staley notch his 3rd career 1,000-yd rushing season in 2002
- The 2002 offensive line allowed the team's lowest sack total (36) in a 16-game season since 1981 (22)
- Helped RB Correll Buckhalter rush into the Eagles record books as he ran for 134 yards to break the single game rookie rushing record vs. Arz. (10/7/01). Buckhalter also posted 586 yards on just 129 carries in 2001, to break the single-season rookie rushing record set by Keith Byars in 1986

CUSTOM BUILT CHOPPERS

"I've always like one-of-a-kind things. I think I'm pretty unique and building bikes is just one way to express myself. When you build a bike you get to custom fit it to yourself. Every bike is different like its owner."

Anyone who knows John Welbourn will tell you that he does not fit the stereotypical mold of an offensive lineman. He's a rhetoric major. He loves to read. He's into politics. But there is one thing that brings him back to the blue collar image that is associated with offensive linemen, his love for motorcycles.

After riding a Honda motorcycle throughout college, he decided he wanted something different, something he could custom fit to his own personality. That's when he enlisted the help of two men, Ted Ritchie and Billy Bob. Both men make custom motorcycles in the Philadelphia area. With John under their wings, they designed two choppers with his tastes and needs in mind.

"These bikes are all about me. Someday I want to build a bike on my own. I think I'm getting there."

- Recovered from a season-ending knee injury in 1999 to earn the starting LG spot for all 16 games in 2000. Was a member of an offensive line that started all 16 regular season games (and both playoff contests) in the same combination. As such, the Eagles were just one of four clubs to have the unit stay intact throughout the season and, since the NFL went to a 16 game schedule in 1978, became the first Philadelphia team to accomplish that feat
- At Dal. (9/3/00), helped the Eagles to their first 300-yard rushing game since 11/4/90 (304 vs. NE) and RB Duce Staley to only the second 200-yard-plus output in team history (Steve Van Buren rushed for 205 yds. vs. Pit. on 11/27/49)
- As a rookie in 1999, battled training camp injuries to earn the starting role at RT on opening day vs. Arz. (9/12/99), but suffered a season-ending knee injury

PERSONAL:

- Single, resides in Clearwater, FL, in the offseason
- After graduating from Cal in May, 1998, with a degree in rhetoric, enrolled in the university's graduate school of education during his final season with the Golden Bears
- Was introduced to politics at a young age as his father, Robert, was a mayor of Palos Verdes, CA, and twice ran for Congress. He also worked as a lobbyist and John grew up meeting people such as Ronald Reagan and Pete Wilson at fundraising events, some at the family home
- Spoke to government classes at Lower Merion High School on 11/5/02 about the importance of voting. Politics has always been one of his hobbies
- Created Halloween decorations with the children from Temple University Children's Hospital in 2002

- Full name: John Russell Welbourn

COLLEGE:

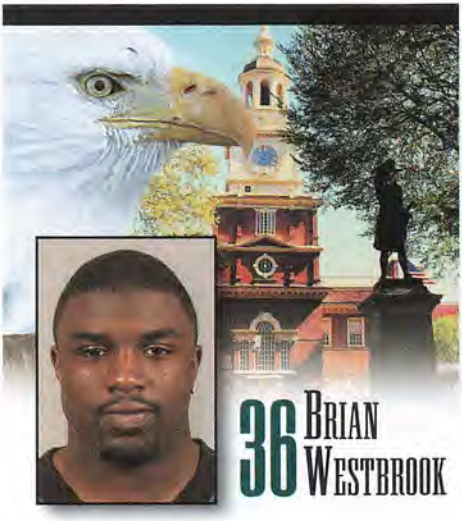

A 1st team All-Pac 10 Conference selection as a senior left tackle at Cal, allowed just two quarterback sacks in his three seasons as a starter for the Golden Bears. Actually cracked the lineup at right guard in 1996, opening eight games at that spot when Cal averaged 457.6 yards per outing, under the direction of head coach Steve Marriucci. Moved over to left tackle as a junior and earned honorable mention All-Pac 10 accolades after going the whole season without allowing a sack. Subsequently saw that acclaim rise to 1st team honors one year later when he helped Cal average 213.1 passing yards per game.

INJURY HISTORY:

Suffered a fractured fibula at Ten. (9/8/02) and missed four games. Dressed but did not play vs. Arz. (11/17/02) due to a calf injury. Re-injured ankle at Sea. College: Villanova
High School: DeMatha, Hyattsville, MD
NFL Experience: 2nd (2nd as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D3-02 (91st selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

Brian Westbrook, a speedy and shifty running back and kick returner, was one of the most decorated players in NCAA Division I-AA history at Villanova. He parlayed that great collegiate career into becoming a 3rd round draft choice in 2002. After showing glimpses of that explosive, play-making ability during his rookie campaign, Westbrook will be given every opportunity to be featured on highlight reels in 2003 with an expanded role. Said offensive coordinator Brad Childress, "He's a guy who's got a chance of hitting a home run for you." Besides contributing as a change-up running back, he is a prime candidate to replace Brian Mitchell on punt and kickoff return duty.

98 Brandon Whiting

Position: Defensive End/Tackle
Height, Weight: 6-3, 285
Born: 7/30/76 in Santa Rosa, CA
College: California
High School: Long Beach Polytechnic, Long Beach, CA
NFL Experience: 6th (6th as an Eagle)
Acquired by Eagles: D4a-98 (112th selection overall)
Originally joined NFL: Same as above

One of the most intelligent players in the league, Whiting combines brains and brawn in becoming one of the most consistent players on the Eagles defense. As a coach's son, his football smarts have given him the ability to stifle opposing teams not only with his physical abilities but with his smarts. Said Eagles defensive coordinator Jim Johnson, "Brandon is probably one of the smarter defensive linemen I have been around. He understands schemes, he understands blocking patterns ... If you want to talk about a leader talk about Brandon, because he's a leader." A fixture on the Eagles defensive line since 1998, Whiting has made at least one start at each of the defensive line positions throughout his career and has the ability to play defensive end and tackle. Signed a six-year contract extension on 8/10/01.

BIRDSEED:

- An avid reader, he also enjoys problem-solving games and activities, including solving crossword puzzles, watching Jeopardy, and playing Scrabble. "Crossword puzzles are mentally stimulating and kills time between practice and meetings."
- Owns a home in Lake Tahoe, CA, on the shores of Lake Tahoe. Owns a 23-foot long Cobalt boat that he uses to cruise along the lake. Works out in Lake Tahoe during the offseason, taking advantage of the 6,200-foot elevation
- His father, Thomas, was his high school coach at Long Beach Polytechnic. Despite having a football coach for a father, Brandon never played organized football prior to his freshman year in high school. Instead he helped his father break down film on an old reel-to-reel projector on the wall of the family's dining room and served as ball boy for his dad's teams

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 45 games since 1998, including at least one game at each of the defensive line spots (LDE-39; LDT-4; RDT-1; RDE-1)
- In 2002, posted one of his best seasons as a pro, setting a career-high with 6 sacks and tying a career high with 3 fumble recoveries
- Dropped Michael Vick for sack vs. Atl. (1/11/03) in NFC Divisional playoff game
- Matched a career high with 2 sacks of QB Matt Hasselbeck at Sea. (12/8/02)
- Posted 2 sacks vs. Sea. (9/23/01) of QB Matt Hasselbeck
- At NYG (10/22/01) recovered a Kerry Collins fumble late in the 4th qtr. to preserve the Eagles dramatic win on Monday Night Football
- Recorded a career-high 60 tackles in 2000
- Had the best game of his career with a career-high 14 tackles, including 1.5 sacks, 2 tackles for a loss and a forced fumble vs. Dal. (11/5/00)

BRANDON THE BUILDER

After his playing career, Brandon has aspirations of owning a real estate development company. Inspired by his grandfather, who used to work in a lumberyard, he has become an avid handyman, working around his house in Lake Tahoe, Ca. "I'd love to take some older homes in that Lake Tahoe area, houses that were built in the 1940's and 1950's, renovate them, and re-sell them." He considers doing home improvement work very "therapeutic."

- Recorded his first career INT vs. Ind. (11/21/99) off Steve Walsh and returned it 22 yds. for his first career TD
- When injuries sidelined starting tackles Bill Johnson and Hollis Thomas late in the year, Whiting became the starter at LDT for the final four contests of 1998. Went on to earn NFL All-Rookie Honors
- Returned a fumble 24 yds. vs. Was. (10/15/98) to set up a TD in the Eagles 17-12 win
- Made his first NFL start on Monday Night Football vs. Dal (11/2/98) as he lined up at LDE vs. all-pro RT Erik Williams

PERSONAL:

- Single and resides in both Vallejo and Lake Tahoe, CA, in the offseason
- Earned a 3.3 GPA as an economics and developmental studies major en route to Academic All-Pac 10 recognition at Cal
- Posted a score of 1200 on his SAT and earned numerous scholar-athlete awards at Long Beach Poly HS
- Dressed up as Dracula for the Eagles 2002 Halloween visit to Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

A four-year starter for Cal, collected 24.5 sacks among his 154 tackles. Posted a team-high 8 sacks as a senior. Was a teammate of OL John Welbourn.

INJURY HISTORY:

During the 2001 season, sat out games at Dal. (11/18), vs. Was. (11/25) and at KC (11/29) with hamstring and foot injuries. Sprained MCL at Arz. (12/5/99) and sat out for the rest of the season.

IN WHITING'S WORDS

During the 2001 season, the Philadelphia Inquirer added a new free-lance writer. Book critic Brandon Whiting wrote a book review of "Death at the Priory" a Victorian age novel written by James Ruddock. When the novel was released to the general public, Whiting was surprised to find an excerpt from his review printed on the inside of the cover.

In March of 2003, he submitted another book review to the Inquirer. The Jedediah Purdy novel, "Being America," was the latest to be reviewed. As Whiting reviewed Purdy's work, he developed observations pertaining to the recent developments in the war on terrorism that tied in with the novel. The following is the introduction to his review:

"The events of September 11, 2001, changed decisively Americans' view of the world. We can no longer pretend to be invulnerable to the horrors affecting the rest of humanity. Over the last half-century, the United States has accepted the daunting task of policing the world. This has brought about two views: the American perspective, with its mix of innocence and good intentions vs. that of what seems to be a majority in the rest of the world – who believe the United States is a bully and whose resentment and envy grow greater every day."

The second of the Eagles two 2nd round draft picks in 2000, Williams made the transition from offensive tackle, where he starred collegiately at Arkansas, to guard in Philadelphia. With the loss of Doug Brzezinski, a versatile reserve guard this past offseason, Williams is a prime candidate to fill those shoes.

As a junior, played next to RG Brandon Burlsworth, who was a 3rd round selection of Indianapolis in 1999, but passed away in a tragic car accident one week after the NFL draft. Burlsworth's death served as inspiration for Williams. Said Williams, "I learned that any time can be your time, so you have to make the most of your life. I used Brandon as an example to myself."

College: Miami
High School: Ely, Pompano Beach, FL

This speedy and productive end was extremely successful during his two seasons at Miami. Helped the Hurricanes to a 12-0 record and a National Championship in 2001, and a 12-0 record before suffering a Fiesta Bowl loss to Ohio State in the 2002 championship bout. The Eagles traded their first round pick (30th overall) and a 2nd round pick (62nd overall) to San Diego to move up to the 15th overall slot to snag him.

BIRDSEED:

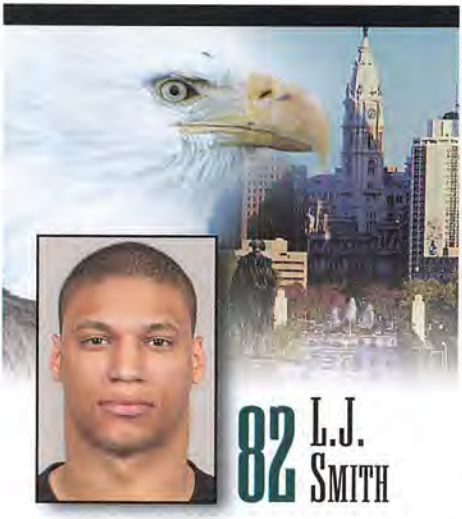

- Along with his brother Stockar, who was drafted in the first round (20th overall) in 2000 by the Detroit Lions, became the first brothers to be selected in the first round of the draft since the Rogers brothers – Don, a DB from UCLA drafted by Cleveland in 1982 (18th overall), and Reggie, a DE from Washington selected by Detroit in 1987 (7th overall)

An accomplished pass rusher, earned All-Big East Conference recognition while recording 110 tackles, 13 sacks, 30 stops for a loss, 6 pass deflections, 3 fumble recoveries and 4 forced fumbles. Was a finalist for the Lombardi Award (given to the nation's best defensive lineman) and for the Hendrick Defensive End Award as a senior, after recording 55 tackles, seven sacks and 16 tackles for a loss. Said McDougle of the talent level at Ely, "You're either going to play with the best or fall by the wayside. It's like junior college, you're either going to make a man out of yourself or fall by the wayside. It's sort of like the Matrix. You're either going to take the red pill or the blue pill."
- Idolized Reggie White, John Randle and Warren Sapp as a kid
- Full name: Jerome McDougle

82 L.J. SMITH

Position: Tight End
Height, Weight: 6-3, 258
Born: 5/13/80 in New Brunswick, NJ
College: Rutgers
High School: Highland Park, Highland Park, NJ
Acquired by Eagles: D2-03 (61st selection overall)

Although his first name is derived from "Little John," Smith is anything but little. A physical specimen at the tight end position, he learned the nuances of the West Coast offense during his collegiate career. Was the third tight end taken in the draft and the highest Rutgers player selected since TE Marco Battaglia was taken with the 39th pick by Cincinnati in 1996. 2002 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

GAME 1

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 2002
TENNESSEE 27, PHILADELPHIA 24
THE COLISEUM • 68,804

The Titans overcame a 14-point halftime deficit to send the Eagles home with a 27-24 opening day loss on a steamy, Nashville afternoon. In a physical, hard-hitting game, both teams lost starting players – Titans DE Jevon Kearse (foot) and Eagles LG John Welbourn (broken leg) – in the first series of action and many other players suffered heat-related cramps. The Titans got off to a quick start, marching 80 yards in 8 plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 14-yd. TD pass from Steve McNair to Eddie George. After the Eagles were forced to punt for the 2nd straight series, renowned kick returner Brian Mitchell sparked the Eagles with a big play on the punt coverage unit. Mitchell forced Titans rookie return man John Simon to fumble and picked up the loose ball. Three plays later, Donovan McNabb fired an 18-yd. TD pass to James Thrash to knot the score at 7-7. Eagles head coach Andy Reid then dipped into his bag of tricks with an onsides kick that Eagles TE Jeff Thomason recovered. McNabb completed double-digit yardage passes to Thrash (14 yards), Duce Staley (16) and Todd Pinkston (17) before flipping a shovel pass to Staley for a 7-yd. TD. After a Titans field goal, McNabb found another weapon in WR Antonio Freeman, connecting with him 3 times for 54 yards on a drive that led to a 7-yd. TD pass to TE Chad Lewis. A forced fumble by DE Hugh Douglas led to a FG by David Akers that gave the Eagles a 24-10 lead at halftime. After a field goal by the Titans early in the 3rd, the Eagles chewed up nearly nine minutes of the clock with a 15-play drive. However, the Eagles produced no points and the Titans took advantage. After an interception by Andre Dyson, McNair hit WR Justin McCareins on a 2-yd. TD pass to cut the Eagles lead to 24-19. The two-point conversion attempt by George was stopped by the Eagles. After another Eagles punt, the Titans stormed back with the game-winning touchdown drive capped by a two-yard scamper by George. This time, George's two-point conversion attempt succeeded to give the Titans a 27-24 lead. The key play in that drive was a 39-yard completion to Derrick Mason on a 3rd-n-19 play. McNabb and the Eagles had two possessions left, but could not record a first down as the Eagles left The Coliseum with a tough loss.

NOTES: In his first game as an Eagle, LB Shawn Barber recorded 3 takeaways (one interception and two fumble recoveries) and 7 tackles ... McNabb moved ahead of Tommy Thompson into 4th place on the club's all-time completions list ... Blaine Bishop, the long-time Titan/Oiler, notched 4 tackles and a forced fumble in his return to Nashville ... The Eagles converted their 3rd first quarter onside kick in the Andy Reid era (the other two were in the 2000 season opener vs. Dallas and in week 11 of 2001 at Kansas City) ... McNabb was sacked 6 times, the most since his NFL debut vs. TB (12/19/99).

The Eagles used a national television audience to display one of their most dominating performances in team history with a 37-7 thrashing of the host Washington Redskins on Monday Night Football. With all the pre-game hype surrounding Jeremiah Trotter (in his first game vs. his former club) and the fun-and-gun offense of Redskins head coach Steve Spurrier, it was the Eagles and Donovan McNabb who had all the microphones in front of their faces after this primetime effort that included 451 total yards of offense. The defense shut out the Redskins offense all night long (179 total yards) as they forced Redskins quarterbacks into hurried, errant throws while forcing three turnovers and holding the Skins to just 3-for-12 on third down. McNabb got Philadelphia jump started on their first offensive play from scrimmage, finding a streaking James Thrash across the middle of the field for a 33-yard pick up. After McNabb connected with Todd Pinkston for a 26-yard completion, the mobile QB scampered 8 yards for a TD and a 7-0 lead. On their next possession later in the quarter, McNabb completed 7 of 8 passes, including a 2-yard scoring strike to TE Jeff Thomason. Although the Redskins would climb to within 7 points on a 90-yard punt return for a TD by Jacquez Green early in the 2nd quarter, the Eagles registered field goals on their final three drives of the half to climb to a commanding 23-7 lead. The Eagles kept the pedal to the metal early in the 3rd quarter as McNabb connected with Thrash on a 39-yard TD throw. Later in the 3rd, Brian Dawkins intercepted an errant pass attempt by back-up QB Danny Wuerffel deep in Eagles territory. Nine plays later, RB Dorsey Levens scampered 47 yards for a TD to finish the scoring.

NOTES: The game was delayed for a brief time in the 4th quarter after pepper spray being used by police to curb fighting in the stands seeped into the Eagles bench area ... Spurrier's offense was shutout for the first time since 1989 when he was the head coach at Duke ... The last time the Eagles defeated the Redskins by 30-or-more points was on November 12, 1950 (33-0) ... McNabb connected with 10 different receivers, accounted for 319 net yards (4th most in his career) and earned the Monday Night Football's horse trailer player of the game ... Dawkins recorded a sack and an INT in the same game for the first time in his career ... Thrash burned his ex-teammates with a 6-107-1TD receiving performance.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 44, DALLAS 13
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,537

Donovan McNabb threw for 287 yards and 3 TDs, ran for 67 yards and a TD, and the wide receiver trio of Antonio Freeman, James Thrash, and Todd Pinkston combined for 17 catches for 246 yards and 4 TDs in the Eagles 44-13 rout over the Cowboys in the final home opener ever at Veterans Stadium. For the second consecutive game, the Eagles defense did not allow a touchdown as they forced four turnovers. The Eagles bounced back from a sluggish 1st quarter in which they allowed a 100-yard kickoff return for a TD by Reggie Swinton. Down 10-3 early in the 2nd stanza, McNabb connected with Thrash on a picture-perfect 35-yard scoring strike down the right sideline and the Eagles never looked back. On their next possession, the Eagles took advantage of a personal foul and a 49-yard interference penalty on the Cowboys to set up McNabb's 2-yard scoring run. McNabb then completed 7 passes to five different players in engineering a 10-play, 87-yard hurry-up drill in the waning minutes of the first half to set up a 20-yard field goal by David Akers as time expired. The Eagles continued to attack in the second half, scoring twice in just four offensive plays. Freeman registered his first touchdown as an Eagle after hauling in a pass from McNabb and running 35 yards into the end zone. After a fumble by Cowboys QB Quincy Carter was recovered by Brian Dawkins at the DC25, McNabb pitched to RB Brian Westbrook who threw a strike to Pinkston in the end zone for a 34-10 lead. The Eagles sealed the game up with a 17-play, 80-yard drive that took 8:14 off the clock and resulted in a 2-yard TD pass from McNabb to Pinkston.

NOTES: Cowboys RB Emmitt Smith broke the NFL all-time record for rushing attempts set by Walter Payton (3,838) ... The TD pass by Westbrook was the first by an Eagles non-QB since 1992 (Keith Byars) ... The Eagles had 100-yard wide receivers in consecutive games for the first time since 1992 (Fred Barnett and Calvin Williams, 9/13 and 9/20) ... Koy Detmer and Akers converted a fake field for a first down as Detmer flipped a pitch to Akers, who ran 10 yards ... The Eagles notched 30-plus point wins in consecutive games for the first time since weeks 2 and 3 of the 1980 season ... McNabb earned NFC offensive player of the week honors for his efforts.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 35, HOUSTON 17
VETERANS STADIUM • 64,867

It was a day of firsts for the Eagles. Free safety Brian Dawkins became the first player in NFL history to post a sack, an interception, a touchdown catch, and a fumble recovery in the same game, leading the Eagles to a 35-17 triumph in their first-ever meeting with the expansion Houston Texans. With the win, the Eagles took over sole possession of first place in the NFC East as they upped their win streak to 3 games. After the Texans took a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter, Philadelphia stormed back for 28 unanswered points. The onslaught began with a 25-yard field goal by David Akers. After a forced fumble by Darwin Walker on the Texans next possession, Dawkins scooped up the loose ball at the HT42. Duce Staley then gave the Eagles the lead for good with the first of his 2 one-yard touchdown scampers. After a pair of sacks against rookie first-round pick David Carr, the Eagles used a 34-yard catch and run by Todd Pinkston on a 3rd-n-3 play which led to another Staley TD and a 17-7 lead. With Carr and the Texans offense rattled, Dawkins intercepted an errant pass and set up another field goal by Akers to give the Eagles a 20-7 halftime lead. After their first drive stalled in the second half, the Eagles lined up in punt formation to apparently give the Texans the ball. But the Eagles executed a perfect fake as Brian Mitchell took the direct snap and shoveled a pass to Dawkins, who raced 57 yards for a TD. Donovan McNabb hit Chad Lewis for the 2-point conversion to give the Eagles a 28-7 lead. After the Texans closed the gap to 28-17 late in the third quarter, Eagles WR James Thrash caught a short pass from McNabb and outran the Houston secondary for a 38-yard TD, finishing the scoring on the afternoon. But Dawkins was not finished with his afternoon as he came up with a sack of Carr on the Texans final possession as he etched his name in NFL record books.

NOTES: Thrash caught a TD pass and DE Hugh Douglas recorded a sack for the 5th straight game (both dating back to last year) ... The Eagles defense recorded 7 sacks by 7 different players ... Mitchell, who had attempted 17 passes in his career, threw the first TD pass of his career ... McNabb signed a lucrative, 12-year contract two days before the game ... Staley tied a career high with 2 rushing TDs and moved past Tom Sullivan (871) into 4th place on the Eagles all-time rushing attempts list ... Dawkins earned NFC defensive player of the week honors following the game.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2002
JACKSONVILLE 28, PHILADELPHIA 25
ALLTEL STADIUM • 65,005

Costly mistakes and penalties by the Eagles sent them home with a 28-25 loss to the Jaguars at a steamy ALLTEL Stadium in Jacksonville. Although they toppled the Jaguars in most statistical categories, the Eagles found themselves on the wrong end of the penalty breakdown, registering 10 penalties for 75 yards. The most critical penalty occurred late in the first half as the Eagles defense was late getting off the field and was flagged with too many men on the field during a punt by the Jaguars. The penalty resulted in a first down for the Jaguars and an eventual touchdown, giving them a 14-7 lead. Prior to that play, the momentum of the game had just swung into the Eagles favor after a 9-play, 63-yard drive led to a 4-yard TD pass from Donovan McNabb to TE Chad Lewis that erased an early 6-0 deficit. After the disappointing turn of events, McNabb was poised to even up the score before halftime as he fired a long pass to Antonio Freeman who was streaking toward the end zone. But the ball fell out of the hands of Freeman as he hit the ground. The Eagles added a field goal midway through the 3rd quarter to cut the deficit to four, but the Jaguars rebounded early in the 4th quarter with an 11-play, 79-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard TD plunge by Stacey Mack. One play before the TD, Jacksonville faced a 4th-and-1 situation at the Eagles 2-yard line and gave the ball to Mack who barely earned the first down. Down by 11, the Eagles went right back to the air as McNabb connected with Freeman on a 57-yard completion to the JJ5. But a holding penalty on the Eagles negated the play and forced a punt that turned out to be disastrous. Bobby Shaw took the punt by Sean Landeta, dodged a few tacklers and raced 69 yards for a score that gave Jacksonville a commanding 28-10 lead. McNabb scored on a 4-yd. TD run and connected with Freeman on an 8-yd. TD pass, but it was too little, too late for Philadelphia, who could not overcome their severe rash of penalties and miscues earlier in the contest.

NOTES: The game was a homecoming for FS Brian Dawkins, CB Lito Sheppard, and director of player relations Harold Carmichael, who are all alumni of Raines HS in Jacksonville.

GAME 6

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 20, TAMPA BAY 10
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,523

The Eagles held the Buccaneers without an offensive touchdown in their third straight meeting at Veterans Stadium as they forged a 20-10 victory over Tampa Bay. Duce Staley pounded out a season-high 152 yards vs. a stingy Bucs defense, who entered the game ranked #1 in the league, and Donovan McNabb threw for a TD and ran for another. The Eagles defense forced 2 turnovers, combined for six sacks, and harassed Bucs QB Brad Johnson all day long before an injury brought in Rob Johnson in the 4th quarter. The Eagles took advantage of an early fumble by FB Mike Alstott (forced by Bobby Taylor and recovered by Barry Gardner) with a 30-yard field goal by David Akers. The Bucs responded with a big turnover of their own as Simeon Rice sacked and forced a fumble of McNabb deep in Eagle territory. LB Derrick Brooks scooped up the loose ball and rumbled 11 yards for a touchdown. Down 7-3, McNabb and the Eagles struggled to move the chains vs. the Bucs until late in the 2nd quarter. After a 29-yard punt return by Brian Mitchell set up the Eagles at the TB45, McNabb faked a handoff to Staley and lofted a perfect 42-yard strike to a streaking Todd Pinkston to give the Eagles a 10-7 lead heading into halftime. Both teams traded field goals in the 3rd quarter before Eagles CB Al Harris, a former Tampa Bay draft pick, neatly stepped in front of a Brad Johnson-to-Keyshawn Johnson pass along the sideline. Harris kept both feet in bounds as he secured possession of the ball. McNabb and Staley went on to lead a 10-play, 42-yard drive that ended with a one-yard rollout for a touchdown by McNabb. After the quarterback switch by Tampa Bay, the Bucs drove to the PE11 threatening to make it a one-possession game. But K Martin Gramatica misfired on a 29-yard field goal (wide left) as the Bucs 5-game winning streak came to a halt.

NOTES: Staley, whose 152 yard-output was the 2nd highest of his career, moved past Tom Woodeshick (3,563) and into 6th place on the Eagles all-time rushing list ... Mitchell combined for 144 return yards, including a 47-yard kickoff return and a 29-yard punt return ... The Eagles improved to 10-3 since the bye week was instituted in 1990, including a 4-0 mark under head coach Andy Reid ... The 2nd quarter TD by the Eagles broke a streak of 14 straight quarters that the Bucs held opposing offenses out of the end zone ... Eagles LG John Welbourn returned to the lineup after a four-game absence (leg) and helped fuel the Birds successful running attack.

GAME 7

MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 17, NEW YORK 3
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,791

In the final Monday Night Football game at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles piled up 295 yards rushing en route to a hard fought, 17-3 win over the New York Giants. RB Duce Staley registered his 2nd straight 100-yard rushing game with 126 yards on 24 carries and QB Donovan McNabb rushed 7 times for 111 yards, including a spectacular 40-yard TD scamper early in the 4th quarter that broke open a tight game. The Eagles defense did not allow an offensive touchdown for the 4th time this season, holding the Giants to just a 2nd quarter field goal. In a typical Eagles-Giants scrum, four field goals represented the scoring throughout the first 3 quarters of action as both teams squandered scoring opportunities in the process. The Eagles drove into the Giants red zone three straight times in the first half only to settle for 3 points on each occasion. They also saw K David Akers misfire on his first field goal attempt of the season on the opening possession. The Giants, meanwhile, engineered two drives inside the Eagles 20, only to settle for a field goal in the 2nd quarter and a costly fumble by FB Charles Stackhouse out of the end zone for a touchback in the 3rd quarter. Ahead 9-3, early in the 4th quarter the Eagles found themselves backed up at their own 1-yard line after a Giants punt. McNabb and the Eagles methodically moved down the field in nine plays, including a 17-yard run by Staley, a 32-yard pass to Thrash, and a 40-yard jaunt by McNabb into the end zone. On the TD run, McNabb narrowly escaped the grasp of Giants DT Cornelius Griffin and DE Kenny Holmes and received good downfield blocking from WR Todd Pinkston and RB Dorsey Levens as he gave the Eagles a 15-3 lead. McNabb's completion to TE Chad Lewis on the two-point conversion attempt gave Philadelphia a 17-3 lead and completed the scoring.

NOTES: Eagles return specialist Brian Mitchell became the third player in NFL history to register 21,000 all-purpose yards, joining Walter Payton and Jerry Rice ... Staley and McNabb became the first Eagles duo to each amass 100 yards of rushing since October 8, 1995, when RBs Ricky Watters and Charlie Garner scorched Washington ... Staley moved past Timmy Brown (3,703) and Watters (3,794) and into 4th place on the Eagles all-time rushing list on his way to earning Monday Night Football's horse trailer player of the game honors ... McNabb's 40-yard jaunt was the longest scoring run of his career.

GAME 8

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 19, CHICAGO 13
MEMORIAL STADIUM • 54,049

With a dominating 2nd half performance, the Eagles defense paved the way for a 19-13 victory over the Chicago Bears on a cold, rainy afternoon at Memorial Stadium in Champaign, Illinois. David Akers nailed four field goals in the final two quarters as the Eagles battled back from a 13-7 halftime deficit. After a sluggish, mistake-filled first quarter in which 10 flags were thrown by the officials, the Bears lit the scoreboard first with a 30-yard field goal by Paul Edinger early in the 2nd stanza. On the ensuing possession, the Eagles drove 73 yards in 10 plays to take a 7-3 lead on a 5-yard TD run by Donovan McNabb. But the Bears stormed back to finish the first half with 10 points in the final two minutes. First, RB Anthony Thomas rumbled 6 yards for a TD to cap off a 69-yard drive then, with the Eagles driving in Bears territory, McNabb was pressured in the pocket and threw an ill-advised interception to Mike Brown at the CB37. Bears QB Jim Miller completed three passes to the PE35, where Edinger nailed a 53-yard field goal that bounced off the cross bar and in. Down 13-7 at half, the Eagles quickly tied the game with two field goals by Akers on their first two possessions and the defense did the rest. The Eagles simply threw a blanket over the Bears offense, holding them to 53 total yards in the final 30 minutes. During Chicago's 6 possessions, the Eagles held them to 5 rushing yards on 8 attempts, an 0-6 conversion rate on third down, and just 6 first downs. They also recorded three sacks, including a pair by Hugh Douglas in the 4th quarter. The Bears also lost a key fumble early in the 4th quarter when WR Dez White took a pitch from Miller and fumbled. DE Brandon Whiting recovered the ball and set up another Akers field goal to give the Eagles the lead for good at 16-13. After another field goal by Akers with 3:42 to play, the Eagles defense came up with one last stand. The Bears drove to the PE24 with 35 seconds to play, but Miller fired three incomplete passes and was sacked by Douglas.

NOTES: The Eagles made their first-ever visit to Champaign, Illinois, the temporary home for the Bears while Soldier Field underwent renovation ... McNabb rushed for a TD in his fourth consecutive game (tieing four others for most consecutive games with a rushing TD by a QB since the 1970 merger) ... 22 penalties were called during the game (9 on Phila, 13 on Chicago) and 18 were enforced (6 on Phila, 12 on Chicago). The Eagles set a team record with 8 first downs via penalty ... Eagles LB Ike Reese made his first NFL start in place of an injured Carlos Emmons (hamstring) ... WR Antonio Freeman had four catches, all resulting in first downs. Three of those plays came on third down.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 2002
INDIANAPOLIS 35, PHILADELPHIA 13
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,660

A pair of streaks came to an end as the Indianapolis Colts dominated all facets of the game and ended their three-game losing skid and halted the Eagles three-game win streak with a 35-13 victory at Veterans Stadium. Ironically, it was the largest margin of defeat against the Eagles since a 44-17 thrashing to the Colts at the Vet in 1999. The Colts used a near-perfect outing by QB Peyton Manning (23-18-319-0-3TDs) and spectacular homecomings for WR Marvin Harrison (6-137-2TDs) and rookie RB James Mungro (28-114-2TDs in his first NFL start) to fuel the win. The Eagles had a short-lived lead early in the first quarter after a 34-yard field goal by David Akers on their first possession. Mungro, a native of East Stroudsburg, PA, then ripped off a 49-yard run on the Colts first play from scrimmage and Indianapolis never looked back. Although Mungro fumbled later in that drive at the Eagles one-yard line, he bounced back on their next possession, scoring on a 6-yard run to give Indy a 7-3 lead. On the last play of the first quarter, Manning fired a 57-yard TD strike to Harrison, a product of Roman Catholic HS in Philadelphia, as the Colts quickly built a 14-3 cushion. The Eagles managed to get within eight points late in the 2nd quarter as Akers connected on a 20-yard field goal. Up 14-6, the Colts came out firing in the 3rd stanza, completing all four passes on their first drive, including a 27-yard scoring strike to Reggie Wayne. After McNabb fumbled deep inside Indy territory, the Colts used another Manning-to-Harrison TD connection, this time a 43 yarder, to push the lead to 28-6. Mungro finished off his day with his second TD, a 10-yarder, late in the 4th quarter and became the 6th Colts running back to surpass the 100-yard rushing mark in his first start. McNabb fired a TD pass to TE Jeff Thomason to end the scoring.

NOTES: The last time the Eagles allowed five touchdowns in a game was 11/21/99 against Manning and the Colts ... The last time the Eagles were held without a sack was 11/14/99 at Washington ... Eagles P Sean Landeta played in his 250th NFL game and KR Brian Mitchell in his 200th.

GAME 10

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 38, ARIZONA 14
VETERANS STADIUM • 64,990

In one of the most heroic performances in sports history, QB Donovan McNabb, hobbled from a broken ankle, turned in one of the best performances of his young NFL career in defeating the Arizona Cardinals, 38-14, on a cold, rainy afternoon at Veterans Stadium. On the game's third play from scrimmage, McNabb was sacked by Cardinals S Adrian Wilson and LB LeVar Woods rolled his right ankle before fumbling. As McNabb limped to the sidelines and had his right ankle re-taped, the Cardinals took a 7-0 lead with a 12-yard TD pass from Jake Plummer to rookie Jason McAddley. After a 45-yard kickoff return by Brian Mitchell, McNabb returned on the next series and fired a 28-yard pass to James Thrash to set up the Eagles at the AC4. Two plays later, McNabb connected with Thrash again on a 2-yard TD pass, his first of four in the 1st half. Early in the 2nd stanza, the Eagles rode a powerful running attack led by Duce Staley to drive 75 yards for another TD – a 3-yard shovel pass from McNabb to RB Dorsey Levens. Leading 14-7, McNabb made his only miscue of the day, an interception to Wilson, who returned it 35 yards to the Eagles 2-yard line. From there, the Cardinals tied the score at 14 with a 2-yard scoring strike from Plummer to Joel Makovicka. McNabb connected on two more scoring strikes to end the half – a 27-yard strike to Todd Pinkston and a 9-yard pass to Staley, who bowled over two Cardinals defenders into the end zone. Staley, who logged a career-high 31 carries for 135 yards, fueled a 212-yard rushing performance by Philadelphia. The Eagles scored the only points of the second half with a 34-yard FG by David Akers in the third quarter and a 4-yard TD run by Thrash in the fourth.

NOTES: Despite the injury that sidelined him for the remainder of the regular season, McNabb completed a career-high 80% of his passes (20-25) and tied a career high with 4 passing TDs. He also moved past Sonny Jurgensen (9,639) and into 5th place on the Eagles all-time passing yardage list ... McNabb became the first Eagle since Randall Cunningham (9/17/89 at Washington) to throw for 4 TDs in a half ... McNabb completed 12 straight passes to end the game, the second-highest mark in team history ... Staley's 12th 100-yard rushing game tied Ricky Watters for third place in team history and his 217 total yards from scrimmage was third most ever in his career ... Thrash recorded a rushing TD and a receiving TD in the same game for the first time in his career ... Four different Eagles caught TDs for the first time since 11/30/97 vs. Cincinnati.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 38, SAN FRANCISCO 17
3COM PARK • 67,919

One week after losing the services of Pro Bowl quarterback Donovan McNabb, the Eagles traveled west for a Monday night clash of NFC powerhouses at San Francisco and trounced the 49ers, 38-17. Koy Detmer, making his first start in nearly three seasons, dismantled the 49ers defense with 3 touchdowns (2 passing, 1 rushing) before exiting the game in the 3rd quarter with a gruesome injury - a dislocated elbow on his non-throwing arm. KR Brian Mitchell etched his name in the NFL record books once again with his 13th kick return for a touchdown - a 76-yard punt return - that broke open a tight game in the 2nd quarter. The Eagles defense also took center stage under the bright Monday lights, limiting Pro Bowlers Jeff Garcia, Terrell Owens, and the rest of the explosive 49ers offense to just 17 points on their home turf. After a scoreless first quarter that resembled the defensive struggle in the 2001 match-up of these two teams (a 13-3 Niners win), the Eagles exploded for 21 points in the 2nd quarter. Detmer orchestrated a 12-play, 90-yard drive that was capped off by a 25-yard scoring strike to Todd Pinkston, who outleaped 49ers CB Jason Webster. After forcing the 49ers into their 4th punt in their first four possessions, Mitchell raced 76 yards for his record setting TD return and gave the Eagles a 14-0 lead. The 49ers stormed right back on their next possession as Garcia found Owens on a 32-yard pass play and later on a 3-yd TD connection. With just over two minutes remaining in the half and the Eagles pinned at their own 26 yard line, the Eagles went back on the offensive. A pair of 21-yard plays (a run by WR James Thrash and a catch by TE Chad Lewis) set up Detmer's 11-yard TD throw to Antonio Freeman that gave the Eagles a comfortable 21-7 advantage at halftime. After the 49ers cut into the lead with a field goal by Jeff Chandler, Detmer went back to work. He connected with a highlight film completion to Thrash at the 49ers 1-yard line. From there Detmer plunged the final yard on a QB sneak to give Philadelphia a commanding 28-10 cushion. After another 49ers punt, Detmer completed a 24-yard pass to 2nd string TE Jeff Thomason down to the 6-yard line of SF. On that play however, Detmer fell awkwardly on his left arm and dislocated the elbow. As Detmer lay in obvious pain on the turf of Candlestick Park, the Eagles training staff raced to the fallen quarterback and lifted him on the medical cart. In a classy display of respect and sportsmanship, dozens of players from each team patted the gutsy quarterback on the back and he exited the game. 2nd-year QB A.J. Feeley took over for Detmer and fired a 1-yard scoring strike to Lewis to give the injury-plagued Eagles a 35-10 lead. Although the 49ers would record another Owens TD reception at the tail end of the 3rd quarter, the Eagles defense harassed 49ers quarterbacks for most of the 4th quarter and held on for an emotional 38-17 triumph.

NOTES: Mitchell entered the game tied with Eric Metcalf with 12 combined returns for TD in regular season action ... RB Duce Staley became the third back in team history to record 1,000 rushing attempts ... Detmer was sacked only once in 26 passing attempts and that came on the first play from scrimmage after slipping on the Candlestick Park turf ... Pinkston set a career high with his 5th TD catch of the season ... There were no turnovers in the game ... Mitchell and Detmer shared Monday Night Football's horse trailer player of the game honors, while Mitchell was awarded the NFC special teams player of the week honors.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 1, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 10, ST. LOUIS 3
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,552

Kurt Warner and the Rams offense were harassed all day long as the Eagles pushed their record to 9-3 with a 10-3 victory at a frigid Veterans Stadium. The Eagles recorded a season-high 8 sacks and 5 takeaways, including an interception by CB Bobby Taylor that was returned 23 yards for the game's only touchdown. Starting their third quarterback in as many games due to injuries to Donovan McNabb (ankle) and Koy Detmer (elbow), the Eagles turned to third-string signal caller A.J. Feeley, who made his first start since his junior year at Oregon in 1999. Feeley completed 14 of 30 pass attempts for 181 yards and had a 24-yard touchdown pass to WR James Thrash taken away early in the first quarter after a penalty on LT Tra Thomas. Taylor broke a scoreless tie later in the quarter after stepping in front of a Warner pass and racing in for a 7-0 lead. Late in the 2nd quarter, Feeley fired a 41-yard completion to WR Todd Pinkston down to the Rams 12-yard line. After their drive stalled, David Akers connected on a 31-yard field goal to give the Eagles a 10-0 lead. The Rams responded quickly with their two-minute offense, driving into the red zone. From there, Brian Dawkins and Al Harris knocked down passes in the end zone to force the Rams into kicking a 22-yard field goal. In the 2nd half, the Eagles limited the Rams to just 92 total yards while recording 6 sacks, including 3 by reserve DE N.D. Kalu. Warner was intercepted by Troy Vincent in the end zone early in the 3rd quarter to thwart another Rams scoring attempt.

NOTES: The Eagles became the first NFL team to win with three different starting quarterbacks since Jacksonville in 1997 (weeks 1-3) ... The game was a rematch of the 2001 NFC Championship game in which the Rams won, 29-24, at St. Louis ... The eight sacks were the most by Philadelphia since 11/19/00 vs. Arizona ... Taylor's TD was the first TD by the Eagles defense since 12/9/01 vs. San Diego (Brian Dawkins returned a fumble 49 yards for a TD) ... The last time the Rams were held without a TD was in a 16-3 loss at Carolina on 12/3/00 ... Kalu's 3 sacks were the most by an Eagle since Mike Mamula recorded 3 vs. New England on 12/19/99 ... He later earned NFC defensive player of the week honors ... Rams RB Marshall Faulk did not start but returned to the field after a two-game absence (ankle injury).

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 27, SEATTLE 20
SEAHAWKS STADIUM • 59,862

Traveling to the West Coast for the second time in less than two weeks, the Eagles shook off the jet lag and posted their fourth straight victory with a 27-20 decision at Seattle. The Eagles also won their third consecutive decision with a back-up quarterback at the helm as A.J. Feeley, native of Ontario, Oregon, made a homecoming of sorts to the Pacific Northwest and fired 2 TD passes in the victory. Bobby Taylor registered a career-best two interceptions to pace another strong defensive effort, which included four sacks and numerous other pressures of Seahawks signal caller Matt Hasselbeck. However, Hasselbeck and the Seahawks started very strong, posting two impressive drives deep into Eagles territory but came away with just 6 points on a pair of Rian Lindell field goals. Down 6-0, Eagles kick return specialist Brian Mitchell sparked the club with a 32-yard scamper on the ensuing kickoff to the PE45. Feeley directed a 9-play drive that resulted in a 6-yard TD pass to WR James Thrash. The next two Seahawk possessions ended with an interception by Taylor. Although the Eagles could not capitalize on the first turnover, they did on the second as Feeley connected with WR Todd Pinkston on a 17-yard completion before RB Duce Staley raced 21 yards for the score and a 14-6 lead. Two field goals by David Akers finished off the scoring in the first half as Philadelphia took a commanding 20-6 cushion into the locker room. Early in the 3rd quarter, the turnover bug struck the Seahawks again as rookie CB Sheldon Brown hauled in a Hasselbeck pass and returned it to the SS39. From there, Feeley connected with Pinkston on a nicely thrown 20-yard scoring pass to widen the lead to 27-6. The Seahawks would battle back with two TDs, including one in the game's final minute, but WR Freddie Mitchell scooped up an onsides kick attempt to seal the win.

NOTES: Taylor, who became the first Eagle to record INTs in consecutive games since Troy Vincent did so in weeks 3-4 of 2000, left the game after his 2nd interception with neck spasms and a mild concussion ... DE Brandon Whiting tied a career high with two sacks. Interestingly, his other two-sack outing came at Seattle in 2001 ... DE N.D. Kalu knifed through the line on a punt attempt by the Seahawks and tackled Seattle punter Jeff Feagles for a 15-yard loss. He also added a sack ... Reid is 2-0 vs. his mentor, Mike Holmgren, who hired him to his Green Bay staff in 1992 ... Rookie SS Michael Lewis made his first NFL start in place of Blaine Bishop (groin) and recorded a team-high 12 tackles.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 15, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 34, WASHINGTON 21
VETERANS STADIUM • 65,615

In the final regular season game ever at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles captured their second consecutive NFC East title for the first time in team history with a 34-21 victory over the visiting Redskins. QB A.J. Feeley won his third consecutive start in place of an injured Donovan McNabb (ankle) and Koy Detmer (elbow), throwing for 220 yards and two touchdowns and LB Carlos Emmons returned a fumble 44 yards for his first career TD to help the Eagles pull away in the 3rd stanza. RB Duce Staley, who accounted for 106 yards of total offense and 2 TDs, opened the scoring in the first quarter after taking a screen pass from Feeley and scampering 38 yards for a 7-0 lead. After a 28-yard field goal by David Akers on the first play of the 2nd quarter, the Eagles used a 53-yard catch-and-run by FB Cecil Martin and a 7-yard completion to Freddie Mitchell to set up Staley's 1-yard TD run. Redskins quarterback Patrick Ramsey fired the first of his three TD passes on the day in the 2nd quarter to cut the lead to 17-7 at the half. The Eagles took complete control of the game in the third quarter, however, as Emmons fell on a fumbled handoff to Ladell Betts. Without being touched on the ground, Emmons rose to his feet and rumbled for the TD. Later, Feeley fired a 6-yard completion to Antonio Freeman to build a 31-7 cushion.

NOTES: Brian Mitchell moved past Walter Payton and into 2nd place on the NFL's all-time combined net yards list ... David Akers shattered his own club record of most points in season with a 45-yard field goal in the 4th quarter ... The Eagles became the first team since the Dallas Cowboys (1995-96) to capture two straight NFC East championships ... The Eagles wore green jerseys and green pants for the second time in team history ... Michael Lewis started in place of strong safety Blaine Bishop for the 2nd straight week and recorded his first career sack.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 21, 2002
PHILADELPHIA 27, DALLAS 3
TEXAS STADIUM • 63,209

The Eagles tied a team record with their 12th win of the season as they dominated the Dallas Cowboys, 27-3, in front of a nationally televised audience (ESPN) at Texas Stadium. Philadelphia used a suffocating performance by their defense, holding the Cowboys to just 146 yards (2.9 per play), a 0-12 conversion rate on third down, while forcing three more takeaways, including an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown by LB Shawn Barber. 3rd string QB A.J. Feeley improved his record to 4-0 as a starter as he threw for 253 yards and a TD and RB Duce Staley eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the season with 56 yards and a touchdown that opened the scoring in the first stanza. That touchdown was set up by a 25-yard punt return by Brian Mitchell that put the Eagles at their own 47-yard line. Early in the 2nd quarter, Philadelphia faced a 3rd-and-11 at their own 26-yard line. With an all-out blitz coming by the Cowboys, Feeley neatly handed off to rookie RB Brain Westbrook, who raced 18 yards for a clutch first down. Feeley later completed a picture-perfect touchdown pass to WR Todd Pinkston (14 yards), who neatly kept both feet in bounds while hauling in the touch pass by the 2nd-year quarterback. Later in the quarter with the Eagles pinned in at their own 2-yard line, Feeley calmly directed an 84-yard drive that led to a 32-yard field goal by Akers to give the Eagles a 17-0 lead. On that drive, Feeley connected with Antonio Freeman on a 41-yard completion down to the Cowboys 6-yard line. Early in the 3rd quarter, Brian Dawkins sacked and forced a fumble by Cowboys QB Chad Hutchinson that was recovered by DT Corey Simon. But the Eagles could not convert as Feeley had a pass tipped and intercepted by Roy Williams in the end zone. Down 17-0, Cowboys PR Joey Galloway sparked the Cowboys with a 71-yard punt return to the PE9. After a 6-yard run by Emmitt Smith, Carlos Emmons stopped Hutchinson on a scramble before Dawkins pressured him into throwing a pass away. On 4th down, the Cowboys went for it, but Hutchinson misfired on a fade route in the end zone to keep Dallas off the board. The Eagles shutout bid ended early in the 4th quarter when Billy Cundiff nailed a 42-yard field goal. Down 17-3, the Cowboys appeared poised for a comeback when Feeley was intercepted by Pete Hunter. But on a first down play at the PE21, Eagles DE Brandon Whiting hit Hutchinson as he was attempting a pass to Smith. The wobbly ball was caught by Barber and returned 80 yards for a touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Cowboys castaway Keith Adams drilled Woodrow Dantzler who fumble away the ball to Dameane Douglas. Akers converted a 39-yard field goal attempt to finish the scoring at 27-3.

NOTES: The Eagles defense had its best game in terms of 3rd down conversions in team history. It was the fifth time in team history they have held an opponent without a 3rd down conversion and the first since 12/14/96 at NY Jets (0-8). In 1992, the Broncos had the most 3rd down situations (11) without gaining a first down vs. the Eagles. Since the statistic was first kept by the NFL in 1972, the all-time record is 0-14 set by Denver in 1975 vs. San Diego ... The Eagles shattered the team record for most points scored in a season (396 in 1990) and won their sixth straight game for the first time since 1991 ... The Eagles defense has recorded at least one touchdown in each of their last three games at Texas Stadium ... Westbrook posted a career-high 55 rushing yards ... The Eagles have outscored the Cowboys, 204-64, in their last 6 games vs. Dallas ... Barber's interception return for a TD was the 2nd of his career ... The Eagles allowed season lows in total net yards (146), first downs (9), and third down conversions (0-12).

GAME 16

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 2002
NEW YORK 10, PHILADELPHIA 7 (OT)
GIANTS STADIUM • 78,782

The Eagles needed a win to clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs. The Giants needed a win to clinch a wild card playoff berth. The stage was set for an emotional battle at Giants Stadium and both teams treated the crowd to a playoff-like atmosphere in what was the regular season finale. Giants kicker Matt Bryant booted a game-winning, 39-yard field goal five minutes into the overtime session as the New Yorkers stung the Eagles with a 10-7 defeat. The game stretched into overtime after Eagles kicker David Akers misfired on a 35-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in regulation. The Eagles jumped out of the gate quickly on their very first possession of the game, driving 67 yards in four plays. After a run for a loss and a false start penalty, the Eagles faced 2nd and 18 deep in their own territory. But A.J. Feeley, who made his fifth start in place of injured QBs Donovan McNabb and Koy Detmer, fired two long completions – a 20 yarder to Jeff Thomason and a 35 yarder by Duce Staley – to get the Eagles down to the Giants 20 yard line. From there, Eagles coach Andy Reid reached into his bag of tricks and utilized a double reverse. WR James Thrash took the handoff from WR Freddie Mitchell and scampered through a maze of blockers 20 yards into the end zone. On the ensuing drive, the Giants were poised to tie the game after driving to the Eagles 6-yard line. But the Eagles picked a great time to record their first-ever interception vs. Kerry Collins (239 previous attempts without an Eagles INT) as rookie SS Michael Lewis snared a deflected pass in the end zone in front of Giants TE Jeremy Shockey. Late in the 2nd half the Giants found themselves deep inside Eagles territory at the 3-yard line. But Eagles MLB Levon Kirkland disrupted a handoff attempt to Tiki Barber and Brandon Whiting pounced on the loose ball to keep the Giants scoreless once again. Early in the 3rd quarter, Barber was forced to fumble by Lewis at midfield. Kirkland recovered, but the Eagles stalled on the drive and were forced to punt. The Giants drove right back down the field once again, but missed a 36-yard field goal. The shutout was intact by the Eagles until midway through the 4th quarter, when Shockey hauled in an 8-yard pass from Collins to tie the score. After the Eagles downed a punt inside the Giants 10-yard line, Barber fumbled for the third time as Brian Dawkins stripped the ball away and Lewis came up with it at the Giants 26. Staley ran six straight times to the Giants 17-yard line, but Akers misfired on the field goal attempt. The Eagles won the coin toss in overtime and used a 32-yard return by Brian Mitchell to set them up at their own 45-yard line. Feeley, however, was intercepted by Shaun Williams at the NYG37. The Giants drove to the Eagles 22-yard line to set up the game-winning field goal.

NOTES: Lewis started his fourth straight game in place of Blaine Bishop and recorded his first career INT, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery ... Brian Mitchell became the 2nd player in NFL history (Jerry Rice) to record 22,000 combined net yards ... Freddie Mitchell started in place of an injured Todd Pinkston (toe) and caught four passes ... Hugh Douglas moved past Greg Brown (50.5) and into third place on the Eagles all-time sack list ... The Eagles were held to season lows in points (7), total net yards (209), and first downs (9).

NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 2003
PHILADELPHIA 20, ATLANTA 6
VETERANS STADIUM • 66,452

The Eagles advanced to the NFC Championship for the 2nd straight season with a 20-6 win over the visiting Atlanta Falcons. Donovan McNabb returned to action for the first time in nearly two months after a suffering a broken ankle on November 17 and completed 67% of his passes for 247 yards and a touchdown. McNabb also displayed his mobility on his 2nd play from scrimmage, dashing out of the pocket for a 19-yard running play. Although the Eagles did not score on that drive, they did light the scoreboard quickly thereafter. On the Falcons next possession, Eagles cornerback Bobby Taylor snared a Michael Vick aerial at the Falcons 39-yard line and scooted into the end zone for a 7-0 lead. The Eagles defense harassed Vick all day long, sacking him 3 times, intercepting him twice, and limiting him to just 30 yards rushing on 6 attempts. Later in the first quarter, McNabb converted two big gains with his arm – a 15 yarder to Chad Lewis and a 24 yarder to Todd Pinkston – to set up a 34-yard field goal by David Akers. Eagles DT Corey Simon smothered another Falcons drive after halting Falcons RB T.J. Duckett on a 3rd-and-1 rushing attempt. McNabb connected with James Thrash on a 42-yard pass play to set up another Akers field goal giving Philadelphia a 13-0 lead. Vick orchestrated two long scoring drives that ended in field goals to finish the first half at 13-6. The third quarter was marred by a pair of missed field goals as Akers nailed the upright on a 51-yard attempt and Falcons kicker Jay Feely misfired on a 37-yard attempt. After the Eagles held the Falcons on a drive early in the 4th, McNabb embarked on a crucial drive with 12:08 to play at their own 25-yard line. McNabb completed key third down passes to running backs Dorsey Levens (17 yards) and Brian Westbrook (13 yards) as the Eagles drove into Falcons territory. But the Eagles could not convert a third-and-one situation at the Falcons 35. With 6:34 to play and a strong wind howling in their faces, Eagles head coach Andy Reid decided to go for it. Not only did they convert the first down, Thrash hauled in a 10-yard completion from McNabb, eluded Falcons cornerback Ray Buchanan, and raced the final 25 yards into the end zone. Armed with a 20-6 lead, the Eagles defense finished exactly how they started – with an interception. This time by FS Brian Dawkins who put the finishing touches on a defensive masterpiece.

NOTES: With his 4th postseason win, Reid moved past Greasy Neale and Dick Vermeil and into first place on the franchise's all-time list for most wins in the playoffs ... The Eagles did not commit a turnover for the first time in franchise playoff history ... Taylor, who has played in more playoff games than any player in team history, recorded the longest INT return in his career and earned NFL defensive player of the week honors ... Akers became the club's all-time postseason leader in points scored, field goals, and extra points ... McNabb tied Ron Jaworski's club record for TD passes in the playoffs and surpassed his record in completions ... Prior to the game, Simon's wife, Natasha, gave birth to the couple's first child, Corey Jr. He also recorded a sack of Vick.

NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

SUNDAY, JANUARY 19, 2003
TAMPA BAY 27, PHILADELPHIA 10
VETERANS STADIUM • 66,713

The Eagles came up short in the NFC Championship game for the second straight season as they fell to the visiting Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 27-10, in the final football game ever at Veterans Stadium. The Vet was rocking early on as Brian Mitchell took the opening kickoff 70 yards to the TB26. Two plays later, Duce Staley raced 20 yards for a touchdown giving the Eagles a 7-0 lead just 52 seconds into the game. However, the Bucs responded on the ensuing possession with a 48-yard field goal by Martin Gramatica. Later in the first quarter, Eagles CB Bobby Taylor snared a pass by Brad Johnson inside Bucs territory. The Eagles could not respond with points and instead pinned the Bucs inside the 5-yard line on a pooch punt by Lee Johnson. Tampa Bay did get some breathing room and faced a 3rd-and-2 situation at their own 24 when Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius on a 71-yard catch-and-run down to the PE5. Two plays later, Bucs RB Mike Alstott plunged in from one yard out to give them a 10-7 lead. The Eagles tied the game in the second quarter with a 30-yard field goal by David Akers, but Tampa Bay used a 9-yard scoring pass from Brad Johnson to Keyshawn Johnson late in the 2nd quarter to take the lead for good. The Eagles offense struggled to get on track throughout most of the 2nd half as the Bucs took a 20-10 lead into the fourth quarter. Down by 10, Donovan McNabb and the Eagles moved deep into Bucs territory with under four minutes to play and threatened to shift the momentum back in their favor. But Tampa Bay CB Ronde Barber stepped in front of a McNabb pass and raced 92 yards for a score that ended the Eagles comeback attempt.

NOTES: Prior to the game, honorary captain Wilbert Montgomery took a handoff from Ron Jaworski in a re-enactment of his 42-yard TD run in the 1980 NFC Championship game win over Dallas ... McNabb moved past Ron Jaworski and into first place on the club's all-time post-season list for attempts (248) and past Randall Cunningham for yards passing (1,459) ... With kickoff returns of 70 and 43 yards, Mitchell had the longest and 3rd longest KORs in Eagles post-season history.

1943 STEAGLES

With the shortage of manpower due to World War II, the Eagles and Steelers merged for the 1943 football season to become the Steagles. The Steagles, who finished their only season 5-4-1, split their home games between Philadelphia's Shibe Park and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

WHAT WAS THE PLAYOFF BOWL?

Following the 1961 and 1966 seasons, the Eagles participated in the Playoff Bowl. If case you never heard of the Playoff Bowl, here's the scoop. From 1960-1969, the National Football League took each conference's runner-up and matched them up in a consolation game at the Orange Bowl in Miami. The Eagles, by the way, lost both of their Playoff Bowl appearances (28-10 to Detroit in 1962 and 20-14 to Baltimore in 1967).

EAGLES ON FOREIGN SOIL

During their history, the Eagles have played four preseason games outside of the United States, compiling a 1-3 record along the way. The Eagles three most recent ventures abroad were as participants in the NFL's American Bowl series, a series that has included games in London, Berlin, and Tokyo. In 1989, Philadelphia opened its preseason with a victory over Cleveland in the fourth annual American Bowl in London, England. The Birds returned to London's Wembley Stadium two years later for the sixth American Bowl in Great Britain and fell to the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills in the preseason opener for both clubs. The results of the Eagles games on foreign soil are as follows:

HONOR ROLL INDUCTEES

In 1987, the Philadelphia Eagles Honor Roll was created in order to pay tribute to outstanding members of the organization. Automatically included at the inception of the Honor Roll were the 11 members of the Hall of Fame who played all or part of their NFL careers with the Eagles.

CHUCK BEDNARIK #60

Center/Linebacker
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1949-62

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1967
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

As long as there is football in Philadelphia, the name Chuck Bednarik will long be remembered. "Concrete Charley" played in 253 of a possible 256 games with the Eagles during his illustrious 14-year career. Elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, he played in eight Pro Bowl games (an Eagles record) and was named the most valuable player of the 1954 Pro Bowl. Although the Eagles won the league championship in 1949, Bednarik's rookie year, his star shined brightest in 1960 when he played every minute at both center and linebacker during the Birds 1960 NFL Championship victory over Green Bay. In addition to his Hall of Fame status (he was inducted in 1967 with former Eagles coach Earle "Greasy" Neale as his presenter), Bednarik was named to the Eagles' "All-Time Team," and was cited by the nation's press as "Lineman of the Decade" for the 1950s. Born May 1, 1925, in Bethlehem, PA, Bednarik was an All-America selection at the University of Pennsylvania in 1948 before joining the Eagles as their first selection in the 1949 NFL draft.

DE BENNEVILLE "BERT" BELL

Owner
Pennsylvania
Years with Eagles: 1933-40

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1963
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The first owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, Bell proved to be a man of extraordinary vision. As owner of the Birds (1933-40), co-owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers (1941-46), and as NFL commissioner (1946-59), Bell was responsible for instituting the college draft and setting up visionary television policies, including the implementation of home-game blackouts. In 1933, he moved the Frankford Yellowjackets to Philadelphia and renamed them the Eagles, in honor of the symbol of President Franklin Roosevelt's National Recovery Act. In 1946, Bell moved the NFL office from Chicago to the Philadelphia suburb of Bala Cynwyd, PA where it remained until his death on October 11, 1959. Bell played and coached at the University of Pennsylvania where he led the Quakers to the Rose Bowl in 1916. A founder of the Maxwell Football Club, Bell was born February 25, 1895, in Philadelphia. He was elected to the Hall of Fame posthumously in 1963. A member of the inaugural H.O.F. class, Bell was represented by Steelers owner Art Rooney at the induction ceremony.

BILL BERGEY #66

Middle Linebacker
Arkansas State
Years with Eagles: 1974-80

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

The 6-foot-4, 245-pound product of Arkansas State regularly set the defensive tempo of a game with his intimidating, hard-hitting tackles and his explosive quickness. After coming to the Eagles in a 1974 trade with Cincinnati (in exchange for Philadelphia's first round picks in '77 & '78 as well as a second round pick in '78), Bergey recorded nearly 1,200 tackles in seven seasons as an Eagle. He was a key factor in the Birds' rise to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. His play also earned him Eagles' MVP status three times and trips to the Pro Bowl on four occasions. Bergey was born February 9, 1945 in South Dakota, NY.

BILL BRADLEY #28

Free Safety
Texas
Years with Eagles: 1969-76

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1993

One of the most versatile players in Eagles' history, Bill Bradley played eight years (1969-76) with the Birds as a defensive back, punter, and kick returner. As of today, over 25 years after the end of his Eagles career, Bradley remains tied for the team's all-time lead in career interceptions (34) and still ranks first on the Birds' all-time interception yardage list (536). As an Eagle, Bradley earned three trips to the Pro Bowl (following the 1972-74 seasons) and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons (1971 & 1972). It was in that 1971 campaign that Bradley set an Eagles' single-season record for most INTs and most INT return yards (11-248). Originally the Birds' third round draft choice out of the University of Texas in 1969, Bradley also handled the majority of the Birds' punting duties for six of his eight years with the club, averaging 39.0 yards per punt. Currently, Bradley is the New York Jets defensive backs coach, a post he has held since 2001.

TOM BROOKSHIER #40

Defensive Back
Colorado
Years with Eagles: 1953, 1956-61

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1989

An inspirational player who could turn a game around with one big play, Tom Brookshier spent seven seasons with the Eagles and collected 20 interceptions along the way. Originally a tenth-round pick from the University of Colorado, Brookshier made an immediate impact with 8 interceptions in his rookie season of 1953. Then, after a two-year stint in the Air Force, the defensive back returned to the Eagles and twice earned all-pro honors - first in 1959, and again in 1960 as a member of Philadelphia's world championship team. Upon retiring as a player, Brookshier entered the broadcasting field and went on to be teamed with Pat Summerall on CBS's telecasts of NFL games including the 1980 Super Bowl.

JEROME BROWN #99

Defensive Tackle Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1996
Miami (FL)
Years with Eagles: 1987-91

A two-time Pro Bowl selection and a member of one of the most dominant defensive lines in NFL history, Jerome Brown's life was cut short at the age of 27. Brown was killed in a tragic automobile accident on June 25, 1992, in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The Eagles' first round draft pick out of the University of Miami in 1987, he quickly became a fan favorite not only because of his outstanding ability but because of the passionate leadership and competitive fire he displayed. Despite playing only four years in the NFL, Brown will long be remembered as a key figure on the Birds' legendary 1991 defense - a unit that led the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, against the run, and vs. the pass. He capped the 1991 season by joining fellow linemates Reggie White and Clyde Simmons as starters in the Pro Bowl. Born February 4, 1965 in Brooksville, he went on to attend that town's Hernando High.

TIMMY BROWN #22

Running Back Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1990
Ball State
Years with Eagles: 1960-67

One of the most electrifying players in Eagles' history, Brown holds the club record for longest kickoff return with his 105-yarder vs. Cleveland in 1961. Brown also set a then-NFL record for all-purpose yardage in a season with 2,428 yards in 1963. Today, he still shares the NFL record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a single game with two vs. Dallas in 1966 (90 and 93 yards). Originally a 27th round draft pick of Green Bay in 1959, Brown spent time on the Packers taxi squad that year and was then signed by the Eagles as a free agent just after the start of the 1960 season. Brown finished his Eagles career in 1967 as the third leading rusher in club history in terms of both yards (3,703) and TDs (29) on 805 carries.

HAROLD CARMICHAEL #17

Wide Receiver Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987
Southern
Years with Eagles: 1971-83

The 6-foot, 8-inch Carmichael was not only one of the tallest receivers ever to play the game, he was one of the best. The Birds' seventh round pick out of Southern University in 1971, Carmichael played 13 seasons with the Eagles before finishing his career with the Dallas Cowboys in 1984. Upon retirement, he ranked sixth on the NFL's all-time reception list with 590 catches, including 589 as an Eagle, the most in team history. Today he also remains the Birds' career receiving leader in terms of yards (8,978) and touchdowns (79). During his tenure with Philadelphia, Carmichael led the Birds in receptions eight times. His outstanding play earned him trips to the Pro Bowl following the '74, '79, '80, and '81 seasons. Moreover, he was a key figure on the Eagles 1980 club that defeated Dallas in the NFC Championship Game and earned a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders. Carmichael was born on Sept. 22, 1949 in Jacksonville, FL, where he attended William Raines High. On April 28, 1998, Harold was named the Eagles' Director of Player Relations.

OTHO DAVIS

Head Trainer — Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1999
Lamar University and Kent State
Years with Eagles: 1973-1995

One of the most highly respected men in his field, Davis, the Eagles' head athletic trainer for 23 years, was a five-time recipient of the National Athletic Trainers Association's "Professional Trainer of the Year" award. JIM GALLAGHER

Executive — Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1995
Temple
Years with Eagles: 1949-1995

He never put on a uniform, he never played a down. But many would say that "Jimmy Gal," an Eagles executive from 1949-95, was a first round pick in his own right. In that remarkable 46-year span, Gallagher worked with 17 head coaches and for 12 owners, GMs, and team presidents. During that time, Gallagher saw the Eagles capture two NFL titles and one NFC crown, and watched the Birds play home games in four different stadiums. A native of Philadelphia, a graduate of Northeast Catholic High School and an Army veteran of the Korean War, Gallagher joined the Eagles in 1949 and worked nearly every phase of the operation until being named personnel director in 1957. Gallagher went on to serve stints as director of public relations and associate director of sales and marketing before being named the club's director of alumni relations/traveling secretary in 1990. It was in that capacity that Jimmy Gal served until retiring on August 1, 1995.

BILL HEWITT #56

End — Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1971
Michigan — Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987
Years with Eagles: 1936-39, 1943

Considered by many to be the best "two-way" end the league ever produced, Hewitt was the first player to be named All-NFL with two different teams - the Bears (1933, '34, '36) and Eagles (1937). A Michigan Wolverine and a member of the 1933 NFL Champion Chicago Bears before he joined the Eagles, the fast, elusive Hewitt revolutionized the end position. Nicknamed "Stinky," Hewitt is known for pitching a lateral to Bill Karr for the touchdown that won the 1933 championship game for the Bears. He also was credited with inventing many trick plays. Hewitt, who played without a helmet until a rule change forced him to wear headgear, was born October 8, 1909, in Bay City, MI. He died in an automobile accident on January 14, 1947, at the age of 37. Twenty four years after his death, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was represented by his daughter Mary Ellen Cocozza at the induction ceremony and was formally presented for induction by Upton Bell, then the GM of the New England Patriots.

RON JAWORSKI #7

Quarterback
Youngstown State
Years with Eagles: 1977-86

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1992

Few players have had as great an impact on their teams as Ron Jaworski had on the Eagles of the late 1970s and early 1980s. After coming to the Birds in a 1977 trade with the Los Angeles Rams (in exchange for the rights to TE Charles Young), "Jaws" went on to enjoy a stellar 10-year career in Philadelphia. With the Eagles he set seven club passing records, including career marks for completions (2,088), touchdowns (175), and yards (26,963). After leading the Eagles to the NFC title in 1980 and a berth in Super Bowl XV vs. the Raiders, the Youngstown State product earned a Pro Bowl selection and was named the NFL Player of the Year by UPI and the Maxwell Football Club. Known throughout his career as one of the NFL's most durable quarterbacks, Jaworski earned the respect of his peers by starting 116 consecutive regular season games. His outstanding career, coupled with his involvement in numerous charitable and civic events, undoubtedly made him one of the most popular Eagles of all time. Jaworski was born March 23, 1951 in the Buffalo suburb of Lackawanna, NY, and attended Lackawanna High. Currently, Jaworski is an analyst for ESPN, CEO of RJ Management and Vice President of the South Jersey Chamber of Commerce.

Years with Eagles: 1957-63

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1983
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Despite spending the last 10 years of his career with the Redskins, Christian Adolph (Sonny) Jurgensen is remembered not only as one of the finest quarterbacks ever to wear an Eagles uniform, but as one of the best passers in NFL history. A fourth round draft pick of the Eagles in 1957, Jurgensen - a future Hall of Famer himself - was a backup to another Hall of Fame quarterback, Norm Van Brocklin, on the Birds' 1960 NFL Championship team. The following year the rifle-armed red-head took over as the Eagles starting signal caller and threw 32 TD passes, a single-season mark which still stands as a club record. In that stellar 1961 season he completed 235 of 436 passes for 3,723 yards. Jurgensen went on to finish his NFL career in 1975 with 32,224 passing yards. Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1998
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1988

A game-breaking receiver from the University of Oklahoma, the 5-foot, 9-inch, 170-pound McDonald dazzled NFL fans with his acrobatic receptions for 13 seasons. McDonald led or shared the team lead in receptions from 1959-62. In Philadelphia's 1960 NFL championship season he registered 13 TDs among his 64 receptions. In fact, McDonald capped that season with 3 catches, including a 35-yd TD in the Championship Game victory over Green Bay. He led the league in TD receptions in 1958 (9, tie) and in 1961 (13) when he also paced the NFL with 1,144 receiving yards. Born July 26, 1934, in Roy, NM, McDonald starred at Oklahoma despite having lost half of his right thumb in a freak motorcycle accident in high school. As a senior, he won the Maxwell Award as the nation's top collegian and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting behind Paul Hornung and Johnny Majors. He was a third round selection of the Birds in 1957 and went on to be named to the Pro Bowl six times (five times as a starter). McDonald finished his NFL career with the Cowboys (1964), Rams (1965-66), Falcons (1967) and Browns (1968). On August 1, 1998, McDonald was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

WILBERT MONTGOMERY #31

Running Back
Abilene Christian
Years with Eagles: 1977-84

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

Montgomery joined the Eagles as a quiet, shy, sixth round pick out of Abilene Christian in 1977. Eight years later, he finished his Eagles' career as the club's all-time rushing leader in terms of yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465). After playing for Detroit in 1985 (he was traded to the Lions that preseason), Montgomery retired as the 16th leading rusher in NFL history with 6,789 yards. Despite his smallish 5-foot-10, 195-pound frame, Montgomery won the hearts of Philadelphia fans with his dogged determination. His 194-yard effort in the 1980 NFC Championship Game victory over Dallas, including a 42-yard touchdown on the Birds' first offensive play, will never be forgotten. Montgomery scored 58 career TDs as an Eagle (45 of which came on the ground) including 14 combined TDs rushing and receiving during the 1979 season. He also tallied 6 playoff touchdowns, including 3 in the 1980 post-season when he averaged 104 rushing yards per game in three performances (including the Super Bowl against Oakland). Montgomery played in the Pro Bowl following the 1978 and 1979 seasons. He is currently the St. Louis Rams running backs coach and has been a member of the Rams staff since 1997.

EARL "GREASY" NEALE

Head Coach
West Virginia Wesleyan
Years with Eagles: 1941-50

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1969
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

After coaching extensively on the collegiate level at Marietta, Washington and Jefferson (1922 Rose Bowl team), Virginia, and West Virginia, Neale broke into the NFL in 1941 and quickly turned the Eagles into contenders. He went on to lead the Birds to three straight Eastern Division crowns and back-to-back NFL championships in 1948 and 1949. Neale was, in particular, recognized as a master of the T formation. From 1918 to 1922, just prior to beginning his coaching career, Neale was a scrappy outfielder with the Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia Phillies. He was born in Parkersburg, WV, on November 2, 1891. Two years after Neale served as presenter when former Eagle great Chuck Bednarik was inducted into the Hall of Fame, Bednarik returned the favor, presenting Neale to the assemblage at Canton, OH, upon the latter's induction into the Hall in 1969.

PETE PIHOS #35

End
Indiana
Years with Eagles: 1947-55

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1970
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

An integral member of the Eagles' 1948 and 1949 championship teams, Pihos enjoyed a career that included six trips to the Pro Bowl and three straight seasons leading the NFL in receptions. The All-America selection from the University of Indiana may best be remembered for his game-winning catch in the 1949 NFL championship game vs. the Rams. Pihos came to the Eagles in 1947 and was a starter on offense for eight of his nine years with the team. He played defense in 1952 but returned to the offensive unit a year later. During his Eagles career, Pihos caught 373 passes, a figure that still ranks third on the Eagles' all-time list (his 61 TD catches also remain tied for third best in team history). He led the league in receptions and receiving yards in 1953 (63-1,049) and again in 1955 (62-864). In between, he tied for the league lead in catches with 60 in 1954. After the advent of the Pro Bowl in 1951, he made it six times in as many seasons.

MIKE QUICK #82

Wide Receiver
North Carolina State
Years with Eagles: 1982-90

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1995

One of the most graceful and athletic wide receivers ever to play the game, Mike Quick electrified Eagles fans for nine years. During that time, the former first round pick from North Carolina State distinguished himself as one of the NFL's premier pass catchers. A fixture among the league leaders during his career, Quick also became a regular selection to the Pro Bowl. Five consecutive times (following the 1983-87 seasons), the Hamlet, NC, native was voted to the Pro Bowl by his peers. At the conclusion of his brilliant career, Quick had etched his name into the Eagles record books, ranking among the club's all-time career and single-season receiving leaders in terms of catches, yardage, and TDs. Today, Quick serves as color analyst on radio broadcasts of Eagles games.

PETE RETZLAFF #44

End
South Dakota State
Years with Eagles: 1956-66

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1989

Acquired off waivers at the start of the 1956 season from Detroit for $100, the 6-foot-1, 210-pound Retzlaff went on to earn all-pro honors five times as an Eagle. At the time of his retirement, Retzlaff was the Eagles' all-time leader in receptions (452) and receiving yardage (7,412). Today, over 30 years later, those figures still stand as the second highest totals in club history. A 22nd round draft pick of the Lions in 1953, Retzlaff also scored 47 touchdowns in his career and was selected to the Pro Bowl five times. When Philadelphia acquired his services, coach Buck Shaw converted the fullback into one of the league's all-time best tight ends. Nicknamed "the Baron," Retzlaff went on to receive both the Washington Touchdown Club's Pro Football Player of the Year Award and the Maxwell Club's Bert Bell Award in 1965 when he was 66-1,190-10TDs receiving. Instrumental in founding the NFL Player's Association, Retzlaff later served as the Birds' general manager from 1969-72.

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1981
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Ringo began his career as the Packers' seventh round draft choice out of Syracuse in 1953. Despite being small for an offensive lineman, his quickness and determination enabled Ringo to earn all-pro honors eight times and play in 10 Pro Bowls. He also played in three NFL championship games. Ringo, who ignored numerous injuries to start in a then NFL-record 182 straight games from 1954-67, played on Green Bay's 1961 and 1962 World Championship teams. After 11 years with the Packers, Ringo spent his final four seasons as a player with the Eagles. Following his playing career, Ringo moved into the coaching ranks and became head coach of the Buffalo Bills from 1976-77. He was born November 21, 1931, in Orange, N.J., and inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981 with Willard "Whiz" Rinehart, his former coach at Phillipsburgh (NJ) High, serving as his presenter.

JERRY SISEMORE #76

Texas
Years with Eagles: 1973-84

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1991

A first round draft pick of the Eagles in 1973 (the 3rd player selected overall) this University of Texas product became one of the cornerstones of an offensive line that helped lead the Eagles to the 1980 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV. Sisemore ranks fifth on the Eagles' all-time career list in both number of seasons (12) and games played (156). During his illustrious career, Sisemore started 127 consecutive games and was selected to the Pro Bowl following the 1979 and 1981 seasons. Overall, he teamed with fellow tackle Stan Walters, QB Ron Jaworski, RB Wilbert Montgomery and WR Harold Carmichael (all members of the Eagles Honor Roll) to power an offense that helped Philadelphia reach the playoffs five straight times from 1978-82.

NORM VAN BROCKLIN #11

Quarterback
Oregon
Years with Eagles: 1958-60

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1971
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A 1971 inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Van Brocklin was a member of one of one of the Hall's most distinguished classes - a group that included Jim Brown, Vince Lombardi, Andy Robustelli, and Y.A. Tittle. Acquired in a 1958 trade with the LA Rams that many recall as the biggest deal in Eagles history, Van Brocklin went on to quarterback the Birds for three years. The fiery signal caller helped turn a last place Eagles club into one that eventually captured the NFL championship in 1960. As such, "The Dutchman" teamed with future Hall-of-Famer Chuck Bednarik to pace the Eagles to their third NFL championship with a 17-13 victory over Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers at Franklin Field. This storybook ending would garner Van Brocklin the league's MVP award and provide a fitting end to his playing career as both he and head coach Buck Shaw announced their retirements at the end of the season. In addition to ranking with the league's all-time great quarterbacks, "Dutch" was an accomplished punter, twice leading the league in punting average. An All-America selection at the University of Oregon, he went on to participate in 10 Pro Bowls. Van Brocklin threw for 23,611 yards and 173 TDs in an NFL career that spanned 12 seasons. He then went on to be the head coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1961-66) and Atlanta Falcons (1968-73).

STEVE VAN BUREN #15

Halfback
Louisiana State
Years with Eagles: 1944-51

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1965
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

The Birds' first round draft choice (the fifth player selected overall) out of Louisiana State in 1944, Van Buren signed his first contract, in the amount of $4,000, with an Eagles team that had never finished above fourth place. They finished second in Van Buren's rookie season, were runners-up two more years and then won three straight division titles. In 1948 and '49, the Birds won consecutive league championships and Van Buren cemented his place in history as one of the most talented backs ever to play the game. Van Buren, nicknamed "Wham-Bam" by his teammates for his quick and punishing running style, twice surpassed the 1,000-yard mark while capturing the NFL rushing title on four occasions. In the 1948 title game against the Chicago Cardinals, he scored the game's only touchdown in a blinding snow storm. A year later, he waded through mud and torrential rains in the Los Angeles Coliseum to rush for 196 yards while helping the Eagles defeat the Rams and capture the title once again. His 205 yards rushing vs. Pittsburgh earlier that same season (1949) still stands as a club record. Similarly, his 5,860 career rushing yards and 77 touchdowns both rank second in Eagles history. A five-time all-pro, Van Buren was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1965 with fellow Hall member Clark Hinkle, a former Packers running back, serving as his presenter. In 1987, Van Buren was named to the Eagles Honor Roll. Seven years later in 1994, he was also selected to the NFL's 75th Anniversary Team. Van Buren was born December 28, 1920, in Tela, Spanish Honduras.

DICK VERMEIL

Head Coach
San Jose State
Years with Eagles: 1976-82

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1994

Dick Vermeil, the Eagles head coach from 1976-82, will long be remembered as a workaholic and perfectionist ... but he will be remembered most as a winner. A success at every level of coaching, from his first high school head coaching job in 1960, to a stint at UCLA in 1974-75 and, of course, with the Eagles, Vermeil attacked his profession with a degree of passion rarely seen. A native of Calistoga, CA, in the Napa Valley, Vermeil became a hero in Philadelphia where he coached the Eagles into the playoffs five consecutive times from 1978-82, including a trip to Super Bowl XV as NFC Champions in January of 1981. Vermeil's Eagles earned that trip to the Super Bowl after capturing the NFC East division title with a 12-4 regular season record and after defeating their arch rival, the Dallas Cowboys, in the NFC title game at Veterans Stadium. After one more season at the Birds' helm, Vermeil resigned, moving into the broadcasting booth before returning to the NFL in 1997 as head coach of the St. Louis Rams. After leading the Rams to a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV, he retired once again only to later take the head coaching position in Kansas City in 2001 where he still remains.

Originally a ninth round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1972, Walters joined the Eagles via trade in 1975. The Syracuse University product went on to play in 122 consecutive regular and post-season games for Philadelphia. Walters provided solid play at left tackle throughout his career, anchoring the team's offensive line (along with fellow Honor Roll member Jerry Sisemore), especially during the successful seasons of the late 1970s and early 1980s. A key member of the Birds' 1980 NFC championship squad that participated in Super Bowl XV, Walters was honored by his peers following the '78 and '79 seasons when he was selected to the Pro Bowl. After his playing career, Walters became a color commentator on radio broadcasts of Eagles games until 1997.

ALEX WOJCIECHOWICZ #53

Center
Fordham
Years with Eagles: 1946-50

Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee, 1968
Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1987

A two-time All-America selection at Fordham where he was the center on the famed `Seven Blocks of Granite' line, Wojciechowicz was the Detroit Lions' top draft pick in 1938. One of football's original "iron men" for eight years with the Lions, Wojciechowicz joined the Eagles in 1946 as a defensive specialist and helped the Birds capture back-to-back NFL championships in '48 and '49. Known for his exceptionally wide stance as a center, "Wojie" also was an outstanding pass defender who pilfered 16 passes during his pro career. Born August 12, 1915, in South River, NJ, Wojciechowicz organized the National Football League Alumni Association. A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's class of 1968, "Wojie" was presented for induction by Earle "Greasy" Neale, the Eagles head coach during his five seasons with Philadelphia.

1948 AND 1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

Eagles Honor Roll Inductee, 1999

No NFL team before or since ever posted consecutive shutouts in championship play. No NFL team can claim to be more dominant over a two-year period. The Eagles won back-to-back NFL Championships in 1948 and 1949, first shutting out the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, and then blanking the Los Angeles Rams, 14-0. The foundation of this team began in 1947, when the Eagles lost to the Cardinals, 28-21, in the championship game. Under legendary head coach Greasy Neale, Philadelphia finished the 1948 regular season with a 9-2-1 record and took on the Cardinals in the championship game with a foot of snow covering Shibe Park. Superstar running back Steve Van Buren scored the game's only touchdown on a 5-yard TD run, while the defense limited the Cards to just 6 total first downs. The Eagles continued their dominance in 1949 with an 11-1 record in the regular season and a victory over the Rams in the championship game on a rain-soaked Los Angeles Coliseum field. Van Buren again led the Eagles' offensive charge as he rumbled for 196 yards on 31 carries. In those two seasons, the Eagles outscored their opposition 761-290. They were lovingly called "the duffel-bag dynasty." Many players were young men who had served their country in World War II and returned home trying again to settle into a regular life. Said Hall of Fame LB Chuck Bednarik, a rookie on the 1949 team, "I think we belong with the best teams ever. Look at what we accomplished."

With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season. CB Herman Edwards provided the "Miracle of the Meadowlands" when he scooped up a fumbled handoff from Joe Pisarcik to Larry Csonka and raced 26 yards for the winning touchdown with 20 seconds left to play before a stunned Giants Stadium crowd of 70,318.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allows (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL QBs).

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

YEAR-BY-YEAR HISTORY

1988 — The Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that NY Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the Pro Bowl. Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' single-season passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to finish 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on Dec. 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from playing. CB Eric Allen led the NFC in interceptions with 8.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). The defense led the NFL in stopping the run thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. QB Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes and 942 rushing yards, while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. RB Keith Byars tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite, making him the 18th head coach in club history. They opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost QB Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. After coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined, the Birds suffered through a four-game skid. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. But a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's playoff hopes. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10-or-more wins in each of the last four seasons. The defense finished the season ranked #1 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in sacks and fumble recoveries and tied for the league lead in takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl – DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt a huge blow before the season even began as all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham - out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury - as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. They finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 record and returned to the playoffs, earning a Wild Card victory over the Saints before dropping a Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became the fourth Eagle to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson in '85. Off the field, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 – In January, the NFL and the Players Association signed a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a 7-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles produced an 8-8 record. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak (their worst skid since '83). Nonetheless, backup QB Bubby Brister led them to wins in 4 of their final 6 contests, a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season.

1994 – A new chapter in Eagles history began on April 6th when Norman Braman, the team's owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Jeffrey Lurie, a Boston native and president of a Hollywood-based movie production company. Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Despite losing the opener, the Birds bounced back to win 7 of their next 8 contests, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers. However, the Eagles went on to drop their last 7 games, finishing 7-9 and out of the playoffs for the second consecutive season. Two days after the season finale, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach ended when he was dismissed. RB Herschel Walker etched his name into the NFL record books as the first player in the 75-year history of the league to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. To appreciate the uniqueness of this feat, one need only note that just one other player - Hall-of-Famer Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-yard rushing performances at SF and vs. Wash., rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to eclipse the century mark in his first two contests. DE William Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and subsequently broke the club record of 6 consecutive games shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons.

1995 – On February 2, owner Jeffrey Lurie named Ray Rhodes as the 19th head coach in team history. Eleven months and a playoff victory later, that decision resulted in numerous NFL coach of the year honors for Rhodes. In just his first season at the helm, the former San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator battled through major roster turnover, a slew of injuries to key personnel, an early season QB change, and a sluggish 1-3 start to put the Eagles back on the winning track. Following that 1-3 start, Rodney Peete took over at QB for Randall Cunningham and led them to 9 wins in their final 12 games. The result was a 10-6 record and a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 1992. RB Ricky Watters, one of the NFL's most prominent free agent acquisitions of the year (he left the 49ers for the Eagles on 3/25/95), combined with Charlie Garner to give Philadelphia the league's 4th best rushing attack. Watters was 6th in the league in rushing with a career-high 1,273 yards and 11 TDs. In the postseason, the Eagles routed the favored Detroit Lions, 58-37, in a Wild Card game. Philadelphia's season, ended, however, a week later as they bowed out to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 30-11, at Texas Stadium. At season's end, Watters, DE William Fuller (an NFC-high 13 sacks), and LB William Thomas (whose 7 INTs were the most by an NFL linebacker since 1983) represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl. Off the field, team owner Jeffrey Lurie and his wife, Christina, oversaw the formation of Eagles Youth Partnership (EYP). The charitable wing of the Eagles, EYP was formed in order to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children in the Greater Philadelphia region.

1996 – For the second consecutive year the Eagles compiled a 10-6 regular season record and earned a Wild Card playoff berth. As such, Ray Rhodes became the first coach to lead the Eagles into the playoffs in each of his first two seasons at the helm. In the NFC Wild Card game, however, the Eagles fell to the host San Francisco 49ers, 14-0, in rain-drenched 3Com Park. For the third time in six seasons, the Eagles lost their starting QB to injury early on as Rodney Peete ruptured a tendon in his right knee vs. Dallas on 9/30. Ty Detmer, the former Green Bay Packer and Heisman Trophy winner, led the Birds to four straight wins and teamed with WR Irving Fryar and RB Ricky Watters to fuel the conference's #1 offense (351.7 yds/game). Fryar recorded career highs in TDs (11) and receptions (a team-record 88) and also tied a Birds' single-game record with four TD catches vs. Miami on 10/20. Watters earned his fifth trip to the Pro Bowl - his second as an Eagle - with personal bests in rushing atts. (353), rushing yards (1,411), TDs (13), and total yards from scrimmage (a league-leading 1,855). DE William Fuller again led the Birds with 13 sacks en route to his 3rd straight Pro Bowl. MLB James Willis' interception in the end zone in the final moments of game 9 at Dallas sealed a win. Willis' theft off QB Troy Aikman and subsequent lateral to CB Troy Vincent resulted in a 104-yard TD return, the longest in NFL history. Prior to the season, the Birds had once again been one of the NFL's most aggressive teams in terms of free agency. The signing of Vincent from Miami, along with that of Watters from San Francisco the previous year, made Philadelphia the only team to land another club's "transition" free agent in 1995 and '96.

1997 – After a 4-6 start clouded the club's shot at the post-season, the Eagles turned to 2nd-year QB Bobby Hoying. A 2-0-1 record in his first three starts brought them back into contention, but ended the year with a 6-9-1 record. Injuries plagued the club as 42 different players started, including three different QBs (Ty Detmer, Rodney Peete and Hoying). WR Irving Fryar posted 86 receptions for a career-high 1,316 yards, including a team-record six 100-yd. games. RB Ricky Watters became the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in three consecutive campaigns. The defensive unit's most memorable performance came in a win vs. Green Bay as they held the Pack without a TD, snapping a string of 85 straight games (including playoffs) in which they had scored a TD.

1998 – A disappointing 3-13 season led to the dismissal of head coach Ray Rhodes on December 28th, one day after the season finale. In Rhodes' fourth season at the helm, the Eagles never could get on track as they slipped to 0-5 before posting their first win. RB Duce Staley led the Eagles in rushing (1,065 yards), receptions (57), total yards from scrimmage (1,497), and TDs (6) as he became the first Eagle draft pick to top the 1,000-yd. rushing plateau since Wilbert Montgomery did so in 1981. On defense, the Eagles procured one of the league's top, young pass rushers - Hugh Douglas - in a trade with the New York Jets in March. Douglas went on to lead the Eagles and finish 7th in the NFL with a career-high 12.5 sacks. Along the way, Douglas tied a club single-game record with 4.5 sacks at San Diego.

1999 – Former Green Bay quarterback coach Andy Reid was named head coach on January 11th. Three months later, the club used the 2nd overall draft choice to select QB Donovan McNabb, one of the most accomplished athletes to ever come out of Syracuse. With their revamped roster, the Eagles got off to a 2-7 start, prompting Reid to insert McNabb into the starting lineup for six of the final seven contests. In his first start on Nov. 14th vs. Washington, McNabb sparked the Eagles to a 35-28 win over the Redskins. RB Duce Staley garnered his second straight 1,000-yd. rushing season and accounted for a NFL-best 41% of his team's offense. New defensive coordinator Jim Johnson turned up the heat as his troops accounted for a league-best 46 take-aways, including 28 interceptions (3rd in NFL), five of which were returned for TDs (a team record). FS Brian Dawkins and CB Troy Vincent earned their first Pro Bowl team selections. Vincent's 7 INTs tied for the league lead and became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since 1972 (Bill Bradley). Although the Eagles finished with a 5-11 record, Reid implemented a positive attitude as the Eagles possessed one of the youngest teams in the NFL. At season's end, there were 14 true rookies on the roster.

2000 – Andy Reid, the NFL's coach of the year by the Maxwell Club, The Sporting News, and Football Digest, led the Eagles to the greatest turnaround in franchise history, finishing 2nd in the NFC East at 11-5. The season started with a perfectly executed onsides kick by David Akers to kickoff the season opener at Dallas, leading to a 41-14 win. The Eagles won 10 of their next 13 contests and earned the top Wild Card spot in the NFC. In the playoffs, the Eagles overwhelmed Tampa Bay, 21-3, before losing to the eventual NFC Champion NY Giants in the Divisional Playoffs. When RB Duce Staley went down for the season with a foot injury in game 5, Donovan McNabb became a legitimate MVP candidate (he finished 2nd in AP voting to Rams RB Marshall Faulk). McNabb accounted for 74.6% of the team's total net yards and broke the club's single season record for most attempts (569) and completions (307). TE Chad Lewis led all NFC tight ends in receptions (69) and earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl. The defense featured 3 Pro Bowlers in CB Troy Vincent, DE Hugh Douglas (15 sacks, 2 in playoffs), and MLB Jeremiah Trotter. First round draft choice DT Corey Simon recorded a rookie team-record 9.5 sacks. A full-time kicker for the first time, Akers etched his name into the club's record book for most points (121).

2001 – The Eagles captured their first NFC Eastern Division Championship since 1988 and their first appointment in the NFC title game since 1980. Adversity hit this club early and often. The first preseason game was cancelled due to problems with the Veterans Stadium NeXturf. Starting C Bubba Miller was lost to a season-ending foot injury. And they dropped their season opener in overtime to the Rams before true adversity devastated the entire world on September 11th when terrorist attacks struck the World Trade Center and the Pentagon. As a result, a week's worth of NFL games were postponed before the Eagles plucked their first win of the season at Seattle. The Eagles were 2-2 before beating the Giants, 10-9, at New York on Monday Night Football for the first time since 1996 (a span of nine games). Following a loss to Oakland the next week, the Eagles roared through the rest of their schedule, winning 8 of their last 10 games, including a dramatic 24-21 win over the Giants on December 30 to clinch the NFC East title. In the playoffs, the Wild Card game rematch with the Buccaneers resulted in another decisive win, 31-9, and in the Divisional playoffs, McNabb made his homecoming to Chicago a sweet one, winning 33-19 at Soldier Field. Besides Donovan McNabb, who threw for a career-high 25 touchdown passes in the regular season and 5 five more in the playoffs, the other shining stars were on the defensive side of the ball. The Pro Bowlers were DE Hugh Douglas (9.5 sacks), MLB Jeremiah Trotter (164 tackles, 3.5 sacks, 2 INTs), CB Troy Vincent (3 INT, 79 tackles, 22 KDs), and FS Brian Dawkins (106 tackles, 2 INTs). The entire unit allowed the 2nd fewest point total in the NFL (208), including a league low 64 points permitted in 8 road games. In fact, the Eagles 7-1 record away from home was the best in franchise history. K David Akers earned his first Pro Bowl berth with 115 points and broke his own club record with 17 consecutive field goals made. As a unit, the Eagles special teams ranked in the top ten in 14 of the 16 major statistical categories provided by the NFL.

2002 — In the 31st and final football season at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles set a team record for points scored (415), tied a team record for wins (12), and sent a league-high 10 players to the Pro Bowl. However, they fell in the NFC Championship game for the second consecutive season. Despite the disappointing loss, the season was marked by many unforgettable moments. Andy Reid, the consensus coach of the year, proved that the Eagles were not a one-man show, winning five of six games without Donovan McNabb, after the QB suffered a broken ankle in the first quarter of a week 10 match-up with Arizona. McNabb returned for the playoffs and directed a win over Atlanta in the Divisional playoff, but the Eagles fell short, 27-10, in the NFC title game vs. the visiting Tampa Bay Buccaneers. At the midway point of the season the Eagles were cruising with a 6-2 record heading into a match-up with Indianapolis. The Colts handed the Eagles one of their worst losses in recent years, a 35-13 drubbing at the Vet. One week later vs. Arizona, McNabb was sacked on the third play from scrimmage by Adrian Wilson and LeVar Woods rolled his ankle before fumbling. Although McNabb returned to the game and fired four touchdown passes in the win, it was revealed a short time after the contest that his ankle was indeed fractured and that he would miss six-to-eight weeks. But the Eagles did not flinch one bit. "The general's been shot, it's time to rally the troops," said RB Duce Staley. And rally they did. Backup Koy Detmer started the following Monday night at San Francisco and threw for 2 TDs and ran for another before exiting in the 3rd quarter with a dislocated elbow in his non-throwing arm. Third stringer A.J. Feeley finished up the win vs. the 49ers and started the final five games of the regular season, winning his first four, including an NFC Championship game re-match vs. the Rams. Philadelphia rode a six-game win streak into Giants Stadium for the regular season finale in which the Eagles needed a win to clinch home field advantage. After a heart-breaking overtime loss to the Giants, the Eagles were still able to clinch home field after the Jets trounced the Packers in the same stadium one day later. Along with a record-setting offensive output, the Eagles stingy defense finished in the top five in numerous categories, including points allowed (2nd with 241), takeaways (3rd with 38), sacks (1st with 56), 3rd down percentage (1st with 21%), and red zone efficiency (3rd). Four players from this unit were selected to the Pro Bowl, including three of the four starting defensive backs. CB Troy Vincent, CB Bobby Taylor (5 INTs), and FS Brian Dawkins (team-leading 131 tackles) joined DE Hugh Douglas (12.5 sacks) on the NFC squad. The offensive line also featured multiple Pro Bowl selections for the first time since 1980 with tackles Tra Thomas and Jon Runyan and RG Jermane Mayberry. The Eagles special teams overcame some early struggles to become one of league's finest units once again. Kicker David Akers shattered his own team record with 133 points as he earned his 2nd consecutive invitation to Hawaii, while Brian Mitchell finished in the top ten in both kickoff and punt return average as he set an NFL record with his 13th career return for a TD.

EAGLES TELEVISION NETWORK

In 1997 the Philadelphia Eagles formed the Eagles Television Network (ETN). CBS-3 (formerly KYW-3) has been a broadcast partner of ETN the past three seasons, and will now serve as the flagship station. Other members of the broadcast Network are Comcast SportsNet, and in the outlying markets, WOLF – Scranton/Wilkes Barre and WPMT – Harrisburg/York/Lancaster.

ETN combines state of the art programming with exclusive access to the field, locker room and the personal lives of our players and coaches. ETN earned 7 regional Emmy nominations in 2002, and have totaled 8 wins and 36 nominations in the last four years. Other awards include 16 national Telly Awards over the last three years.

In 2003, ETN will produce the following programs...

Eagles Preseason Games – The Eagles Television Network will broadcast three preseason games in 2003, starting August 16th at the Pittsburgh Steelers. For the fourth straight year Eagles great Ron Jaworski will provide color analysis, joined by play-by-play announcer Kenny Albert. CBS-3 will carry the August 16th game at Pittsburgh, and the home preseason opener on August 22nd when the New England Patriots help the Eagles open Lincoln Financial Field. WPMT airs the games to our fans in Harrisburg, York and Lancaster, and WOLF airs the games in Scranton-Wilkes Barre. Each game is re-aired after the live broadcast on the previously mentioned ETN affiliate stations.

Inside The Eagles with Andy Reid presented by Chrysler/Jeep– UPN-57 will air this 60-minute program at 6 pm every Saturday during the season. The show will be a true "inside" look at the lives of both the players and coaches. Off the field features highlight the personalities and excitement that surrounds the team with exclusive footage privy to the ETN cameras. Eagles Insider Dave Spadaro gives viewers the latest Eagles news while NFL Films Director of Archives Ace Cacchiotti takes us back in time to some of the greatest moments in team history.

The Donovan McNabb Show – Hosted by CBS-3 sports anchor Beasley Reese, this program will not only bring viewers closer to the fastest rising star in Philadelphia, it will also go inside the locker room as well as go on location with Eagles players and coaches. This half hour show will air every Sunday morning at 11 am on CBS-3, and is a showcase of some of the best ETN has to offer.

Sunday Night Highlight Show presented by Sovereign Bank – The fastest half-hour on Philadelphia television airs on CBS-3 Sunday nights at 11:35 pm. See all the highlights from the game, one on one interviews with players, and exclusive locker room access only ETN cameras can provide.

NFL FREE AGENCY Q&A

Q -- What are the categories of free agency?

A -- Players are either "restricted" or "unrestricted" free agents. Within the categories are also "transition" and "franchise" players.

Q -- What is the time period for free agency signings this year?

A -- For restricted free agents, from February 28 to April 18; for unrestricted free agents and transition players, from February 28 to July 22 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later); and for franchise players, from February 28 through the 10th week of the season (November 11).

Q -- What is the difference between a restricted free agent and an unrestricted free agent?

A -- Players become restricted free agents when they complete three accrued seasons and their contract expires. Unrestricted free agents have completed four or more accrued seasons with an expired contract.

Q -- What constitutes an "accrued season?"

A -- Six or more regular-season games on a club's active/inactive, reserved-injured or "physically unable to perform" lists.

Q -- Other than accrued seasons, what determines a restricted free agent?

A -- He has received a "qualifying" offer (a salary level predetermined by the Collective Bargaining Agreement between the league and its players) from his old club. He can negotiate with any club through April 18. If the restricted free agent accepts an offer sheet from a new club, his old club can match the offer and retain him because it has the "right of first refusal." If the old club does not match the offer, it can possibly receive draft-choice compensation depending on the amount of its qualifying offer. If an offer sheet is not executed, the player's rights revert to his old club on April 18.

Q -- What determines an unrestricted free agent?

A - A player with four or more accrued seasons whose contract has expired. He is free to sign with any club, with no compensation owed to his old club, through July 22 (or the first scheduled day of the first NFL training camp, whichever is later). On July 23, his rights revert to his old club if it made a "tender" offer (110 percent of last year's salary) to him by June 1. His old club then has until the 10th week of the season (November 11) to sign him. If he does not sign by November 11, he must sit out the season. If no tender is offered by June 1, the player can be signed by any club at any time throughout the season.

Q -- What determines a transition player?

A -- His club must offer a minimum of the average of the top 10 salaries of last season at the player's position or 120 percent of the player's previous year's salary, whichever is greater. A transition player designation gives the club a first-refusal right to match within seven days an offer sheet given to the player by another club after his contract expires. If the club matches, it retains the player. If it does not match, it receives no compensation.

Q -- What determines a franchise player?

A -- A club can designate one franchise player (or one transition player) in any given year. The salary level offer by a player's old club determines what type of franchise player he is. An "exclusive" franchise player -- not free to sign with another club -- is offered a minimum of the average of the top five salaries at the player's position as of April 18, or 120 percent of the player's previous year's salary, whichever is greater. If the player is offered a minimum of the average of the top five salaries of last season at his position, he becomes a "non-exclusive" franchise player and can negotiate with other clubs. His old club can match a new club's offer, or receive two first-round draft choices if it decides not to match.

Q -- Can a club decide to withdraw its franchise or transition designations on a player? If so, can it then use them on other players?

A -- A club can withdraw its franchise or transition designations and the player then automatically becomes an unrestricted free agent either immediately or when his contract expires. The club cannot name a new transition player (two allowed in 1993, one in 1994 and one in the final year of the CBA). It can name a new franchise player the next year. A club can, though, designate a transition player in lieu of a franchise player at any time.

Q - What determines each team's salary cap? Is it always in effect?

A - The salary cap is the absolute maximum each club may spend on player salaries in a capped year. For 2003, that amounts to 64.25 percent of leaguewide "Defined Gross Revenues" (divided by 32 teams), made up of preseason, regular-season and postseason gate receipts and radio and television rights. The cap is in effect 365 days a year. From February 28 to the day before the season begins, a club's top 51 salaried players count towards the cap, plus pro-rated signing bonuses, incentives, etc., but not base salaries of other players on the roster up to 80. Thereafter, all salaries on a club's roster count towards the cap. The maximum salary cap for 2003 is $75,007,000 per club. The minimum club salary is $63,174,000. Player benefits are $12,156,000 per club above the salary cap number.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

Eagles' Philosophy of Community Involvement Starts at the Top

In addition to being responsible for the founding and operation of Eagles Youth Partnership, the club's non-profit, charitable wing, Eagles Chairman/CEO Jeffrey Lurie, and team President Joe Banner, are both personally committed to improving the lives of children.

Foremost among Lurie's passions is the fight against autism, a biological disorder of the brain that impairs communication and social skills, basically rendering children, and later adults, unable to communicate their feelings and emotions. It is a fight he takes personally since he has a brother who is autistic. A director of both the Autism Research Foundation and the National Alliance for Autism Research, Lurie's involvement has been lifelong and in 2000 the Lurie family donated $1,000,000 to the National Association for Autism Research.

Similarly, Banner's passion revolves around City Year, a non-profit community service organization that brings together young adults from diverse backgrounds for a challenging and rewarding year of community service. Throughout the country, over 1,500 corps members from all races, economic and social backgrounds tutor, mentor and support children of all ages; help them develop their potential and play a more active role in their schools, homes and neighborhoods. Banner serves as Co-Chair of City Year Greater Philadelphia.

Honored in the Community

In 2002, CB Troy Vincent was recognized nationally for his high level of community involvement as he was awarded with three very prestigious honors, the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award, the NFLPA's Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award, and The Sporting News Good Guy in Sports Award. Vincent is only the second player to win both the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award and the NFLPA's Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in the same year, and the only player in NFL history to win all three in the same year.

Players in the Community

In addition to taking part in various events on behalf of EYP, players often participate in community events by serving as reading mentors at local schools, and by speaking at youth summits about the importance of staying in school and staying off drugs. Players also frequently welcome special children on visits to the team's summer training camp as well as to the club's year-round headquarters, the NovaCare Complex.

The contribution of time and effort to the community by Eagles players is not limited to those few acts, though. Here's a brief list of other activities Eagles players have taken part in:

- TE Chad Lewis went on a good will tour of the Far East on behalf of the NFL
- T Tra Thomas literally donated his head to science when he allowed it to be molded for a permanent exhibit at the Franklin Institute Science Museum
- S Brian Dawkins has done a PSA for the Burn Prevention Foundation
- DT Hollis Thomas joined the Army National Guard for a trip in a Blackhawk helicopter
- T Jon Runyan has donated his time and been included as a supporter of Variety Club and Cystic Fibrosis Foundation in local advertising campaigns
- WR Todd Pinkston and QB A.J. Feeley took part in a Touchdowns for Technology Event at Overbrook (PA) HS, during which Lockheed Martin and WYSP Radio, the Eagles' flagship station, donated numerous computers to the school

Every year QB Donovan McNabb visits with underprivileged children in the Philadelphia area during the holiday season. He is pictured here with Brooke at The Philadelphia Ronald McDonald House.

- G John Welbourn spoke to students at Lower Merion (PA) HS on Election Day to stress the importance of voting
- Several players including, DE N.D. Kalu, WR Freddie Mitchell, S Michael Lewis, and Feeley participated in the annual Loews Afternoon at the Movies where hundreds of kids from a Philadelphia-area BEACON program were treated to popcorn and a movie
- At Thanksgiving, the Eagles hold a stadium-wide food drive to benefit the Greater Philadelphia Food Bank. The past three drives were record-breaking endeavors as fans donated over 11,000 pounds of food at each drive
- Later in each holiday season, the Eagles host a highly successful Book & Toy Drive which results in tens of thousands of toys being donated to the United States Marines "Toys for Tots" effort.

EAGLES IN THE COMMUNITY

United Way

As part of the NFL's partnership with the United Way, the Philadelphia Eagles work closely with the Southeastern Pennsylvania chapter of this nationwide charity. The Eagles participate annually in the Hometown Huddle event in October where each NFL team partners with local United Way agencies to positively influence their community. In 2002, the Eagles worked with Bridesburg Boys and Girls Club and Temple University Children's Medical Center. Six players spent the day with children from the Boys and Girls Club at the hospital making Halloween decorations and visiting with the patients.

RB Duce Staley has also represented the club in the NFL's annual series of televised promotional spots for United Way. Staley's spot, entitled "Chrysanthemum," won a 2001 ADDY Award for "creative advertising" in the "Public Service Division/ Electronic Media, Television" from the American Advertising Federation.

Player Foundations

Many Eagles players are active in the community through foundations of their own. Donovan McNabb, Duce Staley, Bobby Taylor, David Akers, and Troy Vincent have created their own foundations in order to support various causes in their hometowns and Philadelphia-area community. For specific information on each of their foundations, please refer to the player bios in this media guide.

Hospital Visits

Practice Visits

The Eagles regularly take the opportunity to host local children at private team practices. This type of a visit is usually reserved for children who are generally too sick to attend a game, and always creates lasting memories.

Coaches

Eagles coaches, including head coach Andy Reid, also donate their time to worthy causes. Many act as reading "coaches" in local schools where they assist children learning to read. Coaches also develop individual programs for their player-position groups, and frequently take the groups into the community.

Cheerleader & Mascot Programs

The Philadelphia Eagles Cheerleaders and SWOOP, the team's official mascot, work together and separately to get children excited about reading and safety. They participate in the Cheer for Reading program and the Health & Safety Tour where children learn about the benefits of staying in school and off drugs, about the importance of staying away from strangers, and staying fit.

This past year Eagles Cheerleaders also traveled to Bosnia to visit American troops on a USO-style tour.

The Philadelphia Eagles Junior Cheerleader program is a yearlong program designed for girls under the age of 16. It provides them with an opportunity to live out their dream of being an Eagles cheerleader and dance at selected Eagles home games.
